MEN ENTERTAIN CLUB

P. E. O. SISTERHOOD ARE GUESTS OF BROTHERS-IN-LAW. Mayor Albee Is Toastmaster at Banquet, Which Is Followed by Dance at Irvington. A reciprocity dinner party was tendered the P. E. O. Sisterhood by the B. I. L.'s, which, interpreted, means brothers-in-law, of the fair members who make up this famous women's club. The banquet, followed later by a dance, was held in the spacious clubrooms of the Irvington Clubhouse at Twenty-first and Thompson streets Wednesday night. It was a big valentine dinner-dance, at which the B. I. L.'s acted as hosts

PUBLIC MORGUE CERTAIN

TWO YEARS' CAMPAIGN BY DR. DAMMASCH SUCCESSFUL. Senate Bill Providing for Levy by County Passed and Ready for Governor's Signature. With the passage of Senate bill 92, providing for salaries and fees in connection with the maintenance of the public morgue, the measure is before Governor Withycombe. In all probability it will be signed and become law, thus ending successfully the two years' fight waged by Dr. Dammasch, of Multnomah County, for an improvement in the conduct of his office without extra expense to the taxpayers. Under the system formerly in vogue

POLICEMEN MUST PAY

SUIT THREATENED BY JITNEYS. Decision Acquits Jitneers of Not Complying With Ordinance Regarding Hourly Rate. By a decision of Municipal Judge Langguth yesterday, two Portland patrolmen must pay drivers of the Chauffeurs' Union for the amounts due according to the posted taxicab rates. If the policemen fail to comply, President Thielke, of the union, declares that they will be arrested for defrauding taxicab drivers. The sum involved is 20 cents. Patrolmen Miller and Wellbrook, in plain clothes, arrested W. E. Coovert and F. A. Vaughn, jitneers, charging
