—First of all we wish to impress on you that every piece of furniture in this sale is GOOD furniture, the kind that can be relied on to give you the service you expect of furniture purchased from Meier & Frank. The reductions speak for themselves—and bear in mind, please, that the original prices quoted here are in practically every instance lower than those quoted elsewhere on like good qualities. All discontinued dining and bedroom suites—including dining suites from such famous craftsmen as Berkey & Gay, in mahogany and American walnut—all odd pieces and broken lines are emphatically reduced for this event. Included, too, are some splendid offerings in overstuffed chairs and rockers, both denim and tapestry covered. You will find here furniture for every room in the house at prices that afford you substantial savings. Here we mention only enough of the items to show you how comprehensive and worth-while the selection is.
