

QUICKLY ELECTED SENATE

First Bill of Legislature Is Introduced to Make Rural Credits Effective.

CLEAR TITLES REQUIRED

Cost of Operation of System Is Not to Exceed 1 Per Cent, but Several Administrative Offices Are to Be Created.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—The Senate completed its organization today by electing Roy C. Moser as elected president at the morning session, after all the details of preliminary organization had proceeded without deviation from the programme arranged at a conference of Senators Sunday night. At 3 o'clock the Senate adjourned for the day with a clean slate.

Before it adjourned, five bills had been introduced. The honor of introducing Senate bill No. 1, the first bill to be introduced in this Legislature, went to Senator M. D. Shanks, of Morrow, Umattilla and Union counties.

His bill was a measure to make effective the rural credits constitutional amendment adopted by the people at the November general election. It carries an appropriation of $5000.

Superintendent of Loans Provided.

It creates a superintendent of farm loans at a salary of $2400 a year, to be appointed and removed at the pleasure of the State Land Board.

Provision also is made for appointment of one title examiner, who is to be an attorney at law of at least five years' experience, and who is to receive $1500 a year. There also are to be one or more appraisers, to appraise property offered as basis of loans, at a compensation to be fixed by the State Land Board.

One Per Cent to Be Advanced.

It further sets forth that all applications for loans shall be accompanied by a satisfactory abstract of title, and shall be accompanied by the payment of 1 per cent of the amount of the proposed loan to cover the expense of examining title and appraising the land.

Should the loan for any reason not be granted, the balance of this deposit is to be refunded, after deducting the reasonable expense of examining title and appraising the land. If the loan is granted the excess of the deposit over the reasonable expense is to be refunded to the applicant.

The $5000 proposed appropriation is to enable the act to be carried immediately into effect. It is of interest to the state, whenever the operation of the law returns sufficient funds.

The State Land Board is instructed, immediately after the act becomes effective to sell at least $50,000 in bonds as provided in the rural credits amendments, and also to issue an amount of $50,000 as required. The bonds mature in 36 years from issuance, and may be redeemed at any time after 10 years.

Residents Are Preferred Class.

Applicants for farm loans are divided by the bill into two classes. In the first class are actual residents of the county in which the land is located. The second class are non-resident owners, who actually and personally operate their land. They are to have preference in the first class when there is a surplus remaining after all loans asked for persons in the first class have been satisfied.

Interest on the loans is to be payable annually or semi-annually at the discretion of the borrower. Provision is made for foreclosure of mortgages when overdue or when interest has been defaulted.

Expense of carrying the amendment into effect, further provides that the act shall in no event exceed one per cent of the money loaned.

Organization Quickly Made.

It took the Senate only one hour and ten minutes to complete its whole organization, from the selection of temporary president, to the election of permanent President and all the desk clerks.

All the details had been arranged at the conference of Senators Saturday night in the Marion Hotel. The programme then agreed to for expediting organization breezed through without a hitch.

First, Senator W. D. Wood, of Washington County, who is the dean of the Senate in point of service, called the Senators to order promptly at 10:30 o'clock.

In rapid succession Senator C. L. Hawley, of Polk County, was made temporary president; John W. Cochran, chief clerk for the past two sessions, was made temporary chief clerk; every credentials committee and committee on permanent organization and order of business were appointed.

There was a ten-minute recess until the credentials committee, composed of Dimick, Barrett and Garland, reported all members entitled to be seated. The committee did not even take cognizance in its report of the effort made by Roy D. Shanks, of Hood River, to prevent Senator George R. Wilbur from being seated because he is a Captain in the National Guard.

New Senators Sworn.

Senators Cusick, Bishop and Strayer, of the committee on permanent organization and order, also reported, and then Justice Moore, of the Supreme Court, swore in the new Senators.

Next on the smoothly-moving programme came the election of Senator Roy C. Moser, of Multnomah, as President of the Senate.

Affective the bone-dry prohibition amendment. It will be our special duty to see that this amendment is carried into effect," said Senator Moser.

"But above and beyond all other matters are the interests of the taxpayers. We must make a record for economy. Under the 6 per cent amendment it will be necessary to slash many appropriations."

The Senate knew its mind so well beforehand that, with one minor exception, there was no contest for any of the desk clerkships.

Without opposition, John W. Cochran, of Portland, was re-elected chief clerk for the session; John P. Hunt, of Woodburn, was re-elected assistant chief clerk; James W. Church, of Hood River, was re-elected chief clerk; Walter L. Toose, of Salem, was elected reading clerk, and Colonel W. D. Mercer, of Eugene, was re-elected sergeant-at-arms.

George A. Crane Wins.

