Completion of Road to Bend, R. E. Strahorn Says, Will Divert Trade North.

FINANCIAL AID IS NEEDED

Professor of Oregon, California & Eastern Points Out Advantages of Line and Campaign for Funds Will Be Started.

"Klamath Falls" annual trade totals $2,800,000—enough to build the railroad line from Klamath Falls to Bend."

Robert E. Strahorn, professor of the Oregon, California & Eastern, emphasized that fact yesterday to show that the trade of that district each year amounts in value to what one-half of the entire system of 450 miles in South-Central Oregon will cost.

The fact also was brought out that the trade of that particular district, all of which now virtually goes to San Francisco will be diverted directly to Portland as soon as the line to Bend is completed and put in operation.

City Backs Line Heavily. The residents of the Klamath Falls district are making heroic sacrifices in aiding the project," said Mr. Strahorn. "They are staking almost everything in order to get the line. The city is donating $100,000 of its own funds and individual donations of money and land have been made. One citizen, Charles Ehrlich, donated a tract of land 3000 feet long and 300 feet wide for outside terminals. In the campaign to raise a fund for the building of snow sheds around through the mountain of snow to canvas for financial aid, it shows how important they hold the project in their minds."

The efforts made by the Klamath Falls people deserve the attention and admiration and it should be remembered that they are doing all this for the privilege of trading with Portland. If Portland does one-half as much as Klamath Falls has done, proportionately, the project will be assured and actual construction can be started early this year.

Columbia. THE WEAKER SEX, the current Triangle photoplay on exhibition at the Columbia Theater, savors of "The Sin Ye Do" and "The Wolf Woman," which means that it ranks with the best of the recent Ince productions. Not only is the story an interesting one, with really gripping moments, but it is presented by a particularly able cast, including such stellar performers as Dorothy Dalton, Louise Glbaum, Charles Ray, Robert McKim, Margaret Thompson and Charles French.

"The Weaker Sex" is a refutation of the theory that woman is a "weaker vessel." Miss Dalton, seen in a role she has never equalled, is a woman lawyer, who first vanquishes a district attorney in court battles, and then, after she has married him and retired to domestic life, returns to the legal firing line and saves her husband's soul from the gallows.

Miss Glbaum has one of her typical vampire roles, a cabaret entertainer who plots to murder a young millionaire, and ends by really falling in love with him. Charles Ray is once more the weakling, the son of the district attorney, who falls into the clutches of the "leopard woman." When she falls to make good, her "protector" kills her, and she avenges the crime on the youthful lover by means of a faked dying accusation.

The father is called upon to prosecute his son, and down goes the only weak point in an otherwise strong drama. Things look black, indeed, for the district attorney's mother, always chafing under her enforced isolation from the world of activity, steps into the breach, and by a testimony of the entertainer's "protector," and wrings from him a confession.

"Perils of a Plumber," a comedy; Animated Weekly; and an educational subject complete the bill.

DOG SLEDS BRING OUT GOLD DUST.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 18.—The steamer Mariposa arrived here last night from Seward, Alaska with $25,000 in gold dust from mines at Iditarod, Valdez and Chickof. Express messengers went into the Iditarod district to bring out the amount of treasure from there. It was transported on three dog sleds 400 miles over the trail from the Iditarod to Forty-Mile station on the Government railroad.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter.

Overworked, run-down, "fagged-out" women, who feel as though they could hardly drag their feet, should read Mrs. Carter's experience. She says, "I am the mother of six children, and I get so weak and run-down that I couldn't do anything, and it seemed almost impossible for me to get around and do my work. I tried different doctors' remedies without benefit. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and received so much benefit from the first bottle that I continued to take it, and it has built up my strength and made me strong and well. I consider Vinol the best medicine I have ever taken, and advise all weak, run-down women to try it." Mrs. Bessie Carter, State Road, N. C.

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in Portland could only realize how our delicious Vinol, which contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, supplies the vital elements necessary to build up blood and strength, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand.

PROVIAL UPON 'THE ENEMY'

The photoplay, produced from the George Randolph Chester story, by Vitagraph. Those indifferent to the "cause," or even its opponents, will be stirred by this tale of the Drama Room, which is the current attraction at the Majestic Theater.

THE ENEMY

The author has made his characters convincing and handled his theme with strict regard to the truth. The finish is logical and possesses great power. After giving every indication of the happy ending the climax comes with a tragic suddenness. The man who has once been the slave of liquor and who apparently has conquered his enemy and regained the love of his wife, falls into the clutches of a woman who gives way to his appetite and sends a bullet into his brain when overwhelmed by despair.

