HARDWARE DEALERS TO CONVENE TODAY

Death Upsets Plans by Removal of Edwin A. Walten, Noted Advertising Man.

RECREATION PLANS MADE

Sessions Will Continue Three Days and Conclude With Banquet on Friday Night-Many Expected to Stay On for Auto Show.

Death robbed the Oregon Retail Hardware & Implement Dealers' Association of a star programme number when Edwin A. Walten, advertising manager for the Burroughs' Adding Machine Company, died suddenly Sunday night in Spokane after a short illness with presuments.

ness with pneumonia.

Mr. Walten was recognized widely as an advertising expert and he was to come to Portland on his Western trip to address the hardware dealers totrip to address the hardware dealers tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock on the topic, "Better Days' Profits." His absence from the list of speakers will be felt by the committee of arrangements. The printed programme as arranged bears Mr. Walten's name but some substitute will be provided for his place tomorrow afternoon.

No other change in the arrangements already made will be necessary, it is expected, and the gathering will bring together representative dealers from all sections of this state and nearby territory as well.

President Has Arrived. George T. Baldwin, of Klamath Falls, president of the association, reached Portland last night from Salem, where he was in attendance at the present session of the Legislature as a member session of the Legislature as a member of the Senate from his county. Others prominent in the hardware and implement business made up an advance guard that reached the city last night ready for the opening sessions today. This morning there will be a heavy influx of hardware men, it is expected and it is promised that the attendance this year will be the largest in the history of the organization.

Sessions of the convention will be held at the Imperial Hotel, which is headquarters for the meeting. The banquet on Friday night, which will be the concluding feature of the gathering, will be at the Multnomah Hotel. The entertainment committee of whole-sale dealers will meet at noon today sale dealers will meet at noon today to complete arrangements for giving the visiting hardware men a good time while in the city.

W. O. Munsell—Subject, "How to improve Betail Profits." Edward Newbegin—Subject, "The Future of the Retail Business." W. O. Huddleson—Subject, "Can the Re-tail Hardware and Implement Business Be Made Profitable."

Tomorrow morning's session will be executive as will the sessions on Fri-day. Tomorrow afternoon the follow-ing addresses are on the programme: E. E. Lucas—Subject, "How Shall We Meet the Advanced Cost of Goods?" Lot L. Pearce—Subject, "The Retail Im-plement Business From My Point of View." T. D. Honeyman—Subject, "Trade Accept-ances."

CURRY WANTS LEGISLATOR Citizens Say Coos Can Outvote Them Regardless of Desires.

BANDON, Or., Jan. 23.—(Special.)—
Petitions are being circulated in Curry County asking the Legislature to give Curry County an exclusive Representative. At present it has a Joint Representative with Coos County.

Authors of the petition argue that Coos, having so much larger population, can elect Curry's Representative regardless of Curry's interests or desires. F. B. Tichenor, of Port Orford, is now serving as Joint Representative.

GIRLS! TRY IT! HAVE THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Every Particle of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double Its Beauty at Once.

orates the scalp, forever stopping itch orates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 15-cent bottle of Knowiton's Danderine from any druggist or tollet counter, and just try it. Save your hair! Beautify it! You will say this was the best 15 cents you seer spent.—Adv.

Getting Acquainted.

A rather unique method of meeting a young man is evolved by Mildred Niles in "Marriage a la Carte," or "Marrying Money." Mildred takes a seat in a hammock and then pulls a convenient cord which tumbles the hammock to the ground. She screams for help and the young man she wishes to one to come rushing to her assistance.

Chester Barnett, who plays opposite

MOVING PICTURE NEWS

Owen Moore And Irene Fenwick In "A Girl Like That" At Peoples Theater

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES.

Columbia — Douglas Fairbanks, "American Aristocracy." Sunset—Clara Kimball Young, "Marrying Money."

Visit to Be Picasant.

Entertainment is to be unusually elaborate this year and the wholesalers and jobbers will leave nothing undone to afford the visitors a lot of pleasure and entertainment. Because of the fact that the auto show opens undone to afford the visitors a lot of pleasure and entertainment. Because of the fact that the auto show opens on the day following the close of the hardware convention, it is assured that many dealers who do not as a rule attend the hardware meeting will make it a point this year to be present at both events.

City Commissioner C. A. Bigelow will deliver the address of welcome to the hardware men as the representative of the city of Portland. This may come this morning or it may be put over until afternoon, as the only thing scheduled for this morning is the registration of delegates. President Baldwin will respond to the welcome.

The convention is the 11th annual meeting of the organization. The president's annual address and the report of the secretary will be heard this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the following addresses will be given."

B. M. Underwood—Subject, "Improvement of Retail Creditis."

The vear just past has seen a trethe downfall of the star were too narrow memory and the star were too narrow in their vision.

