THE MORNING OREGONIAN, FRIDAY. JANUARY 5, 1917.

in the big cities of the United States. fort to introduce them widely. It is and he "conceived the idea of utilizing Terraced gardens are cultivated actrue that our architects are succeed- prisoners of war for agricultural laording to the taste of the occupants ing in building houses of more con-of the new tenements, and the gen-venient arrangement than formerly, ect for food distribution which exof the new tenements, and the general effect upon the appearance of but that is about all. So far as perts pronounce "admirable in the city is said to be extremely pleas- machinery goes, our kitchens are not simplicity." Removal of the Removal of the bemuch different from those of grand-mother's time. By means of co-operative financial arrangements, it has been made mother's time.

FIRE PREVENTION PAYS.

Fire Underwriters estimates that 23.4

per cent was due to strictly preventable causes. Principal among these chimneys and flues, 6 per cent;

Of the fire loss in Illinois during Necessity is still the mother of in-vention, but in this instance it would between the Duma and the governssible for each dweller to have complete title to his particular home, while sharing in the benefits common seem that necessity might be the ment.

what it is.

means of forcing the adoption of in-ventions already made. Hotels and Duma, are thus taking charge of the means of forcing the adoption of inclubs, mostly under the management conduct of the war. In the effort to

of men, have been adopting labor- extirpate German influence from the saving devices for a good while. When bureaucracy they have forced a great the point is reached where housewives advance toward conversion of the aumust do their own work or let it go tocracy into a limited monarchy, with undone, it is possible that they will a Cabinet which owes its existence to give a more hospitable reception to the support of the Duma. The aris the new idea in housework. It will tocratic officers of the old army hav-be either that or some form of co-ing been killed or made prisoner with operation not yet perfected. It is apparent that we are on the verge of been forced to turn to the students change in home management, even and the middle class for officers to though we do not now know precisely lead the new levies. This class is > fraternize with their men and spread liberal propaganda among them. Should the reactionaries attempt to destroy the new power of the Duma,

Final disposition of the bill for a iry District of Columbia will only in part to define the attitude of the individual members of Congress toward the general question of prohifire losses is preventable in Oregon bition, state or National. There seems as in the Middle States named. Much to be determination that the saloon has been done to reduce preventable shall go, and equally it appears to be man till his age. Discern of the comwaste by fire in Portland through the manifest that importation of liquor for collateral issues, not all advanced in citizen rather than by any official. A good faith. One proposal was that the exercise, apparel and the like; and try, The it a local option issue. It was lost on as, if thou dost find any inconvenience

One would think that if any city in the world was unfavorable ground for petition. Fire prevention is bound to a "home rule" propaganda, that city would be our National capital. Washmiums, so that the property owners ington is essentially not a place to which the term "local" applies. It is

National in its character. The vast ums appropriated by Congress out of the Nation's coffers for its beautifica-

ation, but for Washington, the capital who originally laid out the place was that it should be a model capital, "Entertain hopes; mirth rather than rather than an incidental dwelling joy; variety of delights rather than place for certain hotel keepers and merchants catering to local wants.

A large proportion of the people who reside there are not, strictly illustrious objects, as histories, fables In Russia they demand a larger part speaking, citizens of the District, They would not vote in a local option election, lest by so doing they lose their citizenship in the states in which their real political fortunes are cast. any referendum that might be ordered would be conducted without them, and would necessarily be inconclusive as a measure of real public A further objection urged is that, since there is no provision for voting in the District, it would be necessarily difficult to provide registration and election machinery. The situation of the District would lend itself readily to colonization on a large scale and to frauds of every other kind.

In Washington the appeal to local sentiment in connection with efforts to prohibit the sale of liquor seems to be regarded generally as insincere. It will be interesting to keep trace of quainted with your body, the various other subterfuges to which reputed of for his faculty."

efforts to choose statesmen to repre-

A century or so ago the ranks of on the ocean, as is shown by the report of the United States Marine Corps for nine months of the year

1916, in which there were 5082 applications for enlistment from the New York district and only 167, or about one in thirty, were accepted. The principal cause of rejection was defective vision, but bad teeth ran this a close second. There were numerous cases of heart affection, aggravated, in all probability, by the conditions of amined were classed under the general head of "poor physique and under Emerinus Versteeg, who brought skating here from Iowa fifty years ago and introduced it on Guild's Lake.

and other intricacies have become says cutting figure eights backward

lost art, wholly due to a mild cli-

Representative McArthur has an

Multnomal

allotment of free flower and vegetable seeds for his constituents that can

Nebraska is a pretty well-filled state, yet its new Governor recommends creation of a publicity board to let people know of its advantages.

