Richard Wood Will Be Prosecuted by Federal Authorities, Charged With Impersonating an Army Officer.

Local detectives declare that Richard Wood, the man of many aliases, who will be prosecuted by the Federal authorities for the alleged impersonation of an Army officer, completely outwitted all records of fiction or fact for efferony. In addition to many other activities, here are "deals" negotiated by Wood according to his brief stay in Portland, according to Detectives Leonard, LaSalle, Hillyer and Tackabery. As representative of the "Honolulu Railroad Company," Wood is said to have "purchased" from the Baldwin Locomotive Works three locomotives and 1,000 tons of railroad rails; from Brady & Son, 1900 freight cars and 1000 tons of railroad iron; from the Northwestern Equipment Company, 1909 dictators; from Portland Equipment Company, 1900 boxcars. Also, the detectives say, he had negotiated with McGargar, Bates & Lively for insurance for his "working force in Honolulu." A photograver was given

YOUNG MAN KILLS SELF

F. F. LOVELAND IS FOUND IN BED, PISTOL IN HAND.

Secret Worry Over Motorcycle Accident Only Possible Motive Ascribed by Relatives.

Floyd F. Loveland, 25 years old, of 911 Northwick Street, committed suicide early yesterday morning by shooting himself through the right temple with a .35-caliber automatic pistol. The body was found in bed at 7 o'clock by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ralph W. Loveland. Both hands clutched the pistol and rested on his breast. But a single shot had been fired. In the opinion of Deputy Coroner Smith and Motorcycle Patrolman Coulter, both of whom investigated, the evidences of suicide were plain. A message to Detective Captain Baily, from an unknown source, caused further inquiry by City Detectives Hydn and Abbott. They reported that the young man had evidently died by his own act. Deputy Coroner Smith has announced that an inquest is considered unnecessary. Jolly and seemingly untroubled on the previous evening, when he played cards with Mrs. Loveland, the tragic surprise that followed in the morning completely unnerved his brother and sister-in-law. They could ascribe no cause for his act, with the possible exception of presuming that an accident to his brother, in which he was concerned, had preyed upon his mind. On the Columbia Highway last July the Loveland brothers were spinning along on a motorcycle. Floyd was driving. An accident occurred, in which Ralph Loveland was seriously injured. It is thought that Floyd may have worried secretly over having been the cause of his brother's invalidism. The latter was almost ready to re-
