FEDERAL OFFICIAL FINED

ASSISTANT POSTMASTER FORCED TO PAY BACK THEFTS. Six Months' Sentence in Jail Suspended. The Physicians Decide Whether Health Would be Affected. William E. Newell, assistant postmaster at Grants Pass, yesterday was fined $531.94 and was sentenced to six months in the county jail for embezzling funds from the Grants Pass postoffice. The fine was the exact amount of his peculations. He was arraigned yesterday morning, pleaded guilty and the case was presented by Deputy United States Attorney Beckman. It is said that Newell had appropriated the funds to pay for medical attention for his young son, who has tuberculosis. He is said to have borrowed money first from his townsmen and when he was unable to borrow more, misappropriated the Government funds with which he was entrusted. By a clever scheme of falsifying money order reports Newell was able to work without suspicion from the postoffice inspectors for more than three years. He is in poor health and the prison sentence was suspended until a Government physician is able to make an examination and forecast what the probable effect of close confinement will have upon his health. —Woman Wins Half of Auto. ALBANY, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special).—A unique bet between husband and wife is that entered into by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pirtle, of this city. They own an automobile jointly. Mr. Pirtle wagered his half of the machine on Hughes and Mrs. Pirtle on Wilson.

BATHTUB TAKEN IN RAID

FELIPE INCHANTE ACCUSED OF VIOLATING PROHIBITION LAW. One Hundred and Eighty Gallons of Wine Seized and Receipts Evidently Used for Mixing Vat. The strangest piece of evidence ever seized in a prohibition raid found its way to the vaults of the police station yesterday afternoon. It is a bathtub, and it was found in the home of Felipe Inchanite, at Fifth and Couch streets. When Horatius held the bridge, it is chronicled that the girls trod out the vintage while their sires "marched to Rome." There was mention of "white feet" and "brown must." The Inchanite bathtub harks back to custom of that traditional day, for the family used it as a receptacle for crushing the grapes, from which they manufactured the 180 gallons of wine, also taken in the raid. The tub, stained a rich purple on its white porcelain and bearing a residue of grape seeds, will be used as evidence in the case against Inchanite. The defendant was arrested on information given to Deputy District Attorney Delch by Domingo Ruiz, who became intoxicated in Inchanite's place, so he says, was beaten and kicked out. Ruiz was a soldier in the Spanish army when the American troops took Manila. He attached himself to his captors and came to this country with the returning Oregon regiment. Since that time he has remained in Portland. A Government report shows that during the last eight months there were 45,000,000 cigars imported to this country from the Philippine Islands. These cigars were made mostly by women and children working long hours for a mere pittance.

LAW BARS SHIP PLANT

VACATION OF 2 UNUSED STREETS REQUIRED FOR BUILDING. Proceeds From Sale of Adjoining Property Would Go to Charity—Daily Declines to Ask Citizen Vote. The Ziegler amendment adopted by the voters several years ago, prohibiting the vacation of water-front streets, has blocked the establishment of a shipbuilding plant on property in South Portland owned by the Hannah Mason estate, according to a statement made to the City Council yesterday by W. D. Fenton, attorney for the estate. He says he has had a proposition to sell the property for $60,000 for shipbuilding purposes provided two unused streets can be vacated. Mr. Fenton asked the Council to consider the question of submitting to the voters next June a proposed amendment to enable the closing of these streets, which he says, are not developed in any way and are under water part of the year. "The money derived from the sale would go to charitable causes," said Mr. Fenton, "in accordance with the will held by the estate. The property is of no value except for a shipbuilding plant." "Personally," said Commissioner Dale, "I think you are wasting your time. I am not even willing to submit a measure to the voters because there is too much to explain." The Council took no action on the proposition. Mr. Fenton refused to say what shipbuilding interests have been dealt with. President Campbell Goes East. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene.

Nov. 10.—(Special).—President P. L. Campbell left Tuesday night for Washington, D. C., where he will meet with the National Association of State Universities. He will address the association on the subject, "Can We Formulate the Ideals for Which State Universities Are Sponsors?"

The spout of a new container for a can of condensed milk punctures the can and allows the milk to be poured as from a teapot.
