CALL FOR GOLD IS ISSUED

Germans Urged to Make Sacrifice of Superfluous Ornaments.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Oct. 18.—
The Norddeutsche Aligemeine Zeitung, a semiofficial newspaper of Berlin, to-day published a full-page appeal in large type, signed, among others, by Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg and Rudolph Havenstein, president of the German Imperial Bank, in behalf of the committee formed under the presidency of Crown Prince Frederick William, for the collection of gold ornaments to be melted into coin. The appeal says:

"The sacrifice demanded from you is light compared to the sacrifices of light compared to the sacrifices of sailly-saillisel and occupied houses along the

SERBIAN CONSPIRATOR DIES

Man Implicated in Archduke's Assassination Passes in Prison.

BERLIN, Oct. 16.—(By wireless to Sayville, N. Y.)—Nedjo Kerovic, one of the conspirators in the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir apparent to the Austrian throne, in 1914, has died in a military prison, says a report from Sarajevo, Bosina, given out by the Overseas News Agency.

Three of the conspirators in the assassination of the archduke were executed in February, 1915, and Jakov Zilovic and Nedjo Kerovic were sentenced to life imprisonment, but it was later commuted to 20 years. Gavrio Prinzip, the actual assassin, was sentenced to 20 years in prison.

PARIS DRINKS LESS WINE

Cider and Beer Take Place, to Large Extent, in Households.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 .- Cider and beer have taken the place of wines in many Parisian households, according to figures from American Consuls which show that during August 20,000,000 less quarts of wine were brought into Paris than in August, 1915. Approximately 6,000,000 more quarts of cider and beer were brought to the city.

HANDS A FRIGHT

Itched Till Child Was Nearly Wild. Some Nights He Cried All Night. Now Entirely

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My brother's hands started with pimples; some had water, and some seemed to have matter in them. His hands cracked and you could almost lay a slate pencil in the cracks. They itched so that he scratched till he was nearly wild, and they were a fright. We had him treated, but his hands were getting worse all the time, and some nights he cried all night.

"Then we got Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and it was not long before the itching stopped, and his hands began to heal. Now they are entirely healed and they have never bothered him since." (Signed) Mrs. W. G. Dow, Mandan, N. D., April 1, 1916.

SUBMARINE WAR DEMANDED

German Independent Committee for Peace Holds Meeting.

Pence Holds Meeting.

Dr. Helfferich indicated that the committee would have some sort of control over imports, with a view to keeping foreign exchange rates within safe limports, so as to protect the gold basis and Germany's currency system. He further said that the committee was not intended as a permanent organization, but that it would disband as soon as its task had been performed.

The representatives of all the parties expressed themselves as in accord with Dr. Helfferich's programme. Only the Socialists demanded that many of the organizations and methods created for war purposes should be permanently retained.

Monday's War Moves

Pence Holds Meeting.

BERLIN, via London, Oct. 16.—A largely attended meeting of "the independent committee for German peace," one of the organizations conducting an agitation for a ruthless submarine war, was held here yesterday. Deputy Fuhrmann, national liberal leader in the Prussian diet, acted as chairman.

According to the Tageblatt's report, the meeting insisted that an unrestricted submarine war must and should begin immediately. Count von Reventlow, editorial writer of the Tages Zeitung, who was one of the prominent speakers, added Dr. Karl Helfferich, secretary of the interior, to the list of "undesirables." He declared Dr. Helfferich, secretary of the interior, to the list of "undesirables." He declared Dr. Helfferich was more dangerous than the imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg.
