

IDAHOANS MUST WAIT

War Department Puts Relief Up to Funston.

MEN ON BORDER CHAFING

Appeals by Senators and Governor for Return of Regiment Bring Reply That Services of Guardsmen Still Needed.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 4.—(Special).—There are no immediate prospects of the Second Idaho Regiment being ordered home from the border. This is the word that comes direct from the War Department. For the past several weeks there has been agitation in many communities in the state where companies in the regiment were organized to bring the regiment back from Nogales, where since last July it has been held for police duty. The matter of the regiment's return was taken up with Senators Borah and Brady, who promised to use their influence with the War Department, by D. W. Davis. Governor Alexander also took it up with the War Department. In answer to his request that the regiment be relieved from duty, Governor Alexander received the following reply from Adjutant-General McCain: "With reference to your telegram October 13 urging return home of Idaho National Guard, you are informed that selection of regiments to return home is left in hands of General Funston, who is on the ground and knows best which troops to return. This department would not be in position to make such judgment. The department has a very keen appreciation of sacrifices which these men are making by their enforced separation from home and business and, were emergency less commanding, would be very happy indeed to relieve them of further sacrifice. Situation, however, is not such as permits withdrawal of militia at this time."

72 OF 600 GO TO POLLS

Municipal Primary at Hood River Creates Little Interest.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special).—The municipal primary held here Saturday proved a farce. Out of more than 600 registered electors only 72 attended the polls and the names of a total of 29 candidates were written in. While no candidates were out for Mayor, the name of Dr. H. L. Dumble, incumbent, was written in on Republican, Democratic and Progressive tickets. Dr. Dumble says that he will make no canvass for the office, but will accept if re-elected. Walter Walters, K. W. Sinclair and C. O. Cuddeford received nominations for the City Council on all three tickets. They were slated by the Republicans. H. L. Howe and L. A. Henderson, Republican incumbents in their respective offices of Recorder and Treasurer, were nominated.

HEN WITH BROODS LAYS

Coyote Dines on Prize Chicken With Eggs at 50 Cents a Dozen.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special).—With eggs selling at 50 cents per dozen and probabilities that the price will remain at that figure or climb higher, D. E. Stanton, a valley gardener, feels that his loss of a record hen is severe. While other hens of Mr. Stanton's flock have gone on a strike with those of his neighbors, the old dominick, caught night before last by a prowling coyote, laid an egg every day until her tragic demise. "The old hen was a wonder," says Mr. Stanton. "She has raised two broods of chicks the past year and quit laying only while setting and for a few weeks while the chicks were young. She would continue to care for her broods and lay at the same time."
