Delegations from 11 associations and belegations from 11 associations and six allied bodies were in attendance when the meeting began. The report of Secretary-Treasurer Rublen, which was favorably passed upon, showed the last year was profitable to the extent of $1721 over all expenses, the best source of revenue being the National boxing championships held in Boston, which netted $3522.

Life Guards Not Professionals.

Life Guards Not Professionals. Charles Pavlicek, employed as a life guard at the Chicago bathing beaches, was declared to be in good standing as an amateur. The delegates declared that all life guards, employed as water-front pollecmen, who do not accept compensation as swimming instructors, are eligible smateurs. The definition of an amateur as "a sportsman who engages in sport solely for the pleasure and physical, mental or social benefit he derives therefrom and to whom sport is nothing more than an avocation," was adopted. All the amendments relating to the disbarment, pardoning and reinstate-means that an adult Yale student can register from New Haven and compete for a club in the Metropolitan Associa-tion. A stormy opposition to the commit-tee's proposal to discontinue the regis-tering of women swimmers resulted in the defeat of the proposition and reg-istration will continue to be granted to women for swimming events, con-fined exclusively to women, but only for such events. The Metropolitan Southern and Pacific Northwest asso-ciations favored the proposition. EX-CHAMPION ON WAY TO SEAT-TLE TO BOX MITCHELL.

California Lightweight Pleased to Hear of Successes of Bronson, Who Was His Sparring Pariner.

Willie Ritchle, ex-lightweight champion of the world, passed through Port-land yesterday afternoon on the Shusta Limited on his way to Seattle, where he meets Sid Mitchell tomorrow night. Stanley Jones, Spokane welter-weight, was with Willie. He will box on the same card and act as specified weight, was with Wille. Spokane weiter-weight, was with Wille. He will box on the same card and act as sparring partner for the present weiterweight championship contender. Ritchle was delayed in leaving San Francisco for Seattle, and Lonnie Aus-tin, the Sound City promoter, must have been glad to see him on the ground last night. Willie has just emerged from training for his fight with Johnny McCarbby at Reno, and is in fine fettle. The first question he asked when the train pulled in at the Union Sta-tion yesterday was: "How is Muff Bronson coming along?" Bronson was Willie's chief sparring partner when he was working out for Ralph Gru-man here last June. When informed that Bronson had knocked out Harra-han and Houck at Seattle, Ritchje was han and Houck at Seattle, Ritchie was tickled to death.

Manager Merrill, of the Rose City Manager Merrill, of the Rose City Athletic Club, will present his next card December I, two nights after the big Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club-Seattle Athletic Club card in the Winged "M" gymnaslum. Joe Swain, the battling butcher boy from South Portland, will be featured against Al Sommers, who is due back from North Dakota any day now

Dakota any day now, Billy Mascott and Joe Gorman, featherweights, are likely to appear on the same card.

Valley Trambitas and Billy Nelson will leave tonight for Seattle, where they meet Frank Farmer and Leo Houck, respectively, Wednesday night on the same card which Willie Ritchle and Sid Mitchell are topping.

in which Salt Lake did not figure was Portland's 18-to-13 win over Oakland. Los Angeles made 24 hits in a 21-to-11 win over Salt Lake for the most hits made by any one club in a single game during the season. In that same game Los Angeles made 12 runs in one inning for a season record. Salt Lake and Vernon, each with 21 hits, and Portland with 20, were the only other clubs to make 29 or more hits in a game. HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 20 .- (Special)—"Hell's Half Acre" is the name the students of the Hood River High School have applied to the new athletic field, made ready for its first event, a football game, last Friday. The faculty of the institution, however, looks unfa vorably on the proposed title, and it is likely that official pressure will be brought to bear to inaugurate a change Vernon won the two biggest-score