Oregon has townships where Nebraska

The standard funereal joke flourish this year in consequence.

weight."

How to Keep Well By Dr. W. A. Evans.

Questions partinent to hygiene, sanitation and prevention of discase, if matters of gen-eral intercat, will be answered in this colmatters of genthe Where space will not permit or umn. subject is not suitable, letter will be personally answered, subject to proper limita-tions and where stamped addressed envelops is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases. Re-quests for such services cannot be answered. (Copyright, 1916, by Dr. W. A. Evans.

Published by arrangement with the Chicago Tribune.) HEALTH HINTS BY BACON.

HEALTH HINTS BY BACON. FRANCIS BACON was born in 1561. Maintained that they were satisfied with these need not be touched upon here, for the point I was aiming at taken from the essay, "Of Regiment of Health." He died in 1626, probably the satisfied with the interval of the inte Portland, as of pneumonia. He exposed himself in making an experiment to determine whether cold would check putrefaction. He packed a freshly cleaned chicken with snow-and in consequence had a chill, followed by fever, and death ensued in one week. Quotations from the essay follow: "There is a wisdom in this beyond the averages made in comparison of the six Western cities were on the basis the rules of physic: a man's own observation, what he finds good of, and f 35 skilled trades. what he finds hurt of, is the best But the investigations carry us still further, and it is found in the report that Portland ranks third among the physic to preserve health. But it is a afer conclusion to say: "This agreeth not well with me, therefore I will not continue it,' than this: 'I find no offense of this, therefore I may use it. troit and a host of other cities of large age of wages paid, with differences of from 3 to 10 cents an hour For strength of nature in youth passes over many excesses, which are owing a ing on of years, and think not to do "Examine thy customs of diet, sleep and to the public, these averages do not indicate that Portland is lagging in the recognition of the rights and deserts of the worker. deserts of the worker. Forced from the position of claim-ing that the present strike is for an improvement in wages and working conditions, the labor leaders now let by the change, thou come back to it again; for it is hard to distinguish that it become clear, as it should have been made clear in the beginning, that they which is generally held good and wholesome from that which is good are making a straight out-and-out fight for the "closed shop." Whereupon the public may turn again to Portland's ranking in the industrial survey made by Professor Ogburn, and surely when a city whose particularly and fit for thine own body. "To be free minded and cheerfully disposed at hours of meat and of sleep and of exercise is one of the best preindustries have committed themselves firmly to the open-shop principle still ranks third in the entire United States cepts of long lasting. As for the pastion are not designed for the benefit of Washington, the place of local habi-In the average of the wages paid, it does not furnish a very substantial ar-gument in favor of the demand for the "closed shop." WM MACMASTER. wards, subtle and knotty inquisitions, of the United States. The plan of those joys and exhilarations in excess, sadness not communicated.

> HORSEHAIR EXPERT OFFERS OATH surfeit of them; wonder and admira Also Witnesses to Prove His Contention, and therefore novelties; studies that fill the mind with splendid and and contemplations of nature. "I commend rather some diet for ters about snakes and worms, some contradicting my statement as to horsehairs turning to worms. I will be at the Multnomah County Court-house January 5, forencon. If those smart guys want the proof and will pay for affidavit I will ewear that my statement was the whole truth. I have living witnesses here—my wife, Aman-da Jane, and R. C. Allison and Jane Allison of Mossyrock ertain seasons, than frequent use of hysics, except it be grown into a cusom. . . . "Despise no new accident in your ody, but ask opinion of it. In sickness, respect health principally; and in health, action. . . Allison, of Mossyrock, I do not claim they are real snakes, "Physicians are some of them so pleasing and conformable to the humor but living, crawling worms. I have seen them here. That terrible hoop-snake that swelled the hoc handle is of the patient, as they press not the true cure of the disease; and some

a stunner, as are many more state-ments. I believe the writers have others are so regular in proceeding according to art for the disease, as they analies in their boots. I also noticed the compliments Portland papers gave me as the wild man of Mossyrock and of the wilds of respect not sufficiently the condition of the patient. Take one of middle temper; or if it may not be found in one man, combine two of either sort; and forget not to call as well the best ac-quainted with your body, as the best W. A. Shaner, at Murphy Bros.' barber quainted with your body, as the best

Should See Physician.

police and people by ample proof wh and what I am. DANIEL SHANER. Mrs. G. A. B. writes: "Fifteen months ago I gave birth to a child. Before and Answer to "My Dally Prayer." after the birth I suffered from an

DEMAND IS FOR "CLOSED SHOP" Analysis of Prof. Ogburn's Findings

Reveals True Motive for Strike. PORTLAND, Jan. 4 .- (To the Editor) The findings of Professor W. F. Og-burn, of Reed College, in his survey of industrial conditions, which was viewed in the afternoon papers January 2, are particularly interesting in view of the claims of the labor organizers as to the motives back of the present shipbuilding strike.

us bellove.