For doorkeeper, Roy Corey, of Baker, who held the position at the last session, was re-elected without opposition. The only contest was for mail clerk, with George A. Crane, of Roseburg, incumbent last session; James McKee, of Union, and C. A. James, of Portland, as the candidates. James withdrew after the second ballot, and McKee was re-elected by 16 votes to 12 for Crane.

Senator Moser appointed Senators Vinton, Orton and Stelwer to the rules committee, which immediately recommended adoption of last session's rules, with the amendment that the committee on revision of laws shall be composed of seven instead of five members and that the double enacting clause be omitted.

A rule was added similar to that in the House last session requiring that when bills amending laws are submitted, the proposed amendments must be printed in italic, the old part in ordinary type and the parts to be stricken out in brackets. The report was unanimously adopted.

That was all for the morning session. The Senate, much pleased at its speedy organization, promptly adjourned and went over to hear the House elect its Speaker.

Committees Named as Foreseen.

The afternoon session of the Senate moved even faster than the morning one.

Senator Moser announced his committee appointments shortly after the noon recess. There were few surprises, as he had had out the names of the chairmen of most of the important committees last week. They were published in The Oregonian at that time.

Two chairmanships not announced then, however, were those of the committee on alcoholic traffic, of which Senator M. D. Shanks is chairman, and the committee on roads, of which Senator Conrad P. Olson is chairman.

A resolution was adopted that no bills shall be introduced after the 30th day of the session, except by consent of three-fourths of the Senate.

Governor's Message Today.

A concurrent resolution, introduced by Olson and carried that the Senate and House meet in the House chamber at 2 o'clock tomorrow to hear the reading of the Governor's message.

Senator Dimick, of Clackamas, introduced two resolutions of more than ordinary importance. One is a concurrent resolution, instructs the ways and means committees of both houses to pass upon and recommend the amounts to be appropriated for the support of various state institutions by the 30th day of the session, instead of in the last days of the session, as has been customary. It also instructs the committee to report by that date an itemized statement of such recommendations, for the members of both houses to consider.

Commission on Boards Favored.

Senator Dimick's other resolution is a concurrent resolution, instructing a commission of seven members, of whom three shall be Senators and four Representatives, appointed by the President and Speaker, respectively, to investigate all boards, commissions, or commissions, and consolidation of others.

The resolution instructs this proposed committee not only to investigate the feasibility of such proposals and to report thereon by the 30th day of the session, but also to make a report after that date an itemized statement of such recommendations, for the members of both houses to consider.

Committees Given Out.

After five bills had been introduced the Senate adjourned at 3 o'clock. Following is the complete list of committee assignments as announced by President Moser:

OPPOSITION TO BE WITHDRAWN

Senator Dimick Will Not Fight Naval Militia Bill.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—Senator Dimick will abandon his attacks on the Oregon Naval Militia at this session and from surface indications it is probable that he will withdraw a peaceful journey through the coming 40 days. During the last six years, for three sessions, Senator Dimick has assailed the Naval Militia appropriation, standing sponsor for bills to abolish the organization, and one year piloted his bill through the Senate in victory, but it failed to pass both houses.

This year the Naval Militia is asking for $15,900, $900 in excess of the appropriation given two years ago.

Reading clerk, Ben Huntington.
Calendar clerk, Charles W. Erskine.
Sergeant-at-arms, Joseph F. Singer.
Doorkeeper, Ben Robertson.
Mailing clerk, W. F. McAdams.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—Harmony and had work promise to characterize the 40-day biennial grind started by the House of Representatives this morning.

The magnanimous withdrawal of Louis E. Bean from the Speakership race on Sunday night made possible the unanimous election of Robert N. Stanfield today. Mr. Bean himself nominated Mr. Stanfield and emphasized the fact that he was desirous of securing harmony and accomplishing a maximum of beneficial legislation.

Frederick Estabrook, of Lane, Mr. Alexander Thompson and George C. Brownell in the seconding speech, and Mr. Stanfield in his brief address of acceptance, laid stress on the same thing, so it appears that this session, at least, will be a session of harmony and a minimum of friction.

A concurrent resolution, introduced by Olson and carried that the Senate and House meet in the House chamber at 2 o'clock tomorrow to hear the reading of the Governor's message.

Senator Dimick, of Clackamas, introduced two resolutions of more than ordinary importance. Mr. Stanfield Does Not Vote.

George C. Brownell, according to the nomination, spoke emphatically of Mr. Stanfield's great capacity, his pleasing personality and his high character.

Representative Estabrook wanted to make the election of Mr. Stanfield unanimous by acclamation, but Chief Justice Moore reminded the members that the roll must be called. Every member voted for Stanfield, with the exception of Mr. Stanfield himself, who declined to vote.

