WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 .- The report by the Overseas News Agency that Ambassador Gerard at a public welcome back to Germany had said that "never since the beginning of the war have the relations between the United States and Germany been so cordial as now," were officially inquired into by the State Department today through a cable to the Ambassador personally. It was indicated that the report as quoted did not convey a true view of German - American relations, which have commonly been described as atrained through the recent submarine activities.

The dinner at which Ambassador Gerard is reported to have uttered his dill-advised sentiments was given last night in Berlin by the American Association of Commerce and Trade, of Barlin, in honor of Mr. Gerard, who has just returned to the German capital from a visit to the United States. Ambassador Likened to Dove.

The guests included three ministers at least two ex-ministers, the vice-president of the Reichstag, the heads of Germany's big financial institutions and other leaders in German public life Ambassador Gerard, who was likened by Arthur von Gwinner, director of the by Arthur von Gwinner, director of the Deutsche Bank, to the "peace dove of Nosh's ark," is quoted by the Overseas News Agency as saying that "never since the beginning to the war have the relations between Germany and the United States been so cordial," and that he had "brought back an olive branch" from President Wilson.

Officials, in making the announcement of the inquiry, refused to add any further comment except that they wished to know exactly what he had vished to know exactly what he had
