

IDAHO ANTI-ALIEN BILLS REVIEWED

Measure Is Reintroduced in State Senate After Having Been Killed.

LAWYER'S ACTION IS CAUSE

Legislation Brought Back as Result of Charges That Attorney Said He Brought Pressure on Japanese Embassy and Washington.

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 19.—The anti-alien bill, which was killed by the state Senate February 5, as a result of protests by the Japanese Embassy to the State Department at Washington, was reintroduced in the Senate this afternoon.

Both denied the charges, saying the statements are false and absurd. He has been subpoenaed to appear before the Senate or a Senate committee Wednesday. He has admitted that he transmitted to sell their holdings in Idaho bills in Washington with the state Department that the Japanese Embassy's protest had not resulted from orders from Tokyo, but from the activities of an Idaho attorney, C. M. Booth, who was quoted by the affidavits as having said he had brought pressure to bear on the Embassy and the State Department through a Washington attorney.

The lower house of the Legislature today passed, with only one dissenting vote, a bill providing for the holding of primary elections by mail. Under its terms, ballots would be mailed to registered voters, who would mail their votes back within 30 days to the County Auditor. The votes would be counted by the chairman of the three principal political parties, who would have eight days for the count.

Expense of the present primary system is one objection to it. A bill providing a return to a modified form of the convention system is pending in the Senate.

The lower house today killed a bill for a one-hour legislative session. 21 members meeting throughout the year, also a bill to require applications for marriage licenses to be posted 30 days. An anti-cigarette bill was introduced in the Senate.

The 41st day of the present Legislature faded into history Saturday. At that time 610 bills, joint resolutions, memorials to Congress and concurrent resolutions had been introduced in the two houses. Of these 376 bills appeared in the House and 234 in the Senate. The time limit for the introduction of bills in the House expired Friday. The time limit for bills to be introduced in the Senate will expire Wednesday. Combined there have been 36 joint and concurrent resolutions and memorials to Congress introduced in the House and 23 in the Senate. The House has killed 60 measures.

On the 41st day of the Legislature two years ago 235 bills have been introduced, 50 joint resolutions, and eight concurrent resolutions, in the House. The same relative proportion of measures were introduced in the Senate.

MUD HOLDS PARTY IN GALE

Hood River Man Expresses Opinion of Mosier Grade Road.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Feb. 19.—(Special.)—Returning from Mosier, where a carnival was in session the last three days of the past week, a party of five local young men, when their automobile became stuck in a mudhole just at the crest of the range separating the Hood River Valley from the Mosier district, were forced to spend the remainder of the night facing a gale that reached a velocity of 60 miles an hour. The party was composed of Walter Shay, Earl Weaver, E. Laferly, William Sully and Walter Oser.

"Nearly frozen by the chill of the harsh wind," said Mr. Weber, "you may be sure we expressed an emphatic hope that Hood River County authorities would make an improvement of this Mosier grade road. Wasco County's portion of the road is good."

Painful Pimples Covered Scalp

Itched and Had to Scratch. Came Off in Scales. Kept From Sleeping. Hair Fell Out in Handfuls. Cuticura Completely Healed.

"I had a very severe spell of sickness which caused my scalp to be completely covered with fine pimples. They were very disagreeable, itching all the time and I had to scratch. They came off in scales and were very annoying and painful and kept me from sleeping. Nothing did me good, and my hair fell out in handfuls. I happened to see Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised so I got them. I began to improve and now I am completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. M. J. Butterfield, 400 S. The "Vamp."
Noah Webster says a "vampire" is "a fabulous ghostly being that sucks the blood of the living when they are sleeping," which seems in present-day experience to be a pretty accurate description of the gas meter.

Screen Gossip.
The engagement of Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno, who have been working in Vitagraph productions in Southern California, is reported. Friends of the two, who believe the story of the engagement, point out with trepidation the title of their new feature is "The Long Fight."

Helen Holmes and J. P. McGowan will appear in the Pentagon vaudeville houses in their roles of "A Lass of the Lumberlands."

