GREELEY TABULATION IS RUSHED—Work of compiling a tabulation showing the probable assessment to be placed against each lot in the assessment district for the proposed extension of Greeley street from Hollingworth avenue to Delany street, is progressing as rapidly as possible, said City Auditor Barber, who hopes to have the work completed within a few weeks. The proposed extension, which if put through will be one of the largest ever undertaken by the city, is at a standstill pending a report to give every property owner a fair idea of what his assessment will be. The tabulation is being prepared by the Auditor.

PHILLIPS FUNERAL HELD.—The funeral of Thomas Phillips who died in this city January 14, was held yesterday at the chapel of J. P. Finley & Son. Rev. J. R. Griffith, of the First Congregational Church, of Beaver Creek, Or., officiated, speaking in the Welsh language. He was assisted by Rev. S. E. Du Bois. Welsh and English songs were sung by Mrs. Roderick Evans and Dr. Trevor. Burial was at Rose City Cemetery. Pallbearers were: J. Edwards, E. Thomas, R. M. Roberts, F. C. Coles, R. Parcell, W. R. Williams. Mr. Phillips is survived by his widow, a son and daughter, who reside at 275 McMillan street.

DESTITUTE FAMILY NEEDS FURNITURE.—A hurry-up call has been made to the Public Welfare Bureau for furniture for a destitute family. There are the father, mother four children and the old "granma." They need everything from frying pan to beds and bedding. If they can get them today they will be able to get a start on a little place in the city. Who will help? The grandma wants a rocking chair and the kiddies will need warm quilts. Mother will need a cookstove and anything that will help her get along. Write to their feet may telephone Main 7051 or A 1517.

ORDON ENGINEERS TO MEET.—Heating and ventilating will be discussed by the Oregon Society of Engineers at its meeting in the ladies' dining-room of the Portland Club on Tuesday next, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. "Mechanical Equipment of Buildings" will be the subject discussed by George E. Reed. J. R. Keller will talk on "The Selection of the Proper Type of Heating Plant for Different Buildings." Ballots for the annual election of officers and members not in arrears more than six months and the ballots will be opened and counted on the last Thursday in this month.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETS SATURDAY.—"Open shop" and "closed or union shop" will be discussed at the luncheon of the Civic League at the Multnomah Hotel 4 noon Saturday. W. Swigert will speak in behalf of the open shop and Eugene E. Smith will speak for the closed or union shop. Owing to the current interest in this question, in view of the ship-building strike, a large attendance is expected and it is urged that all who intend to be present telephone in their registrations to the secretary at once, at Main 8550 or A 3340.

WARREN CONSTRUCTION COMPANY WITHDRAWAL.—When construction Company requested yesterday to be allowed to withdraw its bid for the construction of the viaducts in connection with the extension of the O. & N. on the East Side. The request was granted and the bid released and the company's certified check returned. This leaves two bids. The Pierson Construction Company is lowest and Porter Bros. next. The contract will be awarded February 28.

ARE YOU GOING TO BOSTON?—Mayor Albee is anxious to get in touch with three persons who expect to be in Boston between February 5 and 9. He wants to get delegates to represent the city at the American Good Roads Convention, the National Good Roads Show and the 14th annual convention of the American Road Builders' Association. A letter has been received from officers in charge of the sessions, asking that Portland delegates be appointed.

SCANDINAVIAN OPEN REVIVAL.—Special revival services in the Scandinavian tongue will be held at the Swedish Methodist Church, corner Beech and Northwick streets, for three weeks beginning tonight at 7:45 o'clock. Rev. John O. Wahlberg, pastor, will be in charge. He will be assisted by Evangelist John Bostrom, assisted by John A. Willman, pastor of the church, will conduct the services.

MRS. FLORENCE KISO GETS DIVORCE.—Mrs. Florence Kiso has received a divorce from Arthur Kiso in the court of Circuit Judge Davis, on grounds of cruelty and has resumed her maiden name of Florence Barker. She was married in Seattle in 1910 and asserted her husband was quarrelsome and choked her. He did not contest the action.

DR. MORGAN LECTURES TONIGHT.—"Europe and the Middle East"—The Dead Sea as a Rain Gauge"—is the subject of the third lecture of Dr. William Congor Morgan, of Reed College, on "How Nature Determines Climate," which is to be given at the Central Library in Library Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

GRASSMAN MEET TONIGHT.—The Portland Greeters' Association will meet tonight at the Multnomah Hotel in the Royal suite, for a business and social session. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock sharp. It was originally announced that the meeting would be Saturday night, but this was an error.

ADMONISH TO HAVE ANIMAL LECTURE.—The Audubon Bird Club will meet Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the club-rooms, 309-19 Y. M. C. A. building. An illustrated lecture on "Forty-Larger Animals of North America" will be given by John H. Lee. The public is invited to attend.

MISS FALLING TO SPEAK.—The subject of the lecture at the Art Museum today is "Fourteenth Century Italian Art" and tomorrow Miss Falling will speak on "Florence." The Thursday lecture is at 8:30 and that on Friday, at 4 o'clock. Both lectures will be illustrated by lantern slides.

"SPIRITUAL WORLD" IS TOPIC.—"The Spiritual World or the Universe of Mind" is the subject tonight at 8 o'clock of the second in a series of five lectures on the "Philosophy of Emanuel Swedenborg" being given at the Public Library in room G by Rev. William R. Reece.