The year just past has seen a tremendous advance in the craft of motion picture story writing—that is, in the creating of original photoplays written expressly for the screen, but the stars have not in the least diminished in importance for that fact. Rather have they won a greater hold on the public because their capabilities have been developed to a higher extent in the better type of photoplays in which they have goes to a small town with the sole in-tention of getting the combination to the village bank's safe is the pic-turesque and interesting role which Irene Fenwick plays in "A Girl Like That," the Paramount production on exhibition at the Peoples Theater today. Owen Moore is co-starred with Miss Fenwick, being introduced as a small-town bank cashler disguised by those queer-looking tortoise shell rimmed glasses that make one look like a cross between a Harvard student and a cross between a Harvard student and a builfrog.

Instead of being a rollicking, poloplaying youth upon whom the liquor interests can depend for an extra dividend—such as he was in "A Coney Island Princess"—Moore is a model young man with a vacant stare, who is so nice that you want to pat him on the head and call him "sonny."

In addition to the crook play of love. In addition to the crook play of love, the double-cross and revenge, the Selig Tribune news weekly will be screened.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itch—marrying Money. Mildred takes a seat in a hammock and then pulls a convenient cord which tumbles the hammock to the ground. She screams for help and the young man she wishes to meet comes rushing to her assistance. Chester Barnett, who plays opposite as a Frenchman.

Clara Kimball Young in this picture, is in extremely handsome but like-wise virile individual. Mr. Barnett's appearance on the screen is always the occasion for prolonged gasps and sighs of admiration from the feminine fans

The Price of Fame.

Two children last week were named after Douglas Fairbanks. The first Douglas Fairbanks Deverich, is the son of Natt Deverich, assistant director, employed at the Famous Players' Eastern studio. And the other child, Douglas Fairbanks Montgomery, is of opulent New York parentage, and when he reaches his 21st year in life will be the heir to a large fortune.

"Douglas Fairbanks Deverich, is the son of Natt Deverich, assistant director, employed at the Famous Players' Eastern studio. And the other child, Douglas Fairbanks Montgomery, is of opulent New York parentage, and when he reaches his 21st year in life will be the heir to a large fortune.

"Doug." when advised of this, wittly said: "Well, if at that time I am broke, I guess I can borrow enough for a shoe shine from my namesake, Douglas Fairbanks Montgomery."

LOCAL TA

Universal has just bought 300 scripts from writers of note for one, two, three and five-reel scenarios.

D. W. Griffith is at the head of an organized fight against censorship of motion pictures.

The Evening Sun, New York, com-menting editorially upon the move-ment of "Censorship From Within" states that the nudity of women in pic-tures is not so distressing to the public as the nakedness of picture plots. Silly stories, inane characterizations, backneyed situations—plots, in other words, which anyone can see clean through—are a species of nakedness which demands immediate censorship from within, if pictures are to hold WAVERLEY CLUB SELECTS OFFI-

The spectacle of a speeding auto plunging over the cliff into the sea R. A. Leiter Is Vice-President and C. C. Mason's Record Enviable.

John Mason, star of "The Libertine," is one of the best-known dramatic actors on the legitimate stage, and has the distinct honor of having played the leading role in almost every big dra.

It was not so long ago that William Wadsworth was known to photoplay patrons simply as a clever comedian. But that Mr. Wadsworth is equally capable of playing very different types from those with which he has usually been associated is clearly demonstrated by his excellent performance in "The Martyrdom of Philip Strong," a Para-mount picture in which he appears in support of Robert Conness and Mabel

John Leach, who plays an important part as a Chinaman in Metro's stu-pendous serial, "The Great Secret," in which Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Beyne are starring, says he was the first man to make a stage character of the Chinaman in this country.

Click, click, click went the little tumblers in the great steel door as the deft fingers of Jim Brooks toyed with the combination of the safe. Over him the girl bent with tense, white face as she strained every nerve to catch the clicks and to follow the little round knob in its twistings and turnings. It was the one great chance for which she had been waiting for weeks and she must not fail—it sounds like an extract from some big "thriller," but it exactly describes one of the tense situations in the Paramount Picture, "A Girl Like That," which is the unusual attraction at the Peoples Theater the remainder of this week. Jim Brooks is none other than Owen Moore and "the girl" is Irene Fenwick.

IRENE FENWICK AND OWEN MOORE "A GIRL LIKE THAT"

Famous Players-Paramount

People's Theater Today COMING:

Marie Doro, the Exquisite

Woman's Car Taken, Ditched, Ther Another Machine Is Abandoned.

He was a peculiar thief who stole the automobile of Dr. Mary McLaugh-lin, of Woodlawn, in front of a downlin, of Woodlawn, in front of a downtown theater Monday night. He drove the machine about the city and ended up some time after midnight by running off the road near Holbrook.

