BARD OF AVON NO ROGUE

CRITIC SAYS WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE WAS GENTLEMAN.

University of Oregon Students Also Told Great Poet Earned About $4000 Every Year.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., Feb. 15. —(Special) —William Shakespeare was a gentleman; he was not fabulously rich, and modern drama is not an inheritance of ancient miracle and parable plays. These were assertions made to the students of the university by Dr. Charles William Wallace, Shakespearean critic. Dr. Wallace recently returned from England where he and his wife passed the last 12 years examining 5,000,000 original records. The records show, Dr. Wallace says, that the term gentleman was commonly applied to men in Shakespeare's days whether or not a man had money. This disputes those who have said Shakespeare was a "rogue and vag-

POSTAL RECEIPTS GROW

New Rules Cause Big Gain in Savings Department.

Postal receipts in the Portland Post-office made a gain of approximately 14 per cent during the first 14 days of February over the corresponding period of last year. The total receipts for the period were $49,271.26, a gain of $223.41.

Former Marine Men in Demand.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Feb. 15.—(Special).—Sergeant Young, of the United States marine recruiting station in Lewiston, has received instructions from the War Department at Washington to make an extra effort to enlist the services of all former members of the marine corps. The information which Sergeant Young received was to the effect that the foreign situation was graver than generally believed and that the United States is now especially desirous of securing the services of all former "soldiers of the sea."

RAILROAD AUTO BUS HERE

Vehicle Will Leave Sunday Night for Use on Mount Hood Line.

A new 20-passenger automobile bus that runs on standard railroad tracks, through power derived from gasoline or distillate, was placed on display in the entrance corridors of the Baker Theater last night, where it is to remain until Sunday night. On Monday morning the "rail auto bus" will be run over the O.-W.-R. & N. Company tracks to Hood River, where it is to be placed in service on the Mount Hood Railroad, together with another bus has been operating on the same line for eight months.

Red Cross Car at The Dalles.

THE DALLES, Or., Feb. 15.—(Special).—The American Red Cross car in charge of Dr. E. Green, who has been making an educational tour of O.-W.-R. & N. Company's system, arrived here today and Dr. Green gave lectures on "What to Do Before the Doctor Arrives." The car is being operated under the direction of the department of military relief of the United States Government.

FIREMEN REQUEST HEARING

Six Men Discharged Last Month Deny Charges Against Them.

Six of 15 firemen discharged for various offenses last month filed petitions with the Municipal Civil Service Board yesterday for hearings of the charges against them. Those who have appealed are W. J. Costello, A. T. Martin, Charles Haberlin, discharged for alleged drinking while on duty; C. E. Danalis and Guy H. Parmenter, charged with failure to enforce discipline in the station at Fourteenth and Gilliam streets, and Louis C. Benfield, charged with having contributed to the delinquency of a minor. All the firemen deny the charges against them and ask for a full investigation. They are represented by W. S. U'ren, attorney. Mr. Danalis and Mr. Parmenter have engaged Henry E. McGinn to assist Mr. U'ren.

20 MILLION PEOPLE USE CASCARETS—WHY?

Only True Tonic for Liver and Bowels Costs 10 Cents a Box. Cascarets are a treat! They live your liver, clean your thirty feet of bowels and sweeten your stomach. You get one or two Cascarets like candy before going to bed and in the morning your head is clear, tongue is clean, stomach sweet, breath right, and cold gone and you feel grand. Get a 10 or 25-cent box at any drug store and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Stop sick headache, bilious spells, indigestion, furred tongue, offensive breath and constipation. Mothers should give cross, peevish, feverish, bilious children a whole Cascaret any time.
