THE MORNING OREGONIAN, MONDAY, MARCH 5, 1917.

Loc Woven Shopping Bags, with lining to hids 39c 20c Woven Shopping 19c $3.50 and $4.00 $2.49 Handbags at...$1.19 Purses now at...$1.19 75c and $5c Coin 49c 75c assortment Coin 39c sale at. $2.50 Hair Brush $1.49 fore Satisfied Custo $2.50 Hair 51.45 row at. 51.39 Brush now at. 51.39 loc Skat on sale at 19c three for. 10c Flash on sale at 19c OUR LINE OF MOULDINGS Made Every Day by Using the Includes Some KENNEY NEEDLE SHOWER VERY EXQUISITE DESIGNS. Ask anyone who owns one how he likes it. Invariably the answer will be: "I wouldn't be without it." New model—the best yet. Attaches to any bath tub faucet in five minutes. No tools needed. No splashing. Our Workmen Are Experts. BRING THIS COUPON-G 50 EXTRA STAMPS with every cash framing order of $1.00 or more in our Art Dep't, Basement, all this week, March 5 to 10. Complete $7.50 DRUGS TAKE SCIENTIFIC INTERNAL BATHS WITH THE AUTO DAYS SPONGES Rock Island Forms—the kind that are hard to wear out, that stand rough us e and yet are soft and non-scratching. CHAMOIS The best "J. B. L. CASCADE" THE MOST SAFE AND PRACTICAL WAY OF KEEPING CLEAN INTERNALLY. tanned skins, for pol-ishing. Auto $1.75 Size now at. $1.75 Smaller Size $1.50 now at..... Monthly Payments If Desired. Auto Size $2.00 WOOL DUSTERS Made Smaller Size $1.50 cially for 75c Up Woodard, Clar of course, be that it is not so, and that other governments may act as they please without fear that this Govern-ment can do anything at all. We can-not explain. The explanation is in-credible. plans for the new home call for one of the most modern and most serv-iceable community centers on the Pacific Coast. MISS ROBERTA KILLAM, OF PORT-LAND, ENGAGED TO ALASKAN. Only One Remedy Presented. Hats from "The Senate of the United States I the only legislative body in the world Innouncement of Betrothal Is Campus Italy that cannot act when its majority is Surprise of Oregon-Edward Harready for action. A little group of wood Is Bridegroom-to-Be. willful men, representing no opinion but their own, have rendered the great Government of the United States help-Made by the famous Borcelino firm, have been for years UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, ss and contemptible. considered "par excellence" "The remedy? There is but one rem-edy. That is the rules of the Senate shall be so altered that it can act. The Dr., March 4 .- (Special.) - The exchange among extremely critical of a diamond ring and fraternity pin as a climax to a college romance last dressers. ountry can be relied upon to draw the noral. I believe that the Senate can be relied upon to supply the means of the members of Kappa Sigma Frateraction and save the country from disnity and Delta Gamma Sorority celeaster brating the betrothal of Miss Roberta At the same time the President au-At the same time the President au-thorized the further statement that what rendered the situation even more grave than it had been supposed that it Was, was the discovery that, while the President, under his general constitu-tional powers, could do much of what know us! President, under his general constitu-tional powers, could do much of what he had asked Congress to empower him to do, it had been found that there were certain old statutes as yet unrepealed which raised insuperable practical ob-stacles and virtually may nullify his power. Old Law Stands in Way. The old law referred to by the ness. The old law referred to by the President was passed by Congress in have become engaged in the junior -Green, dark gray, pearl, with matched band, pearl with black band and cocoa. 1819 and referred to the resistance of year. Delta Gamma honored their new "brother" today with a dinner and to-morrow the couple will run the gaunt-let of campus congratulations. American merchantmen against the -The war has made it diffibe so attacked "a public armed vessel The news of the betrothal came as a of a nation in amity with the United complete surprise to the friends of the will be all we can expect to principals. receive for several months. Technically Germany is not at war with the United States and subma-rines are "public armed vessels" of CLUB TO DISCUSS PLANS They are now, more than ever, a real hat luxury. Germany. The President's statement followed a conference at the White House be-tween Mr. Wilson, Secretary McAdoo, Topic Wednesday Night -The price remains the same as heretofore-Topic Wednesday Night. Five Dollars Plans for the new Laurelhurst club-Plans for the new Laurelhurst club-house will be informally discussed at a smoker of the men members in the present club rooms at East Thirty-ninth and Ankeny streets on Wednes-day evening of this week. The architects have completed plans for a new building to rise on the site of the present one, and it is hoped to have been more thank to be the Buffum & Pendleton Co. begin actual work early this Spring. The new clubhouse is to cost $40,000 or $50,000, and will be financed by the 127 Sixth Street. 30 easy steps from Wash-