Evelyn Hyland, the leading feminine figure in the photodrama, with strong support in the persons of Charles Kent, Margaret Thompson and Billie Billings. Kent's portrayal of a derelict is a masterpiece of screen characterization, and ranks with the best bits of histrionics the screen has produced.

Interest in the story begins with the first scene, in which the hero, a young lawyer, called by his companions "Bow-wow," carries the sympathy as he climbs up and up to his former place as a brilliant man, and then falls back again to where he started.

In the meantime sympathy is divided with a younger man, who, through a coincidence and circumstance, who is saved by the shock of the elder's suicide.

A Vitagraph comedy and Pathe news of current events complete the programme.

SUNSET

"Silver Threads Among the Gold," a six-reel picture of the ballad which brought Richard J. Jose fame and fortune, and the presence of Mr. Jose in song selections as a part of the unusual programme, will continue as the headliner at the Sunset Theater throughout the week.

Mr. Jose sings at every screening of the six-reel picture and in his evening sings four songs at each performance, headed by the popular "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

The photoplay is a rural story constructed about a country boy who is wrongfully accused of theft and goes to the city. In the village he falls in love with his parents, and his life is suddenly wrecked when a rival steals a purse and "plants" it in his coat. When discovered, the thief's father turns against the lad, although mother love is equal to the greatest belief in the confidence and honesty of her boy. In the city the boy is the victim of many circumstances, gets in with crooks, loses all his money, and finally is forced to sleep in the parks. The story is arrested and sent to jail for vagrancy. Freed, he secures employment as a waiter.

In the meantime the thief at home, who had not succeeded in winning the girl, although his rival was out of the way, is fatally injured in a drunken brawl and confesses. A search for the boy finally unearths the boy and a reunion is effected.

The picture was made in New York under the direction of Mr. Jose, who plays the leading part.

"His Lying Heart," a Keystone comedy with Ford Sterling heading a fun-making cast, another contribution to the programme.

SCREEN GOSSIP.

Mary Nash, the newest of the World-Brady screen stars, is one of the shrewdest business women on the stage, in addition to being one of the best young actresses of the time. She is wealthy in her own right, and manages her estate with the utmost skill and care.

The Leaky studio was nearly raided by the police during the taking of the scenes of "Betty to the Rescue," in which Fannie Ward will appear in the stellar role on the Paramount programme. In some of the mining camp scenes a large roulette table was employed. When not in use this table was stored in a vacant room near a street. An enterprising property man, noting the fact that the table was in full operation, started a full-size roulette game. A tip was sent out and at night the door was opened to the street and friends admitted. By accident it was discovered just in time to be stopped before the police, who had been advised of the game, reached the studio.

Marguerite Clark is just completing "Hacketty Packerly House," which will be released in February and which will be one of her most pretentious offerings.

WORLD'S GREATEST UP-TO-DATE SCHOOL

Delay of Year, if Necessary, Advocated if Modern Features Are Assured.

BIBLE PUT IN CURRICULUM

Home Telephones to Replace Those of Pacific States Company—Board Decides to Take Over Management of Cafeterias.

A modern school building, with auditorium, committee rooms, swimming pools, basement and lunch rooms, in addition to the traditional class rooms for study and recitation, preferably a duplicate of the new couch school, was asked of the School Board at the regular semi-monthly meeting yesterday afternoon by a committee from the Hawthorne-Buckman district. It was suggested that in the event the Board has not sufficient funds on hand to admit of such a structure the erection of the proposed school be delayed another year.

The Board has decided upon a new plan for this district and the appropriation needed for the new building. Whether the building will be a two-story structure or one of the new one-story type of school is undetermined. Advocates of both types have been heard from, but it was declared by yesterday's delegation that that point will be left to the Board to determine.

L. M. Lepper Spokesman. L. M. Lepper headed the delegation that came yesterday. A number of citizens backed him up in his statement of the need of a thoroughly modern school for that section of the city. He said that more than 2000 boys and girls attend the school, that 1000 children live within one mile of the building and 15,000 children within a radius of two miles.

It was argued that a swimming pool and basement are both essential, the latter as a place where children may play in inclement weather. The directors took the matter under advisement.

Alice Johnson and Evelyn Jones were present to discuss the school building. Alice Johnson, who has been in the school for the Board yesterday to fill vacancies arising at that school.

Bible study in the Sunday school or in the home is the only way to give the home a religious and moral training. Acting upon a recommendation of the Board, the Board has decided to have Public Instruction in the educational affairs committee transmitted a report to the Board to that effect and the directors approved it. Examinations will be prepared in Superintendent Churchill's office, and manuscripts will be returned there for grading.

Telephone Change Ordered. The Home Telephone will replace the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company's instruments in the Portland schools, with the exception of those in the homes and in the various administrative offices, it was decided yesterday. The supplies and equipment needed to make the change have been made, since the Pacific States has given notice that, beginning with the next school year, a full commercial rate will be charged for telephones in use in the various schools.