Representatives Bean and Kubli escorted the newly elected Speaker to the rostrum, where the Chief Justice administered the oath. He was greeted with loud and prolonged applause as he took his place.

Mr. Stanfield spoke only briefly, thanking the members for their support and expressing his desire to serve all members alike.

"For the good of our great state," he continued, "I hope that we will have a pleasant and harmonious session. I am sure that we will accomplish much constructive legislation."

At noon the House recessed until 2 o'clock.

When the House reconvened in the afternoon it went into committee of the whole, Representative Forbes presiding, to select nominees for the various clerkships and other positions. The way was made clear for a reading clerk, so the House made each of them read, to test out his capabilities. The following nominations were made by the House and afterwards unanimously ratified: W. F. Drager, of Salem, chief clerk; Merrill Moores, of Portland, journal clerk; Ben Huntington, of Drain, reading clerk; Charles W. Erskine, of Bend, calendar clerk; Joseph F. Singer, of Portland, sergeant-at-arms; Charles W. Erskine, of Bend, doorkeeper; W. F. McAdams, of Independence, mailing clerk.

SENATE DESK VETERAN

WITH ONE EXCEPTION CLERKS ARE EXPERIENCED MEN.

John W. Cochran Begins Serving Third Term as Chief Clerk, and J. P. Hunt, Assistant, Seventh.

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—The Senate has an all-veteran desk organization. With one exception the Senate elected today served in the same capacity at the last session. They fairly bristle with experience.

John W. Cochran, re-elected chief clerk, has been chief clerk for two sessions preceding the one Mr. Cochran, though, is a mere infant in point of service as compared to John P. Hunt, of Woodburn, the capable assistant chief clerk to 1914, who has not missed a session since. This will be his seventh year on deck.

John W. Church, calendar clerk; Colonel W. G. D. Mercer, sergeant-at-arms; Roy Corey, doorkeeper, and George A. Crane, mailing clerk, are all veterans of the Senate. Charles W. Erskine is a veteran from much further back than that. He fought in the Civil War.

The sole new man in the organization is Walter L. Toose, of Salem, reading clerk-elect. And he has served in similar capacity before, though not in the last session. Mr. Toose is a booming voice that fills up the Senate chamber and spills out into the lobby. Everybody can hear him.

COURT REPORTS' COST PROBED

Senator Wood May Oppose Paying for Reported $500,000.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—Senator W. D. Wood, of Washington County, who will be chairman of the ways and means committee, indicated this morning of the Governor's message that the report of the Supreme Court reporter for preparing Supreme Court reports will be given before the House of Representatives.

"I am making an investigation of the details surrounding the publication of the reports," said Senator Wood. "As near as I am able to ascertain the report is supposed to furnish syllabi to good Republicans and various opinions handed down by the court, and that he is paid for that work, but I doubt very much if it does any work."

"From information which I have at hand the reporter gets the money for preparing these syllabi and the publishing of the reports," said Senator Wood. "You can depend upon it that the matter will be sifted thoroughly and if the state is paying for something it is not getting, I for one, will resist the further appropriation of such an amount of money."

CHANGES IN ACT ARE FAVORED

SALEM, Or., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—The State Industrial Accident Commission today announced that it would support the bill for amending the workmen's compensation act. Included in these is an amendment to make it a misdemeanor for an employer to compel an employee to accept a lower rate of service to reject the act; an amendment to extend protection to private employers, making it possible for any employer to secure protection under the law by agreeing not only to pay the workman's contribution of 1 cent a day, but also to make good the trip if elected, and Judge Butler declared himself as certain that she would, and he expressed the opinion that there is no objection to some messenger other than an elector being chosen.

MRS. HANLEY LOSES

J. F. Wilson to Cast Oregon's Votes for Hughes.

JUDGE BUTLER IS ALONE

Recognition of Valuable Services in Campaign Is Asked for Medford Woman, but Others Are Against Elector.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—Despite an impassioned plea by Judge R. H. Butler, of the Dalles, that a woman messenger be sent to Washington to carry to the electoral college the five electoral votes of Oregon and cast them for Charles Evans Hughes, the Oregon electors selected J. F. Wilson, of Multnomah County, as the messenger. Judge Butler was the only one to cast his vote for Mrs. Edward B. Hanley, of Medford.

"When the Democrats selected their messenger they chose Mrs. Alexander Thompson, of my home town, The Dalles, now a member of the Legislature," said Judge Butler. "I questionably their political fitness in this matter had much to do with their strong showing in Eastern Oregon counties, and the Republicans following the Democrats of the state to outgeneral us."

Recognition of Women Urged.