In the early stages of the strike. New York, Jan. 4 .- It is reported that the Chilean government has cabled or-ders to Minister Pedro Montt at Washthey asserted emphatically that it was question between the employes and ngton to make a sincere apology to the employers of "wages and working the United States for the unfortunate and deplorable attack on the Baltimore conditions." The fact that the masallors last October.

> Spokane, Jan. 3 .- Chief Joseph, of the Nez Perce tribe, will leave soon for Washington to plead with the au-thorities to allow him to return to his old home in the Blue Montains of Eastorn Oregon.

In Other Days.

Twenty-five Years Ago.

from The Oregonian of January 5, 1591.

Washington, Jan. 4 .- There has been great deal of talk about preventing avid B. Hill from taking his seat in the United States Senate because he ontinued to serve as Governor when his term as Senator began 10 months

Portland, as compared with other cities of equal rank on the Pacific Coast, Portland stands third in the av-The annual meeting of the board of officers of the First Regiment, Oregon National Guard, was held at the Arm-Coast, Portland stands third in the av-erage wage. Portland still maintains her place in a comparison of average wages in six major cities west of the Rocky Mountains. This fact alone should lead one to wonder if the la-horer in Portland is in such a bad way as the labor organizations would have up believe last night, Colonel C. F. Beebe presidinit.

Half a Century Ago.

From The Oregonian of January 5, 1867. Washington.—A joint resolution has been affered and referred to the Sen-ate, proposing an amendment making the Fresident ineligible for a second It should be noted, furthermore, that term.

Albert M. Snyder, 96 Front street, East Side, is a Government claim agent, and is prosecuting claims before the ities in the whole United States in the average of wages paid. Chicago, New York, St. Louis, Cleveland, Devarious departments of the Government.

The Mexicans are not expected to be able to do much toward expelling the French and Austrian from their terriom 3 to 10 cents an hour. Granted that labor is entitled to and tory until they put an end to their Internal strife. The Juarez and Orega should get the best wages that can be secured in fairness to the employer factions are still contending bitterly over the Presidency.

> Thomas J. Holmes, Mayor, has vetoed he ordinance providing for sidewalks n Market Square and other public the on Mn blocks.

Soon after the death of Prince Albert, the Emperer Theodorus of Abys-sinia, sent to Queen Victoria a proposal marriage. She treated it with slient contempt, whereapon his sable maj-esty, out of revenue, selmed the princi-pal Englishman then in his dominion.

HUSKY INFANTS, SAYS WRITER

Brief History Given of Concerns Now Building Ships.

PORTLAND, Jan. 4 .--- (To the Edior.)-This is my first offense at tryng to break into print for any purose, but the letter from Mr. Plummer, ublished in The Oregonian, had so many comical angles to it that I could not refrain from giving the public a chance to enjoy them as much as I MOSSYROCK, Wash., Jan. 2 .- (To have.

the Editor.)-Of late I see many let-ters about snakes and worms, some In section 4 of the same Oregonian a which Mr. Plummer's letter ap-eared, a whole page is devoted to a letter of a ship-yard entitled "Ship picture of a ship-yard entitled "Ship Building Now One of Oregon's Great Industries." Doesn't sound much like the baby industry that Mr. Plummer would have us believe. Another phase of the situation is that the Willamette iron & Steel Works has been established here, as I remem-her about 40 years and here personed ber, about 40 years and been engaged in the manufacture of marine engines and bollers most of the time. It cer-tainly would not do to endanger their existence at the very threshold of their operations

The Northwest Steel Company has been established a number of years and is reputed to be one of the largest con-cerns in the Pacific Northwest. Some baby industry! Only about 1000 men

The Smith & Waters Iron Works (Columbia Shipbuilding Corporation) is helpless now Will try to be in Portland Friday, Jan-uary 5, or sooner, to show Portland one of the oldest established concerns of its kind in Portland. ample proof who

The Albina Machine Works, our real baby shipbuilding plant, does not enter into the present controversy, it having signified its intention of employing thorough understanding of this situa-tion and to this end I have endeavored to put before the public a few things that he evidently, did not consider of enough importance to mention. I am not employed by any of these concerns nor are any relatives or friends of mine that I know of. NEUTRAL

A Groucherino's Growl.

