OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 9,-(Special.) Ten bills vetoed by Governor Lister after adjournment of the Legislature two years ago were reported back to the House today by the Secretary of State, and five more vetoes will be officially returned to the Senate tomorrow.

State, and five more vetoes will be officially returned to the Senate tomorrow.

House bill vetoes were made a special order for Monday, without any visible prospect of the veto being overridden in a single instance. None of them attracted particular interest in the last eession with the exception of one known as the McArdle bill, which was designed to abolish the State Tax Commission. McArdle is not a member of the present Legislature, and no further interest in the abolition is apparent.