SEATTLE WOMAN TO LECTURE HERE.—Mrs. L. Gillen, of Seattle, Wash., who has been lecturing in the larger cities of Idaho on the Bahai movement, will deliver an address in room A of the Public Library tonight at 8 o'clock, on "The New Age and Its Requirements."

SIDEWALKS TO BE REPAIRED.—With Commissioner Dieck declaring that he has no available money for the repair of sidewalks, the City Council yesterday put through a resolution, introduced by Commissioner Baker, ordering a repair of the walks on Powell street in the southeastern part of the city. Mr. Dieck said he had no money for the purpose, but the Council contends that he has. The plan is to have the work done and the cost assessed against the property benefited. The money required will be in the form of a loan. The name "Pigg" is one calculated to attract humorous glances, avers James Averil Pigg, who filed a petition in the County Court yesterday for permission to change his surname to Page. The numerous jokes of which he and his wife are the butt have become tiresome and a strain on the nerves, asserts Mr. Pigg, and he wishes to avert the stream of puns which flow his way. His wife joins with him in the petition.

CITY FIREMAN SEEKS DIVORCE.—J. L. Single, a fireman in the employ of the city, filed suit for divorce yesterday from Lottie L. Single, alleging that she has conducted herself improperly while he has been on duty. He cites an alleged instance in which she was where he asserts his wife went for a visit at the request of a man friend. The numerous suits filed suit from Benjamin Slatten yesterday, asserting desertion.

WOMEN DEMOCRATS POSTPONE MEETING.—The Women's Democratic Club has postponed the regular meeting, which was to have been held Monday, until after the Legislature adjourns, after which date meetings will be held regularly the second and last Mondays of each month.

PIONEER WOMAN DIES.
 SUSAN ANN STARR PASSES AT MONROE AT AGE OF 92 YEARS.
 Widow of Late Rev. Noah Starr Accompanied Husband to Oregon in 1851—Seven Children Survive.
 Susan Ann Starr, who died January 6 at the age of 92 years, at Monroe, was buried in the old Belknap Cemetery at that place, where so many of the old pioneers are sleeping. Rev. Mr. Moore, pastor of the Methodist Church, read the burial service and E. H. Belknap delivered an address.

Mrs. Starr was born in Maryland, August 8, 1825. Her parents moved to Indiana when she was a small child and later to Iowa, where she was married to Rev. Noah A. Starr in 1847. They crossed the plains to California in 1850 and came to Oregon in 1851, taking up a donation land claim at Starr's Point, now Monroe.

The settlement at that time consisted mostly of members of the Starr, Belknap and Hawley families. The community was remarkable for the number of college graduates and prominent men who came from it. Five of Mrs. Starr's children were classical graduates.

In 1854 Rev. Mr. Starr joined the Oregon conference of the Methodist Church and Mrs. Starr shared the hardships and privations of a pioneer.

SON ATTACKS TITLE

Widow of W. H. Moore Called to Tell of Business Deals.
 $100,000 DECLARED STAKE
 Demand for Probating of Estate Is Made as Preliminary to Suit Over Woman's Right to Property Held by Company.

Preliminary steps to a contest of the title of the widow of Walter H. Moore to property said to be worth $100,000 were taken in the court of County Judge Tarwell yesterday when Mrs. Moore was cited to give testimony regarding the business deals of her husband.

Arnold Moore, stepson of Mrs. Moore, began the action when he filed a petition for the probate of his father's estate, which, he said, was of the value of $100,000, though Mrs. Moore had said that her husband left nothing. She appeared before Judge Tarwell yesterday to testify in person, given property virtually in her possession, given by her husband before his death.

At this time Mr. Moore is said to have turned over to the trust company, of which Mrs. Moore is a heavy stockholder and director. Beartley Cole, attorney for Arnold Moore, said yesterday that the hearing was only preliminary to an attack on the right of Mrs. Moore to that property. Arnold Moore and two children of his deceased sister are heirs to Walter Moore's estate, it is held.

EXAMINATION IS WAIVED
 Italian Charged With Murder Is Held for Grand Jury.

James Brusco, the Italian laborer who fatally stabbed Garnet Stark, his friend and neighbor, in a quarrel at Milwaukee street and South avenue, Sunday night, waived examination before Municipal Judge Langsuth yesterday on a charge of murder and was held to the grand jury.

The quarrel in which Stark was slain followed a party in which red Italian wine is said to have been drunk freely. Brusco maintains that he struck in self defense, after he had been vilified and attacked. He is defended by Attorney M. G. Montreza.

CITIZEN MAY LOSE PAPERS
 White Slaver Faces Deportation Case Following Conviction.

Revocation of the citizenship papers of Jake Grouch as a preliminary to possible deportation to Australia, as an undesirable alien, is under advisement by Federal Judge R. E. Bean, following a hearing yesterday.

ALLEGED GROUCH SUED
 Mrs. Dickey Says She Had to Beg for Clothes She Got.

Wesley Dickey is "a man who nurses a continual grudge," complaining his wife, Elizabeth Dickey, in a suit for divorce filed in the Circuit Court yesterday. He is stingy, also, she charges, saying that she had to get on her knees to him and beg for any clothes that she might need.