PORTLAND, Jan. 4.-My neighbor just across the way-that guy does beat the deck-came over early New Year day to bellow through his neck. He grouched a lot about the times, a growling song and dance, where once he'd dollars now he'd dimes and nickels in his pants, Cigars into his jaws he'd chuck, the finest he could pick, but now the stogy he must suck that cost three for a nick. He used to ily union m I believe, as Mr. Plummer says ha matches, 4.7 per cent; smoking, per cent. The percentages vary slight-ly in the adjoining states of Missouri, Indiana and Iowa, but the causes occupy about the same position as to elative importance. Probably as large a percentage of intelligent zeal of Fire Marshal Stevens, but much more can be done, and it must be done by the individual reduction of one-fourth in fire losses, if sustained, would warrant a proportionate reduction in premiums. insurance companies might hold out a tie vote. for a few years, but they would be result finally in reduction of preget the ultimate benefit.

RUSSIA IN TRANSITION. Even more significant than the acverished stream. If there is a way ession of Lloyd George to power in Oregon's main field for irrigation is the seer so long as everything works

The Strahorn railroad June will continue to have an 'audi-

Spectacular failures and speculative war, with incidentally a victory for that joint labor between the Cabinet resort will be taken while the fight that the canneries can be kept going satisfied, it ought to be found. The Fish and Game Commission lect_ DEATH OF A FAMOUS PROPHETESS. The death in France the other day tation may be cheap and easy, yet of Madame de Thebes, serves to emsome provision of the law or some phasize the fact that the world excondition of the money market may pects a great deal of its major proph-push up the rate of interest to a point ets if they are to remain in good enemy. In Great Britain a democratic discredited in the minds of all to

The Oregonian

PORTLAND, OREGON.

Entered at Portland (Oregon) Postoffice as Eubscription rates -Invariably in advance. (By Mail.)

to all.

"alcill"

as he got it.

CASE FOR EXPERTS.

its pent-up feelings on the acute subject of fishing in the Rogue River in

The sportsman in Southern Oregon

the following vivid fashion:

The Medford Mail-Tribune liberates

idently a different species from that de-leted by Webster-at least with different stincts. He wants the limit of everything.

stincts. He wants he limit of everything, to like to have his pleture taken with an uto laden down with siain birds and aughtered animals, or with a washtub full t dend fish. He likes to make for the news-aper offices for a little free advertising of "skill"-but is not at all scrupulous as w this "skill" was displayed. In short,

o pot outweighs the game, in his estima-n-he doesn't care how he got it-so long

the Ashland Fish and Game Pro-

The occasion for this splenetic out burst by our indignant contempo-rary appears to be a resolution passed

Daily, Sunday included, one year	$5.0
Daily, Sunday included, six months	4.2
Daily, Sunday included, three months	22
Dally, Sunday included, one month
Daily, without Sunday, one year	6.0
Daily, without Sunday, three months	1.7
Daily, without Sunday, one month
Weekly, one year	1.5
Sunday, one year	2.5
Sunday and Weekly	3.74

(By Carrier.) Daily, Sunday included, one year 9.00 Daily, Sunday included, one month75

How to Remit-Send postoffics money order, express order or personal check on your local bank. Stamps, coln or ourroncy are at sender's risk. Give postoffice address in full, including county and state.

Postage Rates-12 to 16 pages, 1 cent; 18 to 52 pages, 2 cents; 34 to 55 pages, 3 cents; 50 to 50 pages, 4 cents; 52 to 76 pages, 5 cents; 78 to 52 pages, 6 cents; Foreign post-age double rates.

Eastern Business Office-Verres & Conk-lin, Brunswick building, New York; Verres & Conklin, Stenger building, Chicago. San Francisco representative, R. J. Bidwell, 742 Market street.

FORTLAND, FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1917.

OREGON'S IRRIGATION PROBLEM.

