Following is the list of sales made, giving the animal's class, the consignee, the buyer and the price paid: Fourth prize two years and up, Hereford steer, S. C. Stearns, Prineville; Union Meat Company, $9.25.

Judging May End Today. Jersey and Guernsey classes were all judged late yesterday afternoon, and by noon today it is expected that all the cattle will have been judged.

The Shorthorn and Hereford classes, when being judged, were the center of attraction of the show ring. Not a better exhibition of fat cattle has ever been seen on the Coast, say exhibitors, and the competition was particularly keen.

The Holsteins also attracted much attention yesterday. It is the expectation of all the judges who have come here from the East and Middle West that this year's Pacific International is one of the best shows in which they have judged.

Sale to Start at 10 o'clock. Today will be one of the biggest at the stock show. The sale of Shorthorns will begin promptly at 10 o'clock this morning, and will continue all day.

Tonight will be held the banquet at the Multnomah Hotel that will be free to all exhibitors, breeders, feeders and those who have any connection with the show. It will be given by William Aronson's With the Crowd—The Crowd's With Aronson!

The people wouldn't pay 35c and 40c for turkey, but they swamped the dealer who sold at 22c!

It works the same way in everything else—jewelry, for instance. Aronson doesn't sell turkey, but he sells jewelry.

That's the reason for Aronson's success — the reason for the overwhelming response of the people when Aronson announced this Great Unloading.

Aronson promises to save you money—just that! Do your own choosing—the store is yours. Pick and choose as you will.

And diamonds always! I was looking in the windows yesterday, jotting down some prices, when I missed a beautiful $600 solitaire that had been on display.

In I rushed to Rueff. Rueff smiled. "Oh, I sold that today to a theatrical man," said he.

And Rueff is handing out diamonds these days at prices like these: $400 cluster diamond rings for $297.50.

It is worthy of note that many of Aronson's diamond customers are people who have bought diamonds in Eastern cities; they are quick to appreciate the values in Aronson's diamonds.

Another customer came in who wanted two brooches. He took four out on approval, and then concluded to take 'em all.

Here are Aronson's prices on brooches: $12.50 solid gold brooches, set with genuine cameos, $8.65.

This is profit-taking time for the buyer of jewelry. What a wonderful array to choose from in this big, bright, beautiful store!
