HOOSIERS MEET NEXT MONDAY.—The next meeting of the Indiana State Society of Oregon will be held next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the club-rooms of the East Side Business Men's Club, East Alder street and Grand avenue. A number of features of entertainment have been arranged. Dr. J. Chris O'Day, president, will tell of his recent trip to Indiana. Dr. L. Sargentich will speak on conditions in Indiana and messages will be read from Indiana Congressmen who have been asked by the society to support the Hoosier Congress in regard to the disposition of the Oregon land grant. There also will be music and dancing.

Mrs. CANTY HURT at FALL.—As the result of a fall Saturday night, when she slipped on a grape skin, Mrs. Minnie Thompson Canty, well-known music teacher, of 325 Wygant street, is ill at the home of Mrs. M. E. Blanton, of Huber. Accompanied by Miss Peggy Baker, Mrs. Canty was on her way to the station to take a train for Huber when the accident happened. She did not realize how severely she had been injured until after she had arrived at Huber. One foot is badly sprained. Within a few days Mrs. Canty will return to this city, as will also Miss Baker.

MOTORCYCLE TAKEN FROM SPEEDER.—For a second speeding offense Fred D. Spears was fined $50 by District Judge Dayton yesterday. He could not pay it and the court ordered that his motorcycle be held until the fine was paid. W. L. McDougal, who drove 40 miles an hour on the Oregon highway, was fined $35, and A. K. Howard was fined $25 for speeding. The arrests were made by Motorcycle Officer Rexford.

Monger (Mary Hellman) will give an address on restaurants and conditions governing them. She formerly taught in Portland and was active in various service work here and in Boston. J. D. Mickle, of the Oregon Dairy and Food Commission, will speak. All members and others interested are invited.

MYSTERY MAN CONSIDERED DEAD.—When Peter Branigan, laborer, recovered consciousness yesterday at the emergency hospital, he cleared the mystery that surrounded his plight by giving evidence of plain drunkenness. Branigan was picked up early in the morning, at Front and Flanders street, bleeding from several scalp wounds, which he sustained in a fall. It was considered probable at the time, that he had been "slugged."

"THE LAWYER IN LITERATURE" TOPIC.—"The Lawyer in Literature" is the third in the course of ten weekly lectures given by Dr. C. H. Chapman on Tuesday nights at 8 o'clock in the Journal auditorium, mezzanine floor, Journal building, corner of Broadway and Yamhill street. After the lecture there will be an open discussion of the plans of the Utopian League. The public is urged to attend and take part in the discussion.

H. A. NOBLE IN CITY.—Howard A. Noble, manager of the Glacier Park Hotel Company, a subsidiary corporation of the Great Northern Railroad, is in Portland on business for a few days. Mr. Noble formerly was general passenger agent for the Great Northern. He reports that Glacier Park has had the best season in its brief history and predicts a heavier influx of tourists next year.

LAND HELD SINCE 1865 IS SOLD.—A really date of the Civil War period was secured yesterday for the ten-story brick building at 183 1/2 Front street, on land acquired by the Joseph A. Stroubridge Estate in 1865, was sold to J. Lovell Portland, junk dealer. The property is between Taylor and Yamhill streets. The consideration of yesterday's deal is understood to have been $5000.

CHAMBER TO HAVE ELECTION WIRE.—The Chamber of Commerce has arranged for a special wire to be installed in the green room to bring in the election returns the night of November 7 for members of the Chamber and their friends. Arrangements will be made to take care of the overflow in the main dining-room in case the green room is overtaxed.

ARLETA GYM CLASS MEETS TUESDAY.—The women's gymnasium of Arleta will meet hereafter on Tuesday evenings at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of the Arleta School. Women only may join the class, which is not being admitted in future and spectators will not be allowed to attend. The class is open with charge, however, to women who desire to join.

TWO BIDS FOR BRICK IDENTICAL.—Two bids, both identical in amount, were received by the city yesterday for 42,000 bricks for use in relining the furnaces at the city incinerator. The bidders are Balfour, Guthrie & Co. and George B. Rate & Co. Each bid was $4700 or a thousand for the brick with an additional $2.50 a thousand for delivery to the incinerator.

