Whil in Scattle Joe Flanigan may close with Joe Walsh, of the Lumbermen's Club, for "Muff" Bronson to meet Johnny Kilbane, world's featherweight champion, in Scattle April 5. If he does sign papers to that effect there will be a clause inserted that Bronson will not be forced to meet the great little Clevelander if Kilbane can be induced to appear in Portland April, 12. Walsh announced in Scattle before the Eddle Pinkman-Bronson go here last Friday night that the winner was to get the Kilbane match. "Muff" won and if Walsh goes through with his proposition then the pride of the local fistle colony will be selected.

Levinsky, New York, light-heavyweight, won decisively from Billy Miske, of St. Paul, in a ten-round bout here tonight, newspaper critics at the ringside agreed. Levinsky led in eight rounds, the first was even and Miske had the edge in the tenth. In the first seven rounds and again in the tenth Miske forced the fighting frequently drawing the former into disastrous leads. The finish was fast, with the St. Paul fighter seeking value to square matters with a knockout. In street clothes Miske weighed 182% and Levinsky 188%

Lincoln Buys Two Infielders.

Eddie Brewster Pinkman left for Seattle Monday afternoon. He cut loose with a lot of rather unsportsmanlike "con" before departing, which would lead one to believe that Edward is not the best sport in America. He said that in his past 88 bouts over the country he never received the poor treatment he did in his bout with Muffy Bronson.

All Edde asks is a chance to show Portland fans that he is not afraid of any 133 or 125-pounder on the Coast. He also wishes to have it made known that he did not wish to make a speech at the end of Friday night's six-round setto. All he wanted to say was that he did the best he could, having a badly dislocated thumb on his left hand, which he says he suffered in the first round and which somewhat handlcapped him.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 27.—President Holmes, of the Lincoln baseball club, announced the purchase of Bert Lamb, a third baseman last year with the Tulsa. Okia, team, and John Butler, a shortstop, formerly a Pacific Coast Leaguer. The sale of Pitcher Jack Gardner to the Great Falls team, of the Northwestern League, was also announced. Ray Schmandt, first baseman, and Catcher Rohrer are holding out on the contracts submitted them, it was said.

Sid Mitchell, who meets Nick Simpson, is an Australian who came to the Austin & Sait stable in Seattle about two years ago. As Simpson is an Englishman it will be a case of two of the allies batvling each other when they should be working in harmony.

If Pete Mitchle can keep his chin out of the way of Teddy Meredith's right hand he may defeat the negro blue-jacket. Meredith is always dangerous, Boys like Joe Benjamin and Danny O'Brien, who have excellent left hands, encounter no difficulty in polishing Meredith off, but birds who like the slugging stuff are usually worsted by the battling protege of George Moore.

Joe Clifford and 'Pinky' Lawis, negro Oakiand comedian, will supply the fourth tilt with two more to be arranged.

Joe Flanigan, who has a habit of putting his boys over as winners, left for Seattle last night with Jimmy Duffy tucked under one arm and Weldon Wing handcuffed in his vest pocket. Both are featherweights. Duffy battles Joe Harrahan and Wing takes on Eddie Quinn, of Tacoma, at the Young Men's Hebrew Association's show at the Sound City tomorrow night.