Efforts to drag the automobile back to the road failing, the thief looked about and espied the garage of P. E. Walker, not many yards distant.

"Aha, a solution," the thief may have said to himself, as he broke open the garage door and made a graceful departure in Mr. Walker's machine, abandoning his first loot.

That he was not a regular thief, operating for mere money, was indicated by the fact that he later abandoned the second automobile, which was found yesierday by Sheriff Huriburt's deputies at Thirty-third and Constance lar tariffs of rates and hence is not a common carrier.

Other cases set for the present session include the complaint of the Portland Traffic and Transportation Bureau against the proposed increase in rates on bottles shipped from Eastern points, the case of the Astoria Box Company against the North Bank Road involving rates of lumber to Portland and other points over the Astoria branch, and the complaint against transcontinental lines involving an increase in rates on polishing compounds a wide expanse of territory in one night. There may be many thieves at work, but Sheriff Hurlburt believes most of the thefts are by the same person or group of persons.

An epidemic of hencoop robberies was quashed about a year ago by the arrest of several gangs of young men. crease in rates on polishing compounds to Pacific Coast terminals and interior

W. W. COTTON ELECTED

Commerce Examiner Hears of Charge to Portland.

LOCAL TARIFF IN DISPUTE

Logging Company's Line Is Said to

CERS FOR ENSUING YEAR.

Overmire Secretary-Treasurer.

The newly elected board at the Waverley Country Club met at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday and elected officers for the ensuing year. W. W. Cotton was chosen president,
R. A. Leiter vice-president and C. C.
Overmire secretary-treasurer.
Three committee chairmanships also were awarded by President Cotton.

R. F. Frael was delegated chairman of the house committee; C. H. Davis, Jr., was named chairman of the greens committee, and Graham Glass, Sr., chairman of the tournament and handi-chairman of the tournament and handicap committee.

The chairmanships of the pole, tennis and finance committee will be disposed of later, President Cotton announced. It develops that a recount of the votes cast for directors Saturday night showed Victor A. Johnson and W. A. Pearson tied for the hinth position with 85 votes apiece. However, Mr. Pearson resigned yesterday in favor of Mr. Johnson.

The board will meet again next Tuesday. The new members of the board are: C. H. Davis, Jr., Graham Glass, Sr., C. C. Overmire, R. A. Leiter, A. C.

AUTO THIEF IS PECULIAR

Starting today, a pleasing programme for the particular

Owen Moore

Irene Fenwick

In a delightfully "different" mixture

'A Girl Like That'

'Adding spice and variety to the programme is the interesting Selig-Tribune with news of the world-11

"The House of Quality"

Alder Street at West Park

of romance, thrills and comedy:

A. M. to 11 P. M.

Jitney Tariffs Are Supported After Change of Mind.

NIGHT FARE IS 50 CENTS

Passenger May Travel to Any Part

History the product of the control o

Made in 31 Days, but Oregon Run Requires 30 Days.

After being on the Pacific Highway setween Roseburg and Portland sinc December 23, Mr. and Mrs. William Warwick, professional trans-continental pathfinders, who left Seattle last July under the auspices of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce for a complete tour of the United States in a truck loaded with a ton and a half of Pacific Coast food products, arrived in Portland Monday. The slowness of the trip was caused entirely by road conditions and not accommanded by any the trip was caused entirely by road conditions and not accompanied by any car or machine trouble.

The roads in the canyons of Southern Oregon were so bad, Mr. Warwick reports, that it took him four days to cover a mile at one particular point about two miles south of Yoncalla. Most of the bad roads were encountered in Douglas County. For 48 hours in a stretch Mr. and Mrs. Warwick were afraid to leave their truck for fear it would slip over into Pass Creek canyon. Mr. Warwick left Seattle July 10 and arrived in New York after 31 running days and 3710 miles of travel. The trip westward was commenced October 9 and Los Angeles was reached November 29.

CLYDE JENKINS FINED $500

Man Who Ordered Whisky Through Margulis Sentenced.

Clyde Jenkins, indicted with Willam Margulis recently for the violation of the interstate commerce act in the importation of undeclared whisky, was fined $500 Monday by Federal Judge Bean. Margulis was fined $1000 a few days ago after pleading guilty to the charge against him. W. A. Carter and Quimby Matthews pleaded for leniency in Jenkins' case, while Assistant United States Attorney Goldstein prosecuted him.

Also Big Canadian

Wild Animal Hunt Pictures

Today-Last Day Mabel Taliaferro In "A Wife by Proxy"

TODAY VIRGINIA PEARSON TOMORROW

GLADYS COBURN

Majes

BITTER TRUTH

THE PRIMITIVE CALL