NEW CODE PRAISED

Legislature Urged to Adopt Insurance Law.

Speakers at Members' Council of Chamber of Commerce Assert Present Regulations Are Inadequate for State.

—The state of Oregon has an inadequate set of insurance laws, and there never will be a better time or a better opportunity than the coming session of the Legislature to remedy this condition," said S. P. Lockwood, who addressed the members' council of the Chamber of Commerce at its luncheon yesterday on the life insurance phase of the proposed insurance code.

Each of the cardinal phases in the report of the code commission which was appointed after the 1915 Legislature to draw up and harmonize the insurance laws of the state was discussed by a separate speaker.

Mr. Lockwood discussed the life insurance portion of the code. He declared that this code will be found to be the best in the United States if it is adopted by the Oregon Legislature.

Three Phases Discussed.

W. A. Williams spoke on the fire insurance provisions, W. J. Lyons on the laws governing surety and fidelity insurance, and J. W. Simons on the insurance under fraternal societies.

"We feel that the Legislature has a duty to perform in enacting a law that will regulate properly the subject and business of insurance in conformity with the desire of the great majority of the people, who realize that in a state regulation lies the only solution for the problem of giving both the companies and the public the full measure of protection which is rightfully theirs," said Mr. Williams.

Speaking for the fraternal societies Mr. Simons declared that the hope of all of them is that the proposed code, as drawn up by the commission, shall be enacted as printed, without amendment.

Fire Marshal Is Speaker.

Fire Marshal Stevens spoke in behalf of the proposed legislation to provide for a state fire marshal, declaring that the reduction of fire loss that would result from this would more than offset the expense of maintaining the office. Harvey Wells, state insurance Commissioner, also spoke.

Mrs. A. L. Stephens spoke on the proposed measure to establish a Bureau of Juvenile and Domestic Relations to supersede the Juvenile Court in Oregon.

ANDREW J. McCABE DIES

PORTLAND CONTRACTOR PASSES AWAY IN CALIFORNIA.

Trip Taken Six Weeks Ago in Search of Health; Much Railway Mileage Built in Oregon.

Andrew J. McCabe, a well-known railroad contractor of Portland, for years in business in the Chamber of Commerce building as a dealer in railroad equipment, died yesterday in Monrovia, Cal., after an extended illness. He left Portland six weeks ago for California because of his health.

Mr. McCabe was about 60 years old. He was in business with a brother, George, now dead, and the two completed many construction contracts for railroads in this and other states. Mr. McCabe is survived by a sister, Mrs. Frank Villa, 271 East Twentieth street, who accompanied him south, and a brother in the East.

Mr. McCabe formerly had been a superintendent on the Great Northern in Montana.

Much new mileage was completed by Mr. McCabe and his brother. They built a section of the Harriman line to Tillamook, a portion of the Mount Hood electric line, now the Bull Run extension of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, and other work.

It is thought the body will be brought back here for burial.

18 LIQUOR VICTIMS

New Year's Celebrations Followed by Court Visits.

2 DRUNKEN DRIVERS JAILED

Judge Langough Declares Intoxicated Man With Auto Is Grave Menace—G. W. Lawrence and J. W. Bannon Pay Penalty.

The man in an intoxicated condition and driving an automobile is more dangerous than if he had a gun in his possession.

This was the declaration of Municipal Judge Langough yesterday while sentencing two motorists to fines and imprisonment for driving machines while intoxicated.

The celebration of New Year's in the "good old-fashioned way" resulted in a cosmopolitan array of "drunks" appearing before Municipal Judge Langough yesterday morning, and the two men held for driving machines while intoxicated contributed to the assemblage.

George W. Lawrence, a salesman who was arrested by Motorcycle Patrolman Frank Ervin while attempting to drive his machine from Myrtle to Portland, was fined $30 and 10 days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended during good behavior. Lawrence told the judge that he procured his liquor from a friend who later deserted him.

Someone telephoned to the police station late Monday night that a man was sleeping in an automobile at the side of the road between Portland and Milwaukie, and Police Captain Circle dispatched Patrolman Ervin to the scene with the result that Lawrence was arrested.

John W. Bannon, arrested by Patrolman Clement on a similar charge at West Park and Washington streets Monday night, was sentenced to 10 days in jail.

"You are charged with being drunk. Were you drunk?" formed the prevailing question of Deputy Clerk Crouse when the victims filed before the judge. There were 18, and nearly all started the new year by paying a fine or serving a jail sentence.

Clear Ross, who has the distinction of being the first man to get his name on the police docket for the year 1917, was fined $10 for drunkenness. Ross is said to have accented Police Matron Patterson in somewhat endearing terms as she was leaving the station just after Sunday midnight. She led him into the station and turned him over to the jailer.

