

LOS ANGELES RISES AGAINST SENATOR

People Hang Out Flags and Adopt Resolutions Protesting Works' Speech.

DISLOYALTY IS CHARGED

City Council Adopts Resolution of Demunciation and Times Editorially Suggests Another Place of Residence.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 8.—(Special)—Resentment such as seldom if ever before has been manifested in the history of Southern California, swept Los Angeles when its citizens today read the speech Senator Works made yesterday in Washington, in which he charged the United States and American citizens with being unneutral toward Germany, an attitude which he said had made the break with Germany inevitable.

In answer to Senator Works' criticism of the President for the severance of relations with Germany, Southern California today hoisted the Stars and Stripes from San Diego to the Tehachap, and Los Angeles tonight is decorated in the National colors in a manner fitting Independence Day.

City Council Denounces Senator. The Los Angeles city council, by unanimous vote today denounced Senator Works for his attitude and characterized his attack on the President as "unbecomingly unneutral and at variance with the spirit of true Americanism." The resolution assured the President the Los Angeles "thoroughly dissents from the unpatriotic opinions" of the Senator. Further, the President was assured by the council "of our hearty support in his policy."

The resolution was adopted without comment. In commenting on Senator Works' speech, the Los Angeles Times says, editorially. It is to be hoped, but not expected, that when the Senatorial term of John D. Works expires next May, he will not return to this city, but go to Germany or hell. He misrepresents California and its people in his old and creditable record he has made in many things by protesting against the action of the President in severing diplomatic relations with Germany. And he slanders his country in saying that "the United States has not been neutral as a Nation."

Chamber Pledges Loyal Support. Soon after the action of the City Council the directors of the Chamber of Commerce sent a telegram to the President assuring him of their united support in the crisis. The directors tonight gave a reception in honor of Hugh S. Gibson, of Los Angeles, first secretary of the American embassy in London. Mr. Gibson is home to visit his mother.

Mayor Woodman today took steps for the formation of a committee of safety. With the co-operation of railroad and steamship companies and industrial corporations generally the mayor plans to have in one week an effort to mobilize 10,444 men ready for whatever panic and disturbance the international situation may produce here.

TROPIC ARCADIA FOUND

ARTISTS AND CLUBMEN TO GROW COCONUTS ON ISLAND.

Early Tomatoes and Fruits Also Attract Carmel's Literary Folk to Refuge on Mexican Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—(Special).—Eighteen colonists bound for Palmeto del Verde Island, near Mazatlan, where they propose to raise coconuts, early tomatoes and tropical fruits, will leave San Francisco on the steamer Newport Saturday.

The 18 are said to form an installment of about 300 who are hoping to make their fortunes out of coconut and tomato ranching on this Mexican Isle. Among them are several of the artists and literary folk of Carmel.

Harry Leon Wilson is said to have acquired an estate of 100 acres of choice coconut and early tomato land on Palmeto del Verde. Grant Wallace is another and so is S. E. Armstrong, the artist, who has already investigated the nut prospects in Tahiti. Still another is said to be Herbert Schmidt, architect, who with other members of his family is reported to have taken 800 acres. Fred Thompson, of the Bohemian Club, is going with the Saturday installment.

The colony is said to have been organized by a Los Angeles real estate man and to have 40,000 acres on Palmeto del Verde which is shaped like Catalina and about as large. Descriptions picture the island as a tropic scene of rare and valuable trees of the kinds used in making piano cases and abounding in parrots, quail, deer, shrimps, oysters and all sorts of fish.

BRAZIL'S NOTE FIRM

Measures of Protection Mentioned in Reply to Germany.

BLOCKADE NOT ADMITTED

Hope Is Expressed That Government Will Not Be Compelled to Break Amicable Relations; Short Notice Protested.

RIO JANEIRO, Feb. 8.—Brazil's reply to the German note to be made public today, will, in terms polite but firm, declare Brazil's intention to hold Germany responsible for consequences which may result from the new submarine warfare.

The reply expresses the desire of the Brazilian government not to be compelled to break the amicable relations it always has maintained with Germany, a fact, however, which will not prevent Brazil from taking measures of protection and from protesting against the menace to Brazilian commerce and navigation contained in the note of the imperial government containing measures for the marine blockade.

Brazil bases its protest upon the following four fundamental principles: First—the extension of an inadmissible blockade.

