ALL society attended the Charity ball last night at Multnomah Hotel, and the affair was full of interest and excitement. Preceding it a number of charming dinner parties were given by well-known folk, a large affair being given at the University Club particularly to hear the noted lecturer, Professor Albert Van Hecke, of Louvain University, tell of his work and the conditions among the Belgians, in the interest of whom he is touring this country. Covers were placed for more than 200 of the representative men and women of Portland.

Another dinner party preceding the ball was presided over by Mrs. Hazel B. Litt at the Benson Hotel, covers being arranged for Miss Alissa MacMaster, Miss Claire Wilcox, Merle Campbell, Jervis E. W. Stephenson, Charles S. Holbrook and the hostess.

Another merry party was given by Mrs. and Mrs. Gray W. Talbot, honoring Miss Alice Tucker and her fiancé, Spencer Biddle, the entire party later going to the ball. The table was prettily decked with Spring flowers and their guests were: Miss Tucker, Mr. Biddle, Miss Esther Tucker, Conrad Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Sooyemith, John Watzek, Miss Sally Adams, Miss Ruth Teal and William Howe.

A small and informal card party will be given today in the Japanese tea gardens of Multnomah Hotel by Miss Leona. Two tables will be arranged for the games, which will be followed by tea.

Mrs. Myron S. Smith, of Irvington, entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Paris Packard, of Underwood, Wash.

Two notable affairs will make this evening interesting at the Multnomah hotel, one the annual ball of the Knights of Columbus and the other the annual charity ball of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the latter to be held in the assembly hall. Tonight has been chosen for the Confederacy's ball, as it is the birthday of General Lee.

The patronesses for the affair are: Mrs. C. Morton, Mrs. H. H. Duff, Mrs. E. R. Moore, Mrs. M. Lee, Mrs. P. J. Joplin, Mrs. J. C. Nissen, Mrs. E. Michell, Mrs. J. C. P. Westergard. The committee on arrangements are Mrs. W. C. Silva, Mrs. J. Bailey, Mrs. E. T. Hedlund, Mrs. U. D. Mazon.

All Knights are urged to attend the annual ball of Columbus fourth annual ball, and to invite their friends. The patrons and patronesses include: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moush, Mrs. M. Lee, Mrs. W. J. Joplin, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Abers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Kjalvalge, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Maher, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Zerkan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Phelan, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas J. Drew and Mrs. and Mrs. William M. Brennan.

Reception committee—Frank J. Longergan, chairman; James F. Clarkson, Daniel J. Malarky, Joseph Jacobson, Michael F. Brady, Roger E. Sinnott, J. H. Sangulnet, John P. McEneaney, Charles W. Stringer, J. Andre Foulhouse, John P. Kavanaugh, Frank E. Dooly, John C. McCue, John D. McGowan, Dr. Andrew C. Smith, John M. Geartin, Dr. Ben L. Norden and James P. Cooke.

The wedding of Miss Alice Robbins and S. M. Meears, Jr., will be solemnized this afternoon at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Leo Hoffman, 795 Davis street, with Dr. W. G. Elliot officiating. It will be small and simple, with only relatives in attendance.

The Rose City Park Club will give a dancing party tonight at its club-house instead of a vaudeville entertainment, as was intended, the latter having been postponed on account of the absence from the city of two of those who were to take part. The dance tonight will be attended by splendid music, the committee in charge being Mrs. I. Blaesing, Mrs. Arthur Hazen, Mrs. C. G. Hall, Mrs. Walter Miller, Mrs. D. B. Howell, and Mrs. E. E. Dennison, the latter being chairman.

The regular monthly card party of the Irvington Club will be held tonight. Special decorations and several interesting features will make the evening notable. Tables for both 500 and bridge will be arranged for the members of the club.

Delta Gamma will hold its regular monthly meeting with Miss Alta Hayward in the May Apartments tomorrow at 2:30. Miss Hayward will be assisted by Mrs. Henry M. Kimball.

Mrs. Harlow Lee Gibbon (Nellie Ray), of Spokane, is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Bayly, in this city for a few weeks. Mrs. Gibbon is popular in Portland society and her numerous friends will entertain her extensively during her brief visit.

