Y. W. C. A. CROWD GROWS

MISS A. V. RICE, OF NEW YORK, ADDRESSES CONFERENCE.

"Personal Evangelism" Is Topic of Visitor—Dr. Stansfield and Other Speakers Are Heard.

A larger attendance than on the opening day was registered at the sessions of the Y. W. C. A. mid-winter conference.

"Efforts to teach and help young people in religious matters will fail unless we present our plea in modern terms," said Miss Anna V. Rice, who spoke on "Personal Evangelism." Miss Rice, of New York, one of the National secretaries, is devoting her time in Portland to the work of the conference, and her lectures are for the girls in general, and not only for the workers. However, Miss Rice appealed to those who are in the work to look out for girls.

"You cannot hope to present religion in an attractive, taking way to the young unless we make it conform with the present age. You must be a student of human nature, and the Bible, and a reader, to be able to know and understand youth."

Dr. Joshua Stansfield continued his talk on "Christian Conceptions About the Bible." Christianity, he said, was a growing thing. Miss Jane Nell Scott spoke in the evening.

Last night at 7 o'clock Miss Helen Donovan held a class in Bible study, and Mrs. Bondnot Sealey gave mission study. The meetings begin in the eve-

SCHOOL PLAY PLEASURES

"HANSEL UND GRETEL" IS GIVEN BY FAILING CHILDREN.

Orchestra of 30 Pieces Entertains and Girls and Boys Present Pretty Drills to Big Crowd.

A large audience at night and about 500 children in the afternoon saw the presentation of "Hansel und Gretel" and other features at the Failing School yesterday. The fairy story, with its pretty setting and fanciful plot, formed a refreshing entertainment and the children played their parts well. The entertainment was given under the direction of the teachers and decorations and new scenery made the production most attractive.

The school orchestra of almost 30 pieces, under the direction of Albert Creitz, a student, had a large part in the success of the affair.

Appearing in "Hansel und Gretel" were: Richard Twineham, Alice Foster, Leonard Baker, Gussie Lakefish, Marvin Isenberg, Edmund Kefsky, Rose Bonventura and a group of little fairies.

The following were in the orchestra: Albert Creitz, director; Harry Bunell, E. Mayerovsky, Luella Ferguson, Philip Epstein, Isadore Hornstein, Sam Cohen, Harry Zohn, Worth Sherman, Abe Zohn, Beate Weisbrot, Elsie Wank, Joe Zohn, Frieda Linger, Barney Spivack, Harry Kessler, Morris Sholnick, Henry Pander, Abe Herovitz, Jake Davis, Sam Goldstein, Gilbert Zimmerman,

SEALS ARE IN DEMAND

RED CROSS ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS WORKERS ARE BUSY.

Campaign Goes on All Over Oregon and Sales Mount Up—More Local Women Join Forces.

All Oregon is evidencing interest in the campaign for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals.

Organizations in 100 different communities are active. Recorders keep the headquarters in the Oregon Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis in Portland busy. It is safe to say that 500,000 pieces of mail, Christmas packages and so forth, will be stamped with Red Cross Christmas seals this month. Each seal is in itself a warning against the disease that takes the life of one of every 12 people who die in Oregon.

The proceeds from the sale of the seals at a penny each go entirely, except for the 10 per cent that pays the American Red Cross for printing and other expense, to the organized fight

CADET EXAMINATION TODAY

West Point and Annapolis Aspirants Will Take Tests.

The examination of young men who aspire to enter West Point or Annapolis will be held today at 9 o'clock in the Commercial High School, Fifth and Harrison streets, under the direction of Superintendent Alderman, of the city school system.

There are about 20 applicants and those making the best showing will be certified for appointment to the Army or Navy academies as vacancies arise. In January, at the same place, another examination, limited to members of the Oregon National Guard, will be held to get eligibles for appointment to the military academy at West Point.

Centralia Plans Christmas Carols.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Plans have been completed for the singing of Christmas carols in Centralia on Christmas eve, the singing to start at midnight. The plan was launched by the Presbyterian Sunday school, but all of the other Sunday schools have been invited to participate. The singers will hold their first rehearsal Sunday under the direction of Miss Blanch Kilien.