Trading Stamps-An Honest, Money-Saving

Discount Given to All Our Patrons

BAGS AND PURSES

SPECIAL TODAY

-Not long ago a much-traveled New York banker, of National reputation, expressed his surprise that a genuine Borcelino hat could be bought here in Portland. He didn't

-We have just received five colorings of the most attractive soft Borcelinos we have ever shown, all of the most beautiful texture and fine-

cult to get Borcelino orders filled, and this importation ington Street.

F. N. Pendleton.

Winthrop Hammond.

the recognition by the chair of Seenatory to a deak piled with books and papers the deak for deak piled with books and papers the deak for deak piled with books and papers the deak for deak piled with books and papers the deak for deak piled with books and papers the deak for deak piled with books and papers the can afford to be satisfied in the can afford any satisfied in the the can afford to be satisfied in the deat afford to be satisfied in the can afford to be satisfied in the deat afford to be satisfied in the deat afford to be satisfied with the deat in the satisfied in the correct an the floor and his while the deat afford to the satisfied in the deat afford to be satisfied in the correct an the floor afford in the satisfied in the satisfied in the correct an the floor afford in the satisfied in the satisfied in the floor afford to be satisfied in the floor afford to be satisfied in the core afford to be satisfied in men whom he was manipulating. Sometimes he would sit in his chair, planned. men whom he was hin his chair, nodding approval at the poor dupe who was carrying out his plans. Oc-casionally his lips could be seen fash-ioning the word "Good," or the words "That's right." but not a sound eman-ated from him at such limes and so far as the record is concerned, he said nothing. "Ashurst," called the clerk, while La-Foliette frantically appealed for the recognition which he saw was doomed. Ashurst responded with a roaring Aye." The motion carried, 53 to 18. Thus beaten in his plan to talk the bill to death, LaFollette was forced to sit and hear Hitchcock discuss the asure until Congress expired. shortly after nine o'clock this morning prepared to take the center of the stage for the last act of the tragedy. When the moment he had chosen ar-Able Men Made Dupes. It is a pity, a great pity, that able, it honest men lent themselves to the use to which LaFollette put them. There were Clapp, of Minnesota; Cummins and Kenyon, of Iowa; Gronna, of North Dakota; Norths, of Nebraska; Works, of California, Republicans; Kirby, of Arkansas; O'Gorman, of New York; Stone, of Missouri, and Vardaman, of Mississippi, Democrats. LaFollette Renews Objection. Shortly after 11 o'clock Senator Hitchcock proposed an agreement for a vote on the House bill at 11:30. Sen-ator Stone said he objected to the bill, rived he addressed the chair, but Sen-ator Hitchcock prevented his recogniator Stone said he objected to the bill, but not to voting on it. "I object now and will object again as often as the request is made," said Senator LaFollette. "The Senator from Wisconsin is con-stantly violating the rules of the Sen-ate," interjected Senator Williams. "Of course," was the reply. "So sre you—you have not been recognized at all." He then declared his objection again. The forensic struggle which ensued seldom if ever had been equalled in the history of the Senate. Voices were straind to shrieking, threatening fists were shaken at the presiding officer, while the crowded floor and galleries Mississippi, Democrats. On these lies the blame for the fall-ure of the Senate to give the Presi-dent the legislation which, while not absolutely essential, was essential to show Germany, who proposed an alliance with Japan and Mex-ico against the United States, the sol-idarity of the American people. Ken-yon and O'Gorman freed themselves from the record by never opening their mouths; they are in a position to make any public statement they please, even to say they would have voted for the Mississippi, Democrats. looked on breathlessly. But the inci-dent soon passed without violence. The chair recognized Sentor Hitchcock and LaFollette's opportunity was again. "I still desire to be heard," he added. "The Senator has been heard," inter-jected Senator Smith of Georgia, but In the start of the second unanimous consent for a vote on the bill. LaFollette objected. LaFollette dissented. "Did the Senator from Georgia say that that was not true?" asked the Wisconsin Senator, rising again from The Nebraska Senator, prefacing his closing remarks with a portion of President Wilson's address to Congress asking for the authority about to be denied, solemnly said: his seat.