Journing at Hotel Lankersheim, in that city, include: Mrs. W. P. Dickey and daughter, Dorothy, Dorothy Gregory, P. Autzen, F. P. King and W. M. Calk, of this city; Mrs. L. L. Goodrich and daughter, Mrs. J. Russell and Ruth Russell, of La Grande.

The Sigma Xi Upsilon, a high school fraternity, will hold an initiation meeting and dinner tonight in the tea gardens adjoining the ballroom of Multnomah Hotel. Covers will be placed for 20.

Interest of Portland women is now being centered in the organization of the English women, Miss Fell and Miss Scofield, who have recently returned from the west. They are touring the Northwest in the interest of the fatherless children of France, and will give a talk on the conditions in France, at the Multnomah Hotel, on January 22 at 2:30 o'clock, in the assembly hall. These women have been sent out by the national society, and are endeavoring to help the little ones who have lost their fathers in the war. The meetings are free of charge and intensely interesting.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The marriage of Miss Helen Bates, of Portland, to Christopher E. Chenery, of Ashland, Va., took place tonight at the University Congregational Church. Only six immediate relatives of the two families and a number of friends attended the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Chenery left for a honeymoon trip in the South. They will make their home in Chicago after their return in about four weeks. The bride is the daughter of Professor W. I. Bates, of the Pacific University, Forest Grove, Ore., but had made her home in Portland with her aunt, Miss Carrie May Nichols, for several years. She is a graduate of Smith College.

FAVORITE RECIPES OF OREGON WOMEN

AMONG some of the best housewive recipes of the country are a number of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Some of the choicest, most sensible and delicious recipes by Portland women have been obtained from the "daughters." Here are two that are practical and will be found excellent in every way. They are good to cook on Saturday, but they are good but would be every bit as good any day of the week:

Casserole Round Steak.
BY MRS. BOUDNOT SIEBLEY.
1 1/2 lbs. round steak.
3 slices bacon.
2 slices onion.
2 green peppers.
Pound the steak and into it a cup of flour, adding salt and pepper. Cut the bacon fine and fry with slices of onion and minced green pepper. Pour all this into the bottom of the casserole and then put steak into the frying pan (Don't wash pan first) and sauté steak on both sides. Then cut in pieces to fit in casserole. Heat 1 cup water and 1 cup milk in same pan and pour over steak and season. Bake in oven 1 hour. Chickens rolled in flour (prepared as for frying) and seared and then cooked in this way is delicious.

New England Bean Soup.
BY MRS. I. L. PATTERSON.
1 1/2 pounds salt pork.
2 cups small white beans.
1/2 dozen small saffish roots (oyster plant)
1 onion.
Boil pork till tender; save water for the soup; soak beans over night; boil till tender; add saffish roots, onion, while the beans are cooking, the vegetable may be scraped, cut in disks and boiled till tender. When beans are mashed, add pork water, onion, saffish and water to suit. Pepper and salt may be added as needed.

STYLE TIPS FROM PORTLAND STORES

COLOR will count more than ever this year, and skillful combinations will be responsible for the chic of many a costume. Milady is making a strenuous effort also, to match the little details of her dress. For instance, just now smartly dressed women are matching their dresses and suits with spats and gloves and adding a touch of color to their hats. Putty-colored rocks appear with putty-colored gloves. Gray is another pleasing color for frocks and spats, and navy blue suits with like spats and trim. Chamolis, white, brown and several other colors are used in a like manner.

Beads and Oriental ornaments of practically every known color and shade may be had now, and therefore with little effort women are able to get beads to harmonize with the embroidery and other trimming on the waists and frocks. Coral, jade, topaz, sapphire and all sorts of red and yellow beads and dangling baubles are singularly attractive with the new Russian and Oriental embroidery trimmings.

New attractive lingerie and pettiof the many interesting features which were brought to her club's attention through this channel greatly interested the other members.

Mrs. Ida Neiswanger, president of Branch 2 reported the election of officers and the adoption of the constitution and by-laws. Branch 2 recently entertained the Mother Club. It seems probable Branch 2 will develop into a study club. The suggestion of study under the efficient leadership of Emerson's essays was looked upon with favor.