Men who have devoted much study tective Association instructing the to the subject of irrigation realize that Jackson County members of the State it has many sides, and that the many Legislature to procure enactment of and their pipes, 7.6 per cent; defective of war. failures which strew the road of prog- a law "permitting the people to catch ress have been due to neglect to look a limited amount of salmon for home at it on all sides. It is not merely an engineering question of constructing a dition to angling." Evidently there certain plant at certain cost to put is an opinion in Medford that the inwater on so many acres of land. The terests of true sportsmanship are not engineer may succeed completely, but served by gaffing or spearing salmon. settler may fail through ignorance the settler may fail through ignorance of the nature of his soil, of the crops Rogue. The upper-river fishermen which will best flourish on it, or of the manner in which water should be sportsmen) want to close the lower applied or through remoteness from river to commercial fishing, and the markets and lack of economical transseveral hundred men, engaged in their portation. Before a project can safely vocation at the mouth of the river, undertaken all of these phases insist on catching all salmon except must be studied and their relation to steelheads by seines and nets and selleach other discovered in order that ing them to the canneries. The ana sound conclusion may be reached glers are skeptical about the claim as to whether the land will make a of the down-river fishermen that they good living for the farmer after paypass up the steelheads, as the law ing for water and for transportation.

requires; and they say that there is After the engineer has made his not much left for them when the can- obliged to yield by threats of complans and sestimates, it is necessary neries are supplied. that the soil be tested to determine Here is a case for the judgment of whether it will yield crops justifying lisinterested but competent authority. the investment, or what properties Assuredly, the lower-river fishermen should be added to make it yield, also should not be deprived of a livelihood, what amount of water should be given and clearly the anglers should not be required to cast their lines in an imand how it should be applied. Upon the distance to market for such crops as can be grown and upon the means of transportation to be used may and the anglers (even the gaffers) can hinge the question whether they can be be grown profitably or whether one should be preferred to another. Final- ought to be heard from on the subly the entire problem may center in the question at what rate of interest capital can be secured. A project may be feasible from the engineer's viewpoint, the soil may be good, transporthe farmer's ability to pay.

its central plains and valleys. Ex-perience with projects completed or the discard at the first sign of fallunder way and surveys of other proj- ure. With the minor prophets it is ects have given us the necessary engi- different. Indian George will probneering knowledge. The Oregon Ex-periment Station has made soil sur-veys of about half the land that is open or not, and the settler who preincluded in projects now under con- dicts high water in the Columbia next sideration. gives promise of supplying transporta- ence, whatever the outcome. tion along the main routes, while high-way construction is making such prog- Madame de Thebes, in the last months of her life was unhonored by ress that each irrigated area should her own people and by the rest of onstration which prevented him from that of finance schemes have given a bad name to the entente allies, in 1915. She had and the Duma was impossible, for schemes have given a bad name to the entente alles, in 1910, and had the first of the entente alles, in 1910, and had the first of the entente alles, in 1910, and the ententente alles, in 1910, and the entente alles, in 1910, and the entente alles, in 1910, and the entente alles, in 1910, and the ententente alles, in 1910, and the ententente alles, in 1910, and the entente alles, in 1910, and the entente alles, in 1910, and the entente alles, and the looked at askance by banks and bond undowbtedly it was not. So she was mained; hence the previous system of ably good luck, and numerous mere buyers and they are not acceptable investments for insurance or trust the end of her days. However, the French secress did funds. The Government has not enough money to carry through a have a long series of successful prog-tithe of the schemes which are reasonably considered feasible; in fact told the San Francisco earthquake for lack of cash in the reclamation with tolerable exactness. She also prefund work drags on the projects dicted the outbreak of the Boer War, Yet the downfall of the second empire which it has already undertaken. capital for investment in long-term the assassinations of President Carnot securities has seldom been more pientiful. The real question is how to Pope Plus, and also the outbreak of that the overwhelming majority of the this has been changed, and now, espemake irrigation bonds so attractive to the present world-war. As to the investors that they will buy at rates last-named event, she was not alone of interest which the settler can af-There were others who read the signs that way and who claimed no super ford to pay, while at the same time he makes yearly or half-yearly amort- natural powers. Predicting the deaths of old people is not particularly won-derful, if one has kept trace of availization payments on the principal. The way out seems to be the loan able information as to their general of the Government's credit to guarantee bonds issued by districts on projhealth. In these instances most persons will believe that it was only a ects which are pronounced feasible by the Reclamation Service. As guarguess that happened to be borne out antor the Government would, through by events. the Secretary of the Interior, examine The peculiarity about Madame Thebes was that she asserted herself to the whole scheme and safeguard itself against loss before giving its guaranty. Under these conditions bonds should be both an astrologist and a clairvoy ant She maintained a salon and until almost the last had a considerable folsell at 4 per cent interest, and a fixed rate of 5 per cent a year should pay lowing of credulous ones. interest and repay principal by amorticircle in France and had many folzation in fifty years. That is the sub-stance of the provisions of the Chamberlain-Smith bill, which has been introduced in both branches of Con-The state can pave the way for its adoption by making any further toward discrediting prophecy changes in its irrigation law which in general. may be needed. There is a close relation between A COMING DOMESTIC PROBLEM the financing of irrigation enterprises Reports from Duluth that there ha and the success of Mr. Strah been organized there the first domesrailroad enterprise. The railroad will be largely dependent on the product of irrigated land for traffic and the outline of the demands presented to Cabinet "it is hopeless to anticipate farmer will be dependent on the rail- the housewives of that city, indicate harmonious co-operation with road for transportation. The success each will contribute materially general domestic economy, in which a bribe was made by Paul Millukoff -indeed, may be essential-to the the status of domestic help in itself against ex-Premier Stuermer, who has success of the other. The prosperity may cut a relatively minor figure, sued for libel, and a Times dispatch such there may be a says the trial "may eventually assume the success of both, for the state is disposition to sympathize with the the form of a committee of investiga. heavy with urban population, "downtrodden" in their efforts to im- tion into the conduct of the ex-Prime which is concentrated chiefly in Portprove the conditions of their work, Minister." land. The welfare of the city depends it is especially true of this kind of on the restoration of the balance be-tween urban and rural population, for which it cannot go without destroying action of the Council of the Empire which we must look mainly to the the job. to the the job. A large number of families which is the Russian House of Lords and has been regarded as the bulwark development of Central Oregon. rallroad and irrigation. The highest domestic help, and, as is well known. three and four to one it adopted reso-interest of the city requires it to work they are the ones who have profited lutions declaring that the situation for the success of both enterprises, least by improved industrial condisince it must draw its strength mainly tions in any section of the country. from the development of the back When the point is reached where they country.

