with transfers to all of his jitney lines within the city.

The Council session yesterday resolved into a testimonial meeting on the subject of jitney service, when a large delegation of women from Whitwood Court, Willbridge and Linnton appeared to protest against the franchise being given to the union, which is operating the jitneys to Linnton now. The women told of the treatment they have received from the jitneys since the streetcar line to Linnton was put out of business.

Jitneys Penalize Opponents, Members of the delegation told all tinds of stories of their treatment. "Since we started this fight for better service," said one woman from Willbridge, "we have been passed up by the jitneys. They penalize us by re-fusing to carry us." The same state-ment was made by others. "Yesterday," said another woman, "I had to walk in from near Willbridge with my baby. I simply could not get a litney."