INJURED TULLOCH WOMAN RESTS HEAVY.—Mrs. William Maxwell of Tillamook, who received a broken leg Sunday morning, when an automobile driven by her husband overturned at Twenty-third and Washington streets, is resting easy at Good Samaritan Hospital. Mr. Maxwell remained in the city to be in attendance upon his wife.

CRIMINAL'S WIFE GETS DECEASED.—Divorce by default was granted Harriet Wilson from Palmer C. Wilson, alias Stottum, by Circuit Judge Gatens yesterday. Wilson is serving a year in the County Jail for betrayal of a 16-year-old girl. He recently escaped from the custody of Deputy Sheriff but was recaptured the following day.

S. WADLEY WITH FORTNER Second Companion of Streetcar Victim Announces Identity. The identity of a hitherto unknown companion of M. C. Fortner, of 108 East Eighth street, who was struck by a Richmond streetcar late Saturday night, sustaining injuries which caused his death Sunday, was learned yesterday when Samuel Wadley said he was with Fortner at the time of the accident.

Mr. Wadley, who is employed by the Zimmerman Grocery Company at 400 East Morrison street, told Deputy Coroner Lowe that he and Thomas Dillon, of East Twelfth and Belmont streets, were driving about the downtown district when they met Fortner, who seemed to be somewhat under the influence of liquor, and they agreed to take him to his lodgings.

When they stopped for a moment Fortner left the auto and was struck by a streetcar.

Miss Gates, Leading Woman, Is Vivacious and Charming—Albert McGovern Also Is Clever Member of Company.

Interest is becoming centered on the opening next week of the new dramatic stock company at the Baker. Nearly every member of the organization is an entire stranger to Portland. The leads are to be played by Miss Gates and Albert McGovern.

Miss Gates is medium tall and of the semi-brunette type. She is bright and vivacious and has a charming personality. She is enraptured with the beauties of the West and especially of Portland. Miss Gates has held many important engagements, both stock and production, having been Wilton Lackaye's leading woman and also having appeared with David Warfield in "The Music Master" and "The Army Man." She was featured in the original production of "The Common Law" and played the lead in "Paid in Full" on the road. She has played many stock engagements, including New York City, New Haven, Holyoke, Mass., and Pittsfield, Penn., where she scored a tremendous triumph in Julia Arthur's in "The Eternal Magdalene," which will be the second week's offering of the new company here.

Albert McGovern has appeared also in support of such noted stars as John Drew in "His House in Order," William H. Crane in "Father and the Boys," Robert Edeson in "The Call of the North" and Macklyn Arbuckle in "The Traveling Salesman." His stock engagements include the Orpheum Players in Philadelphia, Walter Baldwin Stock in Duluth, Norfolk, Chicago, Brooklyn, Newark and one year in Crushed rock contracts for the Canyon Road and the Hess Road were awarded by the Commissioners and recommendation of Mr. Yeon. The former went to the Star Sand Co., which bid $1.45 a cubic yard, and the latter to St. Julien's Quarry, which bid $2.10 a cubic yard.

When Chin Fong was arrested several weeks ago by Federal officers for selling opium it was discovered for the first time that he was unlawfully in the United States. His case was brought to the attention of the United States immigration officers, who made an investigation and ordered Chin deported.

An indictment by the grand jury was brought against the Celestial a few days ago for selling opium and yesterday he was arraigned before Federal Judge Wolverton. He pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and sentenced to 60 days in the County Jail. He has appealed the deportation case. Chin Sam Yuen, another Celestial, was also fined $50 for selling opium.

WHY does the fastidious hostess almost invariably serve Swastika Biscuits?

Why does the careful mother always provide a select variety of Swastika Biscuits for the ever-hungry little folks?

Why do so many particular women call Swastika Biscuits "incomparably delicious"?

We might ask a score of similar questions, and the answer would be the same to all—have won their place in the sun of popular approval because of their inherent purity and quality.

Inherent Purity and Quality—linger on that! You cannot get more out of any product than what goes into it. And because Swastika Biscuits are made of the purest ingredients, in big, modern, sunlit plants, by past masters in the art of baking, Swastikas are known as "The Purest of All Pure Foods."
