$10,000 Damage Case Opens,—The trial of the damage suit instituted by William R. O'Donnell against the Northwestern Electric Company, in which $10,000 is sought as damages for injury received last April, commenced in Federal Judge Wolverton's court yesterday. Arthur I. Moulton is appearing for the plaintiff and Kenneth Fenton is attorney for the electric company. Mr. O'Donnell, who is slightly blind, fell into a ditch at Eleventh and Yamhill streets, where the electric company employes were putting in conduits. He alleges in the complaint that no danger signals had been erected to warn pedestrians of impending danger. Advertisements intended for City News in Brief columns in Sunday's issue must be handed in The Oregonian business office by 5 o'clock Saturday evening.

STRAND (Park, West Park and Stark)— Vaudeville and motion pictures, continuous.

RIGHT OF COUNCIL TO REMIT IN CONTRACTORS' CASE DENIED.

City Attorney Says Commissioners Are Only Agents Where Funds Come before a specified time and a penalty for delays beyond that time, the Council cannot remit the penalty if the amount of the penalty would ordinarily go to the benefit of property owners paying for the work. Such was the ruling yesterday of City Attorney LaRoche in the case of a recommendation of Commissioner Dieck for retion of Commissioner Dieck for retion of Commissioner Dieck for remittance of part of a $1600 delay pen-alty against Glebisch & Joplin, con-tractors, on the Union avenue viaduct. The contract was delayed 64 days and The contract was delayed 64 days and the penalty was $25 a day or $1600 for the entire period. Commissioner Dieck recommended remitting all but $500 of the penalty, and the Council referred the matter to City Attorney LaRoche to rule on the legality of such action. Mr. LaRoche says in his report that the Council is acting as agent for the property owners, who are assessed for the cost and therefore legals the rower. From Property Owners.