There was much discussion by members of the board of plans for the future development of the club, and many ideas were brought out which will be carried back to the respective branches to be discussed, acted upon and reported at the next board meeting.

One of these suggestions is the advisability of arranging and printing a programme for the complete year's work.

It was decided that each club was to have at least one lecture during the quarter on "How to Reduce the High Cost of Living."

Mrs. Ross formulated for the board the sentiment "the Lavender Club stand for sociability and intellectual development. And for our personal activities we eliminate all phrases pertaining to growing old."

The meeting was adjourned to meet the first Wednesday in April.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church parish house will be the scene this afternoon of the first of a series of lectures, to be addressed by Rev. G. Mosher, of China, who is returning to his field from the general convention. All auxiliaries of the city Council will be invited. Every parish should be well represented at this gathering.

Portland Research Club will meet in the Library today at 1:45 o'clock. "The Minor Countries of South America" will be the subject. The speaker will be Mrs. C. R. Wobley, Mrs. Scott Bozart and Mrs. C. C. Scott. Mrs. Charles V. Ross will read a paper.

The pure literature department of Montavilla Parent-Teacher Association has placed free magazines at 1593 East Stack street. Anyone willing to contribute other magazines may leave them at the school.

Branch No. 1 Lavender Club will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the East Side Library.

An all-day meeting will be held tomorrow in the high school at Oregon City, where the Clackamas Parent-Teacher Association will assemble. Mrs. John Baldwin is president.

Mrs. Isaac Swett will be the speaker at the 5 o'clock vespers service, Laureldwood Congregational Church, Forty-fifth avenue and Sixty-fifth street tomorrow. Mrs. Swett will talk for her subject "The Work of the Neighborhood House in South Portland."

The programme for Lent's Parent-Teacher Circle will be of special interest to both parents and teachers. This month, Miss Dorothy Waugh, of Couch School, will speak on "The Special Child in the Public School."

Other members of the programme are: Song, Miss Meagher's class; violin and mandolin duet, Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. Lund.

The meeting will be held in room 18 at 2:30 P. M. today.

"Roses" and "A Woman's Clubhouse" two important subjects for clubwomen to consider in Portland, will be topics today at the luncheon to be given by the Political Equality League in the Hotel Portland.

The regular luncheon for the federated clubs will be held on Saturday in the Hotel Portland. Reservations are invited to Christopher E. Chenery, of Ashland, Va., who will be the speaker.

GOOD THINGS IN THE MARKET

AMONG the newest things on the market are pheasants, at $3.50 each. Spring chickens seem to be numerous at 20 cents a pound. There are a few turkeys on the market at 20 cents a pound. Guinea hens can be bought for 40 cents each. Rabbits are still 25 cents each.

The best table butter is 90 cents a roll. Dairy butter is 75 and 80 cents a roll. Strictly fresh eggs are 50 cents a dozen. Cold storage eggs are 35 and 40 cents a dozen. Turkey eggs are 37 a dozen. Fresh duck eggs are 50 cents a dozen.

In the fish market we find fresh Columbia River chinook salmon at 20 cents a pound. Red snapper at 15 cents a pound is good for baking. Olympia oysters are 50 cents a pint. Shrimps are still 50 cents a pound. Eastern clams, for frying, are 50 cents a dozen.

In the vegetable market, California vegetables are 5 cents higher on the bunch than Oregon vegetables. Spinach is plentiful at 6 cents a pound. Red cabbage is 6 and 7 cents a pound. Tomatoes are still on the market at 20 cents a pound, but are not as attractive as the winter vegetables. Mushrooms seem plentiful, but luxurious, at 35 cents a pound. Eggplant is 40 cents a pound. Endive is 55 cents a pound.

Among the odds and ends are home-made hominy at 10 cents a quart and home-made kraut at 10 cents a quart. Daffodil bulbs are 15 cents a dozen. Home-ground horseradish is 10 cents a glass and 40 cents a quart.

Oregon-grown plubarb is now on the market at 15 cents a pound. In the fruit market oranges seem plentiful at 25, 30, 40 and 50 cents a dozen. Hood River apples range in price from
