Next Games.

Tomorrow—Portland at Spokane.
Tomorrow—Vancouver at Seattle.
Tuesday—Seattle at Portland.

Three more games and the first half of the 1916-1917 season of the Pacific Coast Ice Hockey Association will be history. Tomorrow night two contests will be staged. Portland meeting the Spokane Canucks at Spokane and Seattle playing Vancouver. Tuesday night Portland will play Seattle in the ice palace. This is the only match slated for that night.

The 5-to-4 defeat of the Uncle Sams by the Canadians Tuesday night and the 3-to-1 victory of Seattle over the Canucks jumbled the league standings again. The Uncle Sams were forced into the cellar, while Seattle jumped out in front.

From all accounts it was "too much Lehman" that was responsible for the trouncing handed the Oregonians. It was a rough match and full of real action, particularly the last period. The Seattle aggregation took the lead soon after the engagement started, and it never was headed.

At last Dick Irvin, the former Winnipeg amateur, has reached the top of the ladder in the individual scoring honors. At the start of the present campaign he was used only as a substitute, but in the last four matches he has been a regular, scoring 12 goals in that time. He registered two goals and one assist against Vancouver Tuesday night, and as a result he passed Dr. Gordon Roberts in the standings.

Irvin is credited with 21 points so far this season, 17 of them coming from goals scored and four from assists. Dr. Roberts has 14 goals and six assists, good for 20 points.

The Uncle Sams remained in Seattle all day yesterday, and today will go to Spokane, where they will play tomorrow night. William F. Scott, manager of the Portlanders, is somewhat disappointed as to the score Tuesday night, but he was satisfied with the way his aggregation was working, so nothing but a victory will be accepted after tomorrow's embroglio.

A win for Portland and a win for Vancouver will mean that second place will be a tie between Seattle and Portland at 600. Vancouver, who was in the cellar the first part of this week, will then be in the lead, while Spokane will be out of luck.

The first game of the Portland Intercollegiate League ice hockey season will be played tomorrow night between Lincoln High and the Jefferson High. Play will start at 8 o'clock, and everything will be completed within an hour so that the regular skating session can be held.

The coaches for both squads will not be able to witness the fray. Tommy Murray, the Portland goal keeper, is coaching Lincoln, while Captain Charley Tobin, of the Uncle Sams, is looking after Jefferson.

Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club versus O. W. R. & N. will be the scheduled for next Monday night in the Portland Amateur Hockey Association circles. The Police dropped a 2-to-4 affair to the Northwest Auto Hockey Club last Monday night. Harry Mountain and Dean Lane each sagging the net twice for the winners.

In 10 games Vancouver's representatives have recorded 50 goals for an average of five each game, while Portland is second with 47 goals, or 4.7 goals each match. Seattle has put up the strongest defense, allowing but 27 scores in all games. The Millionaires have allowed 29, while Portland is charged with 47.

Does any one believe that Jim Jeffries, Jack Johnson and Jess Willard reached the top through their "brains and courage," or through their physical bulk and their developed knuck?

PORTLAND BEATS STANDRIDGE

Beavers Take Pitcher Into Camp Five Times Out of Six.

Portland was the only club in the Coast League that failed to be duly impressed by Pete Standridge's 1916 trip to Eastern climes. With Los Angeles in 1916, Standridge made a better showing against every club but Portland than he had made in 1914 when he was pitching for San Francisco. In 1914 Sacramento was the only club that could win more than it lost against Standridge and it has his measure to the tune of seven wins and only one defeat. In 1916 Standridge in one pitched out this stain by picking in Sacramento's heir, Sait Lake, for four wins and two defeats.

In 1916, Portland with five wins and only one defeat was the only club that could win more than it lost against Standridge. Oakland, on the other hand, was the easiest picking for Standridge, he winning five and losing one against the 1916 tallenders. In 1914, Standridge, pitching for San Francisco, made the following record: vs. Los Angeles, won five and lost one; vs. Oakland, won 5 and lost 4; vs. Portland, won three and lost three; vs. Sacramento, won one and lost seven; vs. Venice, won four and lost four.

ROSEBURG HIGH FIVE VICTOR

Northwest State Normal of Alva, Okla., Loses 34 to 32.

ROSEBURG, Or., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—The Roseburg High School basketball team last night defeated the Northwest State Normal School five of Alva, Okla., by a score of 34 to 32. The game was attended by a big crowd.

NEW VERNON MAGNATE HAS TROUBLE GETTING IVAN OLSON.

Thomas J. Darmody, is encountering difficulty in getting Ivan Olson, ex-Beaver and present Brooklyn shortstop, from the Dodgers, according to the latest reports from Brooklyn. Darmody made a hit with the Los Angeles fans by naming Olson to head the Tigers next season. Everyone thought that he must have secured the Brooklyn club's consent before giving out the announcement, but late reports from the big-league city cause one to believe that he did not.

Those on the inside think that he will eventually land Olson, who should make the Vernon club a hard one to beat. Olson should prove popular with the fans, and in that way be just the opposite of Ham Patterson, recently deposited.

body of the Roseburg High School, headed by a band. A parade through the business streets of the city followed.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Eugene's formal celebration of Oregon's football victory over Pennsylvania at Pasadena New Year's day closed tonight with a victory-banquet tendered by the Eugene Chamber of Commerce to the players, Coach Hugo Bezdek and Trainer "Bill" Hayward, 200 persons were present.

Governor Sends Congratulations.

Governor James Withycombe said: "I greatly regret that I cannot be present to congratulate Oregon's football players upon their splendid victory. We are all proud of them."

Among the other messages was one from Walter Camp, head coach of the Yale football team. He said: "My advice has convinced me that not only Coach Bezdek, Captain Beckert, Huntington, Parsons and Teggart deserve the greatest credit, but especially the real football spirit that was shown by the whole team in overcoming what looked like a depressing beginning and fighting back with increased power, and also by altering their attack suddenly to forward passing when the opposing secondary defense came too close to their line and stopped the running game."

Other messages were from college presidents, football authorities and football enthusiasts in various parts of the country. One was from Edwin P. Shattuck, of New York City, a member of the first Oregon football team.

Many Respond to Toasts.

The address of welcome was made by Joseph Koike, president of the Chamber of Commerce. P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, responded with a speech which was brimful of enthusiasm.

Those who responded to toasts were: Clyde R. Selts, A. C. Dixon, Dr. S. D. Reed, Rev. Mr. Moran, E. O. Immel, Hugo Bezdek and Johnny Beckert.

BRONSON MEETS MADDEN

Portland and Seattle Boxers Will Clash for Lightweight Honors.

Mitchie and Monpier Also to Meet.

Vincent Monpier is a worthy opponent for Pete Mitchie. The latter
