SQUAD TO LEAVE FEB. 14

Bill Stumpf Is Missing and Portland Infielder Will Not Know of Journey to Honolulu.

The Honolulu training trip of the 1917 Portland Pacific Coast League club is on. Judge William Wallace McCredie, president of the Beavers, received the following telegram last night:

"Four thousand dollars cash deposited for guarantee per Castle letter January 5. BANK OF HAWAII."

This word was all that remained to check the journey. The Castle letter referred to was one received by the McCredies from Alfred L. Castle, treasurer of the Honolulu Athletic Park Association, wherein he named the local magnate's terms. Last night's telegram also confirmed the rumor that the Portland club is getting a $4000 guarantee and the McCredies say they have an option of 50 per cent of the gross gate receipts.

The Portland ballplayers will leave Vancouver, B. C., February 14 arriving in Honolulu six days later on board the steamship Niagara. The Great Northern, which departs from Honolulu March 16, and touches at San Francisco March 21, will carry the team home.

Where, oh where, is big Bill Stumpf? Judge McCredie would like to have someone locate the Beaver infielder, who has been away on a farm.

Bill has not been heard from since he left a few months ago. He told McCredie that he was going to some friends there to rest and recover from the attack of rheumatism which made him quit baseball last July.

The McCredies are in hopes that Bill will get hold of a newspaper and learn of the Beavers' forthcoming trip to Kanaka land. They also urge all the rest of the pastimers to shoot in their signed contracts at once and to let them know that they thoroughly understand that the bunch leaves Vancouver February 14, so that there will be no mistakes.

But Bill Stumpf has no contract, no letters, no nothing telling him about the journey. The Portland owners are in a fearful quandary and will not be at ease until Bill gets in touch with them.
