EX-BANDIT TOTTERS OFF TO POOR FARM

Chris Evans, Bowed by Years and Bloody Memories, Is Public Charge.

YOUNGER DAYS' VIGOR GONE

Man Who, With John Sontag, Waged War on Rallway Which Acquired His Property, Prepares to End Days at County Farm.

Chris Evans, famed highwayman, who with John Sontag won more repute in California as slayers than did Tracy and Merrill in Oregon, entered yesterday upon the last quiet chapter resterday upon the last quiet chapter of an eventful life, when he was taken to the Multnomah County Farm to pass his remaining days.

It was a palsied old man, bowed with the weight of 70 years and a heavy-laden memory, who was committed yeaterday on the order of Dr. E. P. Geary, county physician. His left eye and right arm are gone, and Evans fron constitution is fast failing, said the physician. Last year Evans went to California to have a surgeon remove a bullet from a wound in his head, and though the operation was successful, it brought little relief.

BARBER DENIES GUILT

M. H. MCALL ENTERS PLEA TO

Insanity to Be Defense of Slayer of W. A. Shaner, Killed in Morgan Building on Christmas Day.

Marcus H. McCall, a barber, who shot and killed W. A. Shaner, another barber, last Christmas day, pleaded not guilty to a charge of murder before Presiding Judge Gantenbein yesterday, Insanity will be his defense.

Shaner was killed primarily because he was thought to have secured the discharge of McCall from a barber shop in the Morgan building, in which both men worked. McCall entered the shop on Christmas Day, had a shave and haircut, and turned to Shaner, asking

"Have you got your gun with you?" and opened fire. Three builets entered Shaner's body, and McCall then diverted his attention to a negro porter whom he chased up

Broadway.

That McCall is insane and was not responsible for his actions is the plea to be made by Attorneys W. A. Carter and W. E. Critchlow, appointed by Judge Gantenbein to represent the prisoner. The attorneys have asserted that investigation has shown that McCall was subject to epilepsy when young,