On the other hand, an attractive project favored by the Board is the Telephone Company. The directors declared that the Pacific States Company had refused to make concessions and had demanded an unreasonable amount of fixing rates. For this reason it was voted to change the service, the transfer to be made as soon as it can be effected into effect conveniently.

Cafeterias to Be Taken Over. The school authorities will probably take over the operation of the school cafeterias and lunch rooms in the various schools, instead of allowing them to be run by private individuals for gain as at present, Superintendent Alderman said yesterday. A committee has been appointed to study the matter and it was stated the plan would be to operate them for the benefit of the children alone, the full value for the service to be paid by the parents.

The resolution submitted was to the effect that the department of domestic science, of which Miss Edna Groves is head, be directed to take full charge of the school cafeterias and lunch rooms, to be operated by the school and the whole plan to be run as directed by the Board.

The Danish West Indies passed under the sovereignty of the United States yesterday, but the formal transfer of the islands and the raising of the American flag will not take place until the purchase price of $25,000,000 is paid, which will be some time after the next 90 days. WOMEN ARE FOR DEFENSE

Head of Patriotic Order Testifies at Preparedness Hearing.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The 35,000 women of the Daughters of the American Revolution are pledged to preparedness and adequate National defense, said Mrs. William Cumming Story, president-general, to the Senate sub-committee on universal military service today, speaking as a member of the special committee representing 25 patriotic societies.

"I believe that I can speak for the women in favor of universal service," Mrs. Story said, "because they have so pledged themselves. The hearts of the women of America are in this movement. We believe it is essential."

Merchant Shoots at Robber. OREGON CITY, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—W. A. Holmes, the merchant and postmaster of Fairplace, about one mile from this city, was awakened last night by the breaking of window glass in the door of his store. Seeing a man trying to make his way into the building, Mr. Holmes fired at the would-be robber. The man fled.

JOHN McNEIL DIES AT 53. Newspaper Owner and Printer Is Dead at Oregon City. OREGON CITY, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—John McNeil, veteran printer and newspaperman, died at the home of his brother, James McNeil, at Willamette late yesterday after a long illness.

He was born 53 years ago at Hudson, N. Y. For several years he was connected with the Iowa state printing office. Later he bought the DeWitt (S. D.) Record. More than five years ago he went to Aurora, where he was employed by the Observer until falling health compelled him to quit. Two brothers, James and Hugh McNeil, the latter of Albany, were with him when he died. One sister, Mrs. F. J. Cooney, of New Hampton, Ia., and two other brothers, Daniel E. McNeil, of Monroes, Or., and Frank McNeil, of St. Paul, Minn., survive.

BRYAN ADVISES SUFFRAGE. Ohio Legislators Told Women Elected President Wilson. COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 18.—William J. Bryan urged Ohio Legislators in joint session today to extend full suffrage to women. "Let no Democrat question the capacity of women for suffrage for it was the women who elected President Wilson last Fall when the men would have defeated him," Mr. Bryan said, addressing his remarks to the Democratic majority.

Two bills granting women Presidential suffrage are pending in the Ohio General Assembly. Mr. Bryan also urged anti-liquor legislation and warned the lawmakers against compulsory military training.

'HIP' ACTS GIVE THRILL

ACROBATS SEEM TO HAVE NO REGARD FOR DANGER. Sisters Who Appear in Stunning Gowns and Men Who Sing Pleasingly Win Much Applause.

Death-defying achievements and danger-tempting maneuvers pile thick one after another in the sensational gymnastic offering of the Paches troupe of acrobats, topping the new bill at the Hippodrome.

Four men, all of athletic mold and instincts, and two attractive girls, both athletic and all six extremely graceful, whirl and toss and leap daringly and with apparently no regard for life or limb. Their act goes rapidly and is accompanied by continued applause.

Frank Palmer registered a hit yesterday with his cartooning. He draws with facility and incisive line a personal flavor that makes for comradeship.

A clever playlet is "She Wanted Affection," which has for its theme a wife who fancies she is losing her husband's interest and sets out to discourage it by being especially treacherous. She discovers that she has never loved it, but the discovery process makes several minutes of unconfined fun.

Mabel Florence is the part role she invests with rare comedy art, and Oscar Briggs is capital as the husband.

Artistic and unusual is the act presented by the trio of Andersons, all sisters, who sing and dance divertingly. Their act is decidedly new.

Another trio is Weir, Temple and Dacey, men who have exceptionally fine singing voices.

When Von Troit, a cute girl, has a melange of music, mirth, song and dance with Livingston Morrison.
