CLUB HOST TO CHILDREN

FRAZER DETENTION HOME INMATES WILL RECEIVE GIFTS.

Rotary Organization Members Prepare to Entertain Youngsters With Celebration at Benson.

The Rotary Club will be Santa Claus to the children of the Frazer Detention Home at their annual Christmas celebration at the Benson Hotel at 4 o'clock. For more than a month little banks have been on the desks of each member of the club and he has been expected to deposit his small change there for the Christmas celebration. Every 10 days C. B. Waters, chairman of the committee, rounded them up and collected the money, and now it is to be spent on the "big bust."

George L. Baker is to see that Santa Claus is at the meeting to give out the gifts to the children.

BURGLARS ROB 2 STORES

Cigars, Cigarettes, Knives and Camera Are Among Loot.

Agile thieves, gripped by the cigarette-hunger, sealed the iron gratings before Noble & Loesch's cigar stand at 35 East Morrison, early yesterday, and despoiled the stock.

Five boxes of choice cigars and seven cartons of cigarettes were taken. Detectives Goltz and Howell have been assigned to the investigation.

The Miller Drug Company's store at Third and Couch streets was unlocked by a thief, who stole two dozen Jack-Knives and a postcard camera.

OFFICIAL GETS PRESENT

GRAND JUROR "ACCUSES" DEPUTY

J. L. HAMMERSLEY.

"Securing the Regard and Good Will" of Investigating Body Is "Crime": Smoking Jacket as Punishment.

Joseph L. Hammersley, the deputy in the office of District Attorney Evans, to whom the grand jury work is intrusted, was "indicted" yesterday for the "crime" of "contributing and securing the regard and good will of the December, 1916, grand jury." He was served with this presentment at the close of the morning session. It was accompanied by a green box.

Justice and fairness to all; thereby earning and securing the individual and collective regard and esteem of said jurors, contrary to the usual practices in such cases, made and expected."

DR. PENCE DUE JANUARY 6

Westminster Tomorrow to Listen to Sermons by Rev. H. S. Templeton.

Westminster Presbyterian Church is expecting to have their new pastor, Dr. Edward H. Pence, of Detroit, Mich., on the first Sunday of the new year. He will leave Detroit on January 2, and should arrive here on Saturday, January 6.

On December 31, the last Sunday of the year, Westminster will be favored by having in the pulpit Rev. Robert H. Milligan, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, of Tacoma. He is a warm personal friend of Dr. Pence.

This Sunday, December 24, Westminster people will have a former pastor, Rev. H. S. Templeton, who has had a part in the success of Westminster. At the morning service, at 10:30, his subject will be "The Mirror of Mirrors," and in the evening at 7:30 he will speak on "The Light of Life," a Christmas message. The choir will render a special programme of Christmas music.

CONVENTION PLAN IS TOPIC

Committee Named to Arrange for Entertainment of Educators.

Under the leadership of the civic bureau and publicity and conventions bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, one of the biggest entertaining organizations that has ever been developed in Portland will be formed this Winter to take care of the entertainment of the National Education Association Convention, which will be held here next Summer.

J. C. Alnoworth and Guy W. Talbot will head the committee and will call a preliminary meeting shortly after Christmas to begin the task of organization.

William McMurray took up the matter of railroad rates yesterday.