where the water charge will exceed standing. It listens, and compares the people temporarily lodges despotic prophecy with the event, and it hails response to British popular demand for more vigorous prosecution of the war is the change which has taken place in the government of Russia for the same purpose. There is a marked contrast between the two crises.

Great Britain the people consent with-out a murmur to the curtailment of their liberties in the national cause. in the government that they may root out influences favorable to the power in the hands of the Cabinet. In Russia popular power is enlarged at the expense of the autocracy. The entire tendency in Russia is toward the establishment of a ministry responsible to the majority of the Duma

-a fundamental change which may ensily lead to permanent control by the Liberals. When General Trepoff succeeded Mr. Stuermer as Premier, he appeared before the Duma to make a statement of his policy, but the Labor and Socialist members made a noisy demress that each irrigated area should her own people and by the rest of being heard until the leading obstruc-soon be linked to the railroad. The oworld because after a series of the world because after a series of the tonists had been suspended. The lat-that of finance.

is on. For all pains we take in our strongly liberal, and the new officers

112

the year 1915 the National Board of they would not find such an army Fire Underwriters estimates that 23.4 their willing tool; it would be more likely to aid the Duma in crushing re action. Thus a new, self-governing causes were stoves, furnaces, boilers Russia may be born amid the agonies

FOR A DRY CAPITAL.

personal use is not going to be for- the same things still; for age will not bidden. There are, of course, the usual be denied. whole question be submitted to a vote in anything thou shalt judge hurtful, of the people of the District, making to discontinue it little by little; but so cannot afford help in the home at the the government should work in conwages fixed by that help, they will cert with the legislative institutions; Paris architects, despite pressure of simply be compelled to go without, and that, with this object in view, the a half century ago.

other affairs, have taken time to de- whatever the alternative. It is a singular fact that in all the destruction of clandestine and tree vise a new pattern of apartment-house, the advantages of which, as progress the world has made in the sponsible influences over affairs to light and air, are said to be equal way of labor-saving machinery and state, and the second thing the for-to living on a hillside. It is built short cuts to results, the home has mation of a real, working government way of labor-saving machinery and state, and the second thing the forto living on a hillside. It is built short cuts to results, the nome has mation of a real, working government, in the form of a terrace, each floor in the ascending scale being set back cause inventors have not been busy some eight or ten feet, with an ingenious arrangement of the "over- conservatism of the housewife. The hang" so that while each tenant obtains a view of the street, the privacy exist in countless kitchens, despite in-These proceedings have found a reof the dweller below is preserved. This vention of the efficient and relatively sponse in the appointment of Mr. Ritsolves the problem of dark lower inexpensive meat grinder; the me- litch as Minister of Agriculture, which floors, and where houses are con- chanical dishwasher still makes head- is regarded as the first step in the re- and all of the ten electors abandon good as cereals?"