"The large woman vote in this state should be given recognition and I believe that Mrs. Edward B. Hanley, who so earnestly and devotedly entered into the campaign for Mr. Hughes, should be honored with the position of messenger to carry our votes back to Washington and register them for our candidate."

Willis I. Cottel, elector from Multnomah County, asked as to whether Mrs. Hanley would make the trip if elected, and Judge Butler declared himself as certain that she would, and he expressed the opinion that there is no objection to some messenger other than an elector being chosen.

The ballot showed the four members, Willis I. Cottel, W. P. Keedy, J. P. Wilson and W. C. North, all of Multnomah County, had voted for Mr. Wilson, and on motion of Judge Butler the action was unanimous. Mr. Wilson was nominated by Mr. North. The chairman selected for the meeting was Mr. Keedy and Judge Butler acted as secretary.

College Meets January 29.

The electoral college will meet at Washington on the fourth Monday of January, which will be January 29. The electors met at noon today at the Secretary of State's office in the Capitol.

The electors, after their meeting sent the following telegram to Charles Evans Hughes and a similar one to Charles Warren, Fairbanks, candidate for President and Vice-President at the recent election:

"In the Democratic desert of the Pacific Northwest there is one great oasis of Republicanism—the state of Oregon. We, the undersigned electors, take pleasure in informing you that we have this day cast the vote of Oregon for you for President of the United States, and are much gratified to have this pleasure and privilege. We regret exceedingly that this vote is not effective in making you President."

"R. R. BUTLER,
WILLIS I. COTTEL,
W. P. KEEDY,
J. F. WILSON,
W. C. NORTH."
"Attest: BEN W. OLCOTT,
Secretary of State."

CURB PUT ON MEDICINES

Roseburg to Restrict Sale of Drugs for Use as Beverages.

ROSEBURG, Or., Jan. 8.—(Special.)—At tonight's meeting of the City Council an ordinance was introduced providing against the sale of proprietary medicines in Roseburg for beverage purposes. Under the terms of the ordinance all proprietary medicines sold here must be registered and the names of the purchasers must at all times be available for inspection by the officers.

The sale of proprietary medicines to drunkards and minors is forbidden, also, by the ordinance. A thorough "house cleaning" is believed its adoption will curtail the sale of certain preparations in this city.

FURUSETH MAKES PROTEST

Senate Committee Hears Objection to Railway Arbitration Law.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Andrew Furuseth, of the International Seaman's Union, protested today to the Senate committee against enactment of the proposed railroad arbitration legislation to supplement the Adamson law. He said history shows that every effort in the past to deprive the worker of his right to quit employment individually or collectively has led to a population and decay of the nation which tried it.

Lazy Bowels Respond Quickly to Paraffine

Lubrication means increased action. This is a well-defined principle and has been abundantly demonstrated in the case of inactive bowels.

By a purely mechanical process it has been found that paraffine oil will lubricate the bowels, softening the contents and causing an easy and natural movement. Amerril is being more and more widely used for constipation and various other disorders of the intestinal tract.

It has been shown that Amerril does not in any way affect the digestive processes, that it does not absorb into the system and that it has healing properties very valuable where irritation is present. Taken inwardly, it simply passes through the bowels, oiling the intestinal channels as it goes along and softening the hardened masses which have caused the constipation.

Amerril is colorless, tasteless and odorless, most agreeable to take, and causes no griping or pain. It is sold at 50 cents per pint bottle at all Owl Drug Stores.

HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day and every month, and still others have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The best Doctor is often unable to find the cause of many of these headaches, and in many cases, not knowing the cause, he does not know what will remove it, so as to give a permanent cure. All he can do is to prescribe pain relievers, which give temporary relief, but the headache returns as usual, and treatment is again necessary. If you suffer from headaches and have been unable to remove them, Amerril is the best medicine to obtain the greatest possible relief. You can obtain them at all druggists in any quantity. Be worth $5 worth or more. Ask for A-K Tablets.

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at your drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After a few applications the falling hair ceases and you can't find any dandruff.

CHILD GETS SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

Look at Tongue! Then Give Fruit Laxative for Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Children and They Love It.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other ailment, it's a sure sign of constipation. "California Syrup of Figs" then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "house cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and you will find the name "California Syrup of Figs" on the wrapper.

Girls in School or at Business who are delicately constituted, who have thin blood or pale cheeks, will find in SCOTT'S EMULSION a true tonic and a rich food to overcome tiredness, nourish their nerves and feed their blood. Start with SCOTT'S to-day—and say "NO" to substitutes.

Ridiculous, the most miserable of all sicknesses, loses its terrors when A-K Tablets are taken. When you feel an attack coming on, take two tablets, and in many cases, the attack will be washed off. During an attack take one A-K Tablet every two hours. The rest and comfort which follow, can be obtained in no other way.
