MINE PARTNER SUED.—The old story of fraud in a mining deal is invoked by Edwin L. Pyle, who filed suit in the Circuit Court yesterday against A. W. Bartlett for the return of $800 he says was sunk in the Lost Chance mine in Skamania County, Washington. Mr. Pyle asserts he purchased a partnership in the mine from Mr. Bartlett for $800, on the representation that the silver and copper deposits assayed $43.75 a ton. He now declares the representations to have been fraudulent and wants his money back.

Automobile Drivers Warned to Use Camant. Care on Slippery Streets.

Harry P. Coffin, secretary of the Safety First Commission, has sent out an S. O. S. signal for automobile drivars to use more care while the streets are in a slippery condition. Too much arelessness, he says, has caused an annual number of accidents.

On Saturday, Sunday and yesterday 22 accidents resulted in the injury of 15 persons. Of these, 20 were accidents in which automobiles collided with pedestrians, and in the other two streetcars were involved.

The only serious accident of the 22 was one Sunday in which Fred Jenning was injured.