Beautifully clothed in a $1000 afternoon gown, Mrs. Spottiswoode Atken, wife of a prominent film actor, walked into a Los Angeles store one day last week and drained a one-ounce bottle of chloroform. When her husband rushed to her side at the hospital, where she was taken, Mrs. Atken confessed to him that she was merely working out realistically the climax of a scenario which she was preparing. Mrs. Atken suffered no serious effects from her experiment.

MOUNTAIN'S NAME HALTS LEGISLATION

In Spite of Closing Rush, Senators at Olympia Daily Over Title for Rainier.

CHANGE FINALLY FAVORED

Resolution Adopted by House Asking for Hearing by Federal Board When Argument Can Be Presented Carries.

STATE CAPITOL, Olympia, Wash., Feb. 19.—(Special.)—Although pressing toward the close of the session, the Senate today devoted considerable time on a crowded calendar to debating whether to adopt a resolution already adopted by the House, petitioning the National Geographic Board to change the name of Mount Rainier, Tacoma as a better name is not mentioned, the sense of the resolution being to gain a hearing whereat arguments in favor of Tacoma by Tacoma advocates as a more suitable name may be had. Senator Nichols, of King, led the opposition to any change of name, but the Senate finally adopted the House resolution by a large majority.

Considerable emphasis in the opposition argument was laid on the fact that final approval by the geographic board comes under the Interior Department, the head of which is Franklin K. Lane who, as a Tacoma newspaper man years ago, started the agitation to name the mountain Tacoma. As the matter goes the Legislature of Washington has petitioned the Federal board at Washington, D. C., to change the name from Rainier to one more suitable.

State Board Attacked.
At the hands of Senator Nichols and others, the state board of control was under fire for a part of the afternoon in consideration of a bill appropriating $4884 for payment of outstanding claims incurred in construction of the School for Blind at Vancouver. The contractor to fulfill the contract within the terms, which limited construction expenditure to $75,000. The bill as finally passed is drawn to appropriate the extra amount and make the contractor's bondmen liable to the state for the excess payment if it is possible to collect.

By the action of the Senate today in passing S. B. 42, drugstore dealers generally are placed under a code of strict regulation. Success of the regular medical physicians against drugstore practice this session is indicated by the passage of this bill and introduction under suspension of George Washington Costello, of the House which provides osteopaths with a separate board of examiners. They had been formerly included on the regular state medical state board.

Game Farm Provision Made.
Other bills passed by the Senate today offer a new code on eminent domain for cities and towns, provision for hens for automatic repairs in gas areas, appropriate $35,000 for establishment of a game farm in connection with the state penitentiary.

Senate Reconsiders House Bill 518 and Passes Measure.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 19.—(Special.)—The Senate this morning reconsidered and passed House bill No. 518, which provides for a vote by the people on the question of the construction of a new penitentiary, and which was postponed indefinitely a few days ago. Under the bill $400,000 is appropriated.

Tubers and Onions Soar.
Tacoma Dealers Say They Soon Will Be Kept in Deposit Vaults.

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 19.—(Special.)—Potatoes and onions will be kept in special deposit vaults soon according to predictions of Tacoma dealers.

With another advance of $5 in potatoes today the next thing you know at $9 a ton for Yakimas and $85 for locals, retail dealers predicted a price of $4 a sack in a day or two, the highest price ever paid for potatoes in Tacoma. Onions also are scarce, being quoted at 19 cents a pound, as compared with 4 cents and 5 cents a year ago.

ated, to be paid in four annual tax levies of $100,000 each, provided the bill receives the indorsement of the people. The prison is to be constructed either on its present site or on some other location within this county. The Governor insists that the prison should be on a new site, higher in the hills. The motion for reconsideration was made by Senator Steiwer and round little opposition when an explanation of the bill was made.

IT STOPS CROUP

The safest thing for a scared mother to have on hand for croup is a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops croup by cutting the thick choking membrane and raising the phlegm; by easing the throat tight breathing; by leaving a soothing coating on the inflamed lining of the throat; and stopping the hoarse cough. Mrs. T. Neureiter, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured my boy of a very severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. I recommend it, as we know from our own experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough." Your dealer sells it. Try it.