Second—the unexpectedness of the communication, which gives only the short interval of five days before the putting into operation of submarine measures with regard to several Brazilian ships now at sea or anchored in foreign ports.

Third—the ignoring of all rules established by international law and the principles set forth in solemn treaties and conventions, the signatories of which are Brazil and Germany herself.

Fourth—Brazil's objection to the declaration that no country should dissent from Germany's purpose to employ all means to render effective the blockade under the conditions mentioned in her note.

The reply concludes by expressing Brazil's hope that Germany will take into consideration the fundamental principles of Brazil's protests and Brazil's holding Germany responsible for the consequences which may come from making effective the threat against the navigation of non-belligerent states.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The German government has been asked by the Scandinavian-American line to assure safe passage through the recently defined war zone for the steamer Frederick VIII on which Count von Bernstorff, the ex-German Ambassador and his party, will sail for home February 13.

This assurance, officials of the line here said today, is requested in addition to the safe conduct through the blockade zone asked for by the American State Department and promised by Great Britain and France. "We have called our home office in Copenhagen for instructions," one of the officials said. "Until we do get orders to sail, the Frederick VIII and the Hellig Olav now in port here, will remain at their piers. We have been asked through the State Department for about 200 reservations for the returning Ambassador and his party and that number has been provided. We will, however, take other passengers in addition."

They are charged with conspiring to boycott all goods, union or non-union, not made here, in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

"I knew it was going to cost something to prevent labor troubles on the building," Hill said, "so I called Boyle in and put it up to him squarely. He wanted $20,000, but I got him to come down to $20,000."

"I paid him $2000 at intervals, and when the building was completed I had paid him the final installment. All payments were made in currency."

BAD FAITH CHARGED

German Says Detention of Subjects Violates Treaty.

PACT OF 1799 INVOKED

Lokal Anzeiger Editor Asks What Is to Be Expected in Event of War When Laws Already Are Being Disregarded.

BERLIN, Feb. 7. Via London, Feb. 8.—In a prominently displayed leader the Lokal Anzeiger today charges the United States with a breach of treaty obligations, "in compulsorily detaining in America German subjects, who, under the treaty of 1799, are entitled, even in the case of an actual outbreak of war, to pursue their vocations unmolested." Recalling the charges of violation of treaties and the law of nations made against Germany in the earlier days of the war, the Anzeiger continues:

"The breach of diplomatic relations with the United States will probably be made again the occasion for leveling against us charges of breaking treaties and international law in order to mobilize the indignation of the whole world against our shameful acts."

Breach of Treaty Charged. "It is, therefore, not at all an act of supererogation to point out now, while the deed is still fresh, that the United States, in immediately leveling the breach of relations, has been guilty of an unjustified breach of treaty in confiscating German property contrary to treaties between Germany and Germany and condemning German subjects whose profession, in the words of clause 23 of the treaty of 1799, serves the sustenance of the general well of humanity to compulsory detention. This in spite of the fact that the cited article prohibits any molestations of German subjects against our United States, even in the case of war."

Pretext Declared Lacking. "If treaties are thus trodden under foot after a breach of diplomatic relations, when the indignation of the Americans are sincere friends of the German nation is still resounding, what have we to expect if the contingency for which we must be prepared arises and war breaks out?"

"If we cannot prevent a breach of treaty, we must at least call attention clearly, openly and unambiguously to the fact that the United States Government has violated the treaty of 1799 and the general principle of the law of nations before Germany has taken any step which could give the slightest shadow of a pretext for such an action."

CHINESE DIES IN TONG WAR

(Continued From First Page.) North Fourth Street, and others were located in nearby buildings. The dead man wore an empty holster at his hip, and the police believe he was a gunman who had fled from Seattle.

Detective Royle found the clip of cartridges for the dead man's weapon under the steps at 89 North Fourth street, and says the pistol itself was taken from the dead man's body by his friends.

Seattle War Also Forecast.

Thirty Chinese were taken to police headquarters and questioned, but all were released or held on minor charges pending investigation. Chinese friendly to the police say they knew the tong war was to begin tonight, and that it was scheduled also for Seattle, and possibly other Coast cities.

A long-distance call from Seattle was received at Hip Sing headquarters while the police were raiding the place, but in the police say they knew the tong Chinese at the Seattle end of the wire, and refused to let the Chinese talk to him.

Chinese at their native grand opera, in Arion Hall, Second and Oak streets, showed great alarm at reports of the shooting.
