JAIL IS SCENE OF TUMULT

Sixteen Men Who Are Arrested on Complaint of Restaurant Proprietor Have Cases Continued by Judge Langguth.

Sixteen pickets of the Industrial Workers of the World, stationed in boycott array before the Oregon Coffee House, at First and Madison streets, were arrested yesterday by Police Sergeant Carlson and Patrolman Amundson, on disorderly conduct charges. They were tried before Municipal Judge Langguth and dismissed, the cases being continued indefinitely. All were young men in their 20's, and all enthusiasts for "the fellowship." As the patrol wagon jounced them toward their jail, in the elevator that lifted them to prison, they kept up the play. Once in the cells, they raised such tumult that their jailers found it necessary to separate them.

FAIR TREATMENT ASSURED

Probable Presiding Officers of Two Houses of Next Legislature Get Wishes of Members-Elect to Guide in Appointments.

Robert N. Stanfield, of Umatilla, who probably will be Speaker of the House in the coming Legislature, his election apparently having been assured during the past two or three weeks, is in Portland for two days. He expects to return home tonight.

BRIBERY CASE RECALLED

Payment of Attorneys' Fees Opposed by Commissioner Bigelow.

Once more the case in which ex-Mayor Rushlight, ex-Chief of Police Slover, Captain C. E. Baty and Sergeant B. F. Smith were arrested on a bribery charge for having attempted to catch Frank Collier, ex-deputy District Attorney, in the act of accepting a bribe, will get a place in the City Council records. City Commissioner Bigelow yesterday sent in a report recommending against payment of fees to attorneys employed by the officials to defend them in the action brought by Mr. Collier.
