Public Indignation Felt.

At the same time dealers were feeling the effects of the public's indignaa call for a concerted uprising against the high cost of living was being issued here by Mayor Cornelius Burns, of Troy, president of the New York State Conference of Mayors. The call advocated proclamations by the Governors of all states and Mayors of all citles of the Nation, to be pub-lished broadcast and read in schools and churches, establishing days for a series of boycotts against high-priced foods Mayor Burns also advocated, in addition to those proclamations, the cooperation of housewives' leagues, motion picture houses and labor organizations in the attack on the high cost of living.

Situation Regarded Remarkable.

The result of those activities, accordhas been the creation of the most remarkable food situation in the history of the Nation's great feast day.

The egg boycott, Mr. Hartigan said, has produced less buying, and, "in selfdefense the dealers have been obliged to reduce the price to induce purchases.'

The fact that 3000 more barrels of potatoes were received this year than last during the two days before Thanksgiving, and that potatoes now against the recent price of $7, indicates, he said, a recession of potato buying by the public, and that the top price has been passed.

Farmers Are Unloading.

The farmer, he said, "is shoving his caught with them on his hands.

"It is significant that last year, when we had a bumper crop of potatoes," said Mr. Hartigan, "there were less potatoes shipped here at this time than age.

"This year's cranberry receipts here are also far in excess of last year," he said.

The price of cold storage eggs at wholesale was 1 to 2 cents lower today than yesterday morning, when the esg boycott began.

Eggs sold at 34 to 38 cents a dozen coording to grade. The average price for fresh eggs was 63 cents, as compared with 55 cents at this time a yea ome wholesale dealers asserted that the boycott would play into the hands of the foreign buyers. They said that men who want eggs for export are waiting for a price reduction.

People's Power Emphasized.

Mayor Burns, in discussing his call, takes effect January 9. explained:

The apples have been sold at a price ranging from 90 cents to \$1.50 per box. Kenneth McKay, manager of the ex-change, says the total value of the special train's cargo will be almost $\frac{1}{25000}$. (Concluded on Page 2 Column 2) \$25,000.

WATER RATES UNCHANGED

Mr. Daly Says City's Charges Will Be Same in 1917 as This Year.

No change in water rates or water rules as applied to water users in Portland are to be made next year, according to announcement yesterday of City Commissioner Daly, who has charge of he water bureau. He says the rates next year will be the same in every g to merchants and public officials, particular and the only changes in rules will be a few minor changes affecting plumbers installing city serv-DOOR:

PITTSBURG, Nov. 39 .- Competition between hucksters and speculators handling turkeys on the Water-street wharf, which resulted in the price of potatoes on the market," lest he be live birds being reduced to 5 cents a pound, caused police reserves to be called out today to prevent riots in the general eagerness to buy, from sweeping the dealers into the Monongahela River. Many speculators are suffering this year, when there is alleged short- heavy financial losses because of the refusal of the public to pay the prices they demanded. In parts of the city live turkeys today sold at from 22 to 28 cents a pound.
