TRAPPED BEAR IS SHOT DEAD Hunters Find Beast Hard to Kill and Use Three Bullets.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—A. E. Williams and Roy Anderson, employes of the Oregon Lumber Company at Dee, thought they had encountered a fierce bear while hunting yesterday on a mountain side south of the company's logging camp on the upper waters of the West Fork. Mr. Anderson sighted the bear and fired immediately. Bruin was seen to fall and then arise as though endeavoring to charge his attacker. The hunter fired again, and again the bear fell to rise once more.

KNOCKOUT IS ONLY TECHNICAL Credit Given George for Forcing Miebus to Give Up.

BEND, Or., Nov. 15.—(Sporting Editor.)—On Monday night Earl Miebus and Billy George were scheduled for a 10-round boxing match. George gave Miebus such terrific punishment in six rounds that Miebus' seconds threw up a sponge and the referee declared the winner by the referee. Please advise if George should be credited with a knockout or whether he should have credit for only a technical knock out. There is a knockout without the defeated boxer being actually counted out.

CLUB TEAM IN SHAKEUP REJUVENATED MULTNOMAH ELEVEN PLAYS WHITMAN SATURDAY.

Workouts Under Heavy Pressure Are Preparing Gridiron Men to Meet Borleske's Squad.

An almost entirely rejuvenated football team will represent the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club Saturday afternoon on Multnomah Field against Coach Vincent Borleske's Whitman College athletes. Manager James O. Conville, of the clubmen, has announced that practices must be held tonight and tomorrow night and then the team will be ready to trot onto the field Saturday.

He had his squad out last night and worked it along under heavy pressure. Captain Len Streibig, who has been under the weather of late, was out in uniform and he is eager to get back in the game. It may be that he will be arriving home today to keep company with the reliable Al Donaldson.

There will be three other boxing bouts and two wrestling matches. "Fritz" Hamlin, 115 pounds, and George Hansen, 128 pounds, both of the Multnomah Club, Portland, will be featured against Seattle men in the wrestling contests.