structed in this way on both sides of a street it is found that they have an hour more of sunlight than the old-fashioned kind, such as are so familiar administration was preserved. When not liticians will creep in. And it seems Trepoff finally got a hearing, he was to be the prime effort of these to coldly received by the great majority befog, rather than to clarify, every issue.

important speeches was made by Dep uty Purishkevitch, formerly a read tionary and still avowing himself "the seafaring men were recruited almost most Right of the Right," that is the wholly from the scaport towns, by the Conservatives. A dispatch to the Lon-don Times quotes him as saying he 'declined to shut his eyes to the fact country was on the side of the majority of the Duma, together with which it condemns the policy of the governfor the stern duties required of them ment." This speaker charged that the government was still under German in fluence. He said that the newspaper with which the Minister of the Interior was connected was supported by banks in which German capital still predominated. He asked why so many German prisoners were sent to remote places to act as instructors; why mans everywhere were employed in munition factories; why the German firm of Kunst & Albers still existed. He charged the Department of Communications under Trepoff with sup-At one time she was the vogue in a large plying cars to a certain General for circle in France and had many fol-lowers in other countries. But with they were needed to carry provisions, her last failure she went into com-plete eclipse. The fact that she did 000,000 roubles to this General for not foretell her own death will go the construction of a railroad from his mineral-water factory. He said the facts "showed that there was some malignant will, some strong hand, pulling the strings on behalf of Gernans Another speaker made a fierce at tack on the Minister of the Interior

tic servants' union ever formed cast and conservative newspapers declare the possibility of a sweeping change in Duma." A direct charge of sharing has sections. More surprising than the attacks of "friends passing around the bier" is given a touch of reality by the last is attainable by the combination of are among the principal employers of of the autocracy. By majorities of act of a San Francisco sailor who left money to buy drinks for his pallbearers.

be had for the asking.

"absolutely demands that the whole Belgians returned from Germany nation make a powerful effort for final triumph over the enemy; that tell harrowing tales of hunger and ill treatment, but they are nothing like those told of Andersonville more than

> Vaudeville stars often get their start on amateurs' night, just as big leaguers come from the sand lots. There is no pedigree in talent.

they are passing the price of apples berculosis who cured himself entirely

A woman may be chosen electoral messenger from California when each

Oregon should take on Harvard or

I'd like to live upon a ranch case of Bright's disease, so the phy-Where there is lots of room, want a little house, all right, sician informed me. My limbs were swollen to immense proportions. And I can wield a broo

"The doctor in charge treated me and finally said there were no more symptoms and that I was cured, "Since them I have suffered unted." And cook my man good grub; But I don't want to be a slave, So cut out board and tub,

"Since then I have suffered untold wholiy from the scaport towns, by the operation of natural laws, which led men to seek the occupations with which they were most familiar; but this has been changed, and now, espe-cially in the Navy, the interior is fur-nishing the men. One of the reasons is that city life does not qualify men for the stern duties required of them is that city life does not qualify men hardly stand it. The side is always hardly stand it. The side is always

I am sick and

I could not stand to have a shirk As father of my son. I'd grab a chance to work and save: But he must get the mon. I would not be a doll-like wife Who'd primp and gad all day.

tion in Great Controversy.

could not stand a lazy man, Nor just a common jay. OLD MAID.

Indiana Author and Illustrator.

that cost three for a nick. He used to dine in classy place in keeping with his means, but now he has to feed his face on cornbeef hash and beans. Once he dolled up in scenery, the beat the tailor made, of fine imported goods, now he wears togs of cheapest grade. And then he struck his usual gait about the bone-dry law and said this was the hummest state 'twixt hell and Omaha, and Portland once was sure the best old city far or near in this WELLS, Or., Jan. 3 .- (To the Edi-tor.)-(1) Kindly inform me as to the date and place of birth of Gene Strat-ton Porter. (2) Where is her home? (3) Would greatly appreciate any valuton Porter. (2) Where is her home?

