WASHINGTON, May 3.—Republican Senators on the Senate committee that was defeated in the House today have made it clear that the President has acted in the nature of a sovereign monarch and that it will not be necessary to confederate Congress in extra ordinary measures. They have also made it clear that despite the President's actions, the Senate will not consent to his demands. They have made it clear that they are prepared to use their power to resist any attempt by the President to establish a dictatorship of the United States. They have made it clear that they will not permit the President to unleash his forces against the American people. They have made it clear that they will not permit the President to undermine the Constitution. They have made it clear that they will not permit the President to destroy the Republic.