BALLET LIST IS OUT

Repertoire of Russian Dances to Be Given Here Received.

FAMOUS NUMBERS NOTED

Serge de Diaghileff's Company Is to Appear at Heilig Under Direction of Steers & Coman January 12 and 13.

The repertoire of Serge de Diaghileff's Ballet Russe has just been received by Steers & Coman, under whose auspices and direction the artists will appear at the Heilig Theater, January 12 and 13, and it includes those dance dramas and poems which have been hailed as foremost in the entire list.

Friday night, January 12, the programme will include "Les Syphides," "Cleopatre," "Prince Igor" and "La Princesse Enchantee." Nijinsky will appear in two of the numbers.

"Les Syphides" is a number of elusive poetry and perfume, set to music by Chopin. Nijinsky is the central figure, assisted by Lopokova, Sokolova, Galanta and Pflanz.

"Cleopatre," the story of the famous queen of the Nile, is the second number. It is lavishly staged and permeated with amorous display. The music is by Arensky and the celebrated Adolf Bolm, Flore Revalles, Sokolova, Galanta, Pflanz and Zverev will be the principal dancers.

"Prince Igor," a wild, native and fiery dance number, will be performed by Bolm, Galanta, Sokolova, Zverev and Pflanz.

The final number will be "The Enchanted Princess." The inimitable Nijinsky and Lopokova are the central performers.

Saturday night, January 13, the programme will be as follows: "The Carnival," rich in humor and simple pathos, music by Robert Schumann. Nijinsky, Lopokova, Bolm, Sokolova, Pflanz and Zverev will perform.

"Prince Igor," with the same cast as the Friday night performance.

"L'Apres Midi D'un Faune" ("Afternoon of a Faun"), which is Nijinsky's celebrated performance. Other famous dancers in the cast will be Revalles, Sokolova and Sumarokova. The "Faun" was the sensation of New York.

"Thamara," intended as a ballet which has been proclaimed Bakst's amazing triumph in decoration will be the concluding number for Saturday night. The music is by Balakireff and the cast includes Bolm, Revalles, Pflanz, Sokolova, Galanta and Sumarokova.

The Saturday matinee will provide three of the most artistic and elaborate of the repertoire, opening with "Les Papillons," "Le Spectre de la Rose" and the magnificent "Arabian Nights" tale of "Sheherazade."

It is explained that the position of assistant secretary is a new position and intended to cover the employment of an assistant for not exceeding 12 months out of the 24 in the biennium.

The expense during the past fiscal year, the statement shows, was 8.1 per cent of the fees collected, and for the biennial period 8.3 per cent. The balance left after cost of administration is deducted is turned over to the general fund.

As the department is maintained solely by the fees collected, no appropriation is required for its maintenance.

COUNCIL SEAT QUESTIONED

Defeated Candidate Says Winner Is Not Qualified Under Law.

OREGON CITY, Jan. 2.—(Special.)—E. B. Andrews, a member of the City Council from the Third Ward, who was defeated in his race for re-election by Ioson C. Bridges, today filed a suit in the Circuit Court to have Mr. Bridges declared disqualified. In case Mr. Andrews is successful, he will continue to hold his seat in the Council. Until the court decides the matter, Mr. Bridges will continue to serve.

The charter provides that a Councilman must have resided in the city for a year preceding his election. Mr. Andrews alleges that on February 24, 1914, Mr. Bridges disposed of his property interests here and moved from Oregon City and that he did not return until June 15, 1916.

$20,300 ASKED FOR TESTS

Department of Education Files Budget for Examinations.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—Three hundred dollars less is asked by the department of education for the State Board of Examiners for the next two years than was given for the past two years. The total amount asked for the coming biennium is $20,300.

The Legislature of 1911 abolished the 34 county boards of examining applicants for teachers' certificates and placed the work upon the State Superintendent and a State Board of Examiners. The number of applicants each examination varies from 1400 to 1800 and examinations are held in June and December of each year.

During the past year about 21,910 letters have been received relating to certificates and as many answered. Included in the estimated cost are salaries and traveling expenses of employes and general maintenance.

Many Persons Collect on Gopher Scaps at Salem.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—A score or more of persons arrived at the County Clerk's office today with gopher scaps to collect the 10-cent bounty provided for under the law.

The Legislature of 1915 directed the County Court of Marion County to raise 1-10 of a mill in taxation for that purpose. The fund was exhausted several months ago, but with the new biennium coming in it is expected the office will be swamped with gopher scaps until the allowance for this year is exhausted.