(3) Would greatly appreciate any valuable information about her life. A SINCERE READER.
A SINCERE READER.
1. Wabash County, Indiana, 1867.
2. Jimberlost Cabin, Rome City, Ind
5. Mrs. Porter was daughter of Mark and Mary Stratton and married Charles Darwin Porter in 1886.
She has held staff positions with Recreation and Outing, is author and illustrator of "The Song of the Cardinal' "Freekles," "What I have Dona With Birds," "At the Foot of the Rainabow." "A Girl of the Limberlost," "Birds of the Bible," "Music of the Limberlost," "Laddie," "Michael O'Hallaran."
PORTLAND, Jan. 2.—(To the Editor) and the source and evermore abide where booze and hort gone out of date and beer was not denied. I hope he'll act on that index with booze scent till he has boozed himself to death, for if he does not honeward fity, but near me doth remain, I scen may be a gibbering guy housed up with the iname, or by a state and shot down through a trap to die from stricture of the breath.

trap to die from stricture of the breath.

JAMES BARTON ADAMS.

Reply to "Old Bachelor."

want to live upon a ranch, Where there is lots of sir: may be I can wield a broom If you get on a tear.

Fill keep your house all slick and clean, But you must keep clean, too; To feed the stock and be content is part that you can do.

Perhaps your name means nothing, For that I do not care; If you are God's own gentleman And treat a woman square.

Don't ask too much, Old Bachelor, You haven't much to give, o brace up, be a gentleman, T'll teach you how to live, PRANCES

FRANCES HALL.

Let Name Be Changed.

PORTLAND, Jan. 4.—(To the Editar.) -Because the people of Fortland are imong the best-hearted people in the world and wish to do "the kindest thing in the kindest way" might one suggest at this season of goodwill that the name of the County Poor Farm be changed to that of the County Homa SARAH HINDS WILDER. Farm?

expects to publish a series of articles on the subject in the near future. Bounty on Coyotes. J. W. writes: "(1) Is there any truth in the statement that tomatoes on coyotes? If so, how much is the truth in the statement that tomatoes of bounty? are bad for cancerous people or that (2) Who has charge of this bounty (2) Who has charge of this bounty fund?

(1) Yes, $1.50 each. The entire pelt including paws, head and cars, must be

"(3) I eat boiled rice twice a day-for breakfast and supper. I like it better than cereal for breakfast. Has

REPLY

1 and 2. No. 8. It has high food value. It is an er- Writs to your men ellont sereal. at Washington, D. G.

The bill is too complex to be sun REPLY. narized in a brief statement, A detailed explanation was printed in The Oregonian July 30, 1916. The Oregonian will not injure the skin.

Tomatoes and Cancer.

"(2) Is there any virtue in the oldfashioned remedy of distilled beet juice mixed with elderberry wine? A friend

by the above remedy.

it much food value and is it not as of mind told me of a man who had tu-better than cereal for breakfast. Has fatigue, and a number of disorders, many of which are of no consequence, you have too lately escaped to take chances.

Infected From Mother.

REPLY.

You should see your physician. While romen have backache from neurasthenia,

Mrs. E. F. G. writes: "(1) Is then a form of rheumatism called syphilitic rheumatism? (2) Is it hereditary? (3) life in the metropolis, and nearly 10 My husband has never been afflicted per cent of the entire number ex- with syphilis, but his father was not a clean living man. His sister, nephew, and himself have had what our family physicians diagnosed as inflammatory theumatism, but another physician says It is the former. (4) Do you think in possible that my children will have it? What precautions can be used?"

REPLY.

Tes.

sore to touch."

 Yes, to a limited extent.
 I do not think it at all probable that rour husband has syphilitlo rheumatism. A Wasserman test would help to a decision. 4. Children do not inherit syphilis except where the mother has had it. A syphilitic father cannot infect his child with inherited County gardens should bloom and syphills except by first infecting the mother.

Superfluous Hair.

Mrs. E. J. W. writes: "(1) Will agus ammonia used two or three times a day, one day and hydrogen peroxide the next day, kill hair on the face and arms? (2) Is this dangerous to the skin or bones? Recipe says use it for several months." several months."

1. You will not find it satisfactory, al-though it has some virtues, 2. It is not dangerous to the bones. It will harm some skins. In most instances it submitted.

(2) County Clerk.

How to Obtain Government Reports.

Survey; also the Year Book of 1916 published by the United States Department of Agriculture?

SUBSCRIBER.

Write to your member of Congress,