GIRLS TO SELL BLOOMS

MASKS TO BE WORN IN FUND-RAISING CAMPAIGN.

Many Prominent Persons Join in Elaborate Preparations to Aid Salvation Army Rescue Home.

Elaborate preparations for a fund raising campaign today in behalf of the Salvation Army Rescue Home have been completed by the committees headed by Mrs. Everett Ames, many persons prominent in local society having enlisted for the day. Several novelties have been devised for raising funds, including an automobile brigade which will occupy stations on prominent downtown corners. Permission has been granted by the City Commissioners to maintain automobile stands on the streets and the sale of flowers will be conducted in this way. Mrs. Harry Winslow Abeles is to act as captain of the motor brigade, a number of girls having been assigned to posts under her leadership. The girls selling flowers from automobiles will be specially costumed and will wear masks. Mrs. Oswald West has been assigned to take charge of an automobile check stand, which will be stationed on Broadway. From her machine flowers will be sold, for which checks made payable to the Salvation Army Rescue Home will be received. British Commander Hides. WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—British War Office regulation on imported hides was announced in a cablegram today from the American Consul-General at London.

CLOTHING THIEF CAUGHT

HARRY JOHNSON, IN HANDS OF POLICE, CONFESSES.

Youth, Who Says He is Son of Methodist Clergyman, Has Record of 17 Suits in 10 Days.

Harry Johnson, 21 years old, who says he is the son of a Methodist clergyman of Cincinnati, O., was a collector of other people's wearing apparel. His arrest yesterday morning by officers of the detective bureau clears up the theft of at least 17 suits of clothes within the past 10 days. For some time past daily reports of robberies from hotels and roominghouses have been made to the police. In each instance the thief escaped detection, carrying off one or more suits. Detectives were detailed to watch the second-hand clothing stores and pawnshops, where it was thought the "prover" would attempt to dispose of his plunder. Yesterday morning Detective Boyle telephoned to Detective Captain Baty that one of the stolen suits had been sold but a few minutes before at Front and Columbia streets. Johnson was accurately described and his arrest at First and Madison streets by Patrolman Cameron and Detectives Goltz and Howell followed within an hour. Confronted by the reports of room robbers, all similar, Johnson made a confession. He came to Portland several weeks ago, he told the officers, and commenced his thrifty investigation of wardrobes. The stolen suits were sold for sums ranging from $3 to $8.

CLOSING TO BE DEBATED

Civic League Today Will Hear Both Sides of Issue.

Proponents and opponents of the Sunday closing law will debate at the regular weekly luncheon of the Oregon Civic League to be held at the Multnomah Hotel today. C. C. Gault will speak for retention of the law and Dan Kellisher will present arguments why the law should be repealed. The luncheon will begin promptly at noon and the discussions will follow shortly after. The luncheon will be held in the gold room.

Willamina Gets Rainbow Fry. OSWEGO, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special)—The distributing car of the Oregon Fish and Game Commission passed through Oswego on its return trip from Willamina, where it unloaded 100,000 rainbow fry. The car was returning to the Bonneville hatchery.