tacks Group of Wilful Men. Who

the Senate.

to say they would have voted for the bill, if political expediency indicates such a statement to be desirable. Nor is their silence surprising to those who is their silence surprising to those who know these men with the exception, perhaps, of O'Gorman But on Ken-yon and O'Gorman rests a responsibili-ty equally as great as that which bur-dens the shoulders of LaFollette and his other tools; for had they favored ty equally as great as that which bur-dens the shoulders of LaFolistic and his other tools; for had they favored the measure there would have been better chance to secure action. If they should ever say to their con-stituents that if the bill had come to a vote they would have supported in stituents that if the bill had come to a vote they would have supported it, those constituents should ask: "Why then, did you not sign the round robin." What are the rules of the United States Senate which make that body impotent and how did La Foilette oper-ate them? Read them carefully: "Rule XIX—No Senator shall inter-rupt another Senator in debate without his consent, and, to obtain such con-

"Yes." "The Senator from Georgia states a falsehood when he says that," LaFollette rejoined.

Senator Smith rose to his feet but smiled and later the two exchanged opinions to the same effect but in dif-ferent and milder language.

country." Senator Hitchcock paused yhile his words echoed through the chamber, La-Foliette stolidy glared toward the Ne-braskan, who presently added that per-haps he should apologize for the vio-lance of his words Objection Maintained to Last. Objection Maintained to Last. The talk was resumed by Senator Hitchcock while Senator La Follette and Senator Norris, his chief Heutenant In the fight, sat and watched. At 11:43 with only 17 minutes of the session remaining, Mr. Hitchcock again pro-posed a unanimous agreement for á vote at 11:45 o'clock. "I object." said La Follette, rising to his feet and smilling. The roll was called under the rules and 88 Senators answered. The clerk read the proposed agreement as the rules required.

"Rule XIX—No Senator shall inter-rupt another Senator in dehate without his consent, and, to obtain such con-sent, he shall first address the presiding such con-sent, he shall first address the president.
"Rule XXI—No request by a Sen-taking of a final vote on a specified taking of a final vote on a specified senate for agreement thereto, until upon a roll call, ordered for the pur-sente for agreement thereto, until upon a roll call, ordered for the pur-sente is present is thus given the same shall optrate as the order of the Senato, but any unanimous consent may be re-voked by another unanimous consent granted in the manner prescribed above upon one day's notice."
"Rule XXI—No request by a Sen-tation for unanimous consent for the senate for agreement thereto, until upon a roll call, ordered for the pur-voked by another unanimous consent.
The defeated senator tak boilt is morning, when most of the Sena-tors would be back in the choakroom-and the time was fixed for 10 o'clock this morning, when most of the Sena-tors would be back in the choakroom-and the time was fixed for 10 o'clock the size of the Senator Hitchcock the 'right to wen was specking. When Senator oven started to take his seat both

"It would not cure the difficulty to night cured 19-year-old Lucile Hamilcall the 65th Congress in extraordinary session. The paralysis of the Senate would remain. The purpose and the spirit of action are not lacking now. The Congress is more definitely united in thought and purpose at this moment, I venture to say, than it has been with-in the memory of any man now in its membership. There is not only the most united patriotic purpose but the objects members have in view are per-fectly clear and definite. But the Sen-ate cannot act unless its leaders are ate cannot act unless its leaders can obtain unanimous consent. Its major-ity is powerless, helpless. In the midst in co-operating with him.

HE more practical bank "connection" for one who is regularly receiving and paying money is the Commercial or Checking Account. It represents banking for both Business and Financial reasons. We feel that the patron gains more conveniences through this department, and that the Northwestern National is afforded greater scope

Resources Over Ten Million Dollars

80 feet by a runaway automobile to-ton of a hip trouble that made her a cripple for 10 years, but the same doctors who discovered the hip correction declared that the young woman prob-ably would die from the injuries she sustained to her skull and spine. She was struck by an automobile that had been left standing on a steep grade and which started on its downward career when some children playing with the steering wheel turned the wheels out from the curb.

Postoffice Messenger Injured.

members. Plans for financing the en-terprise will be formed at Wednesday evening's meeting. The Laurelhurst club now has 500 members on its rolls and has out-grown the present quarters. Tentative

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH CO.

Authorized Sales and Service

Sold on Easy Terms

Complete Stock of Parts THE PACIFIC KISSELKAR BRANCH Broadway at Davis St.

