'HIP' BILL IS DIFFERENT

MARVELOUSLY STRONG WOMAN AND CLEVER ACROBATS LIKED. "Dancers From Dreamland," Songs of Corn Fields, Skit and Japanese Numbers Are Pleasing.

A novel bill opened yesterday at the Hippodrome Theater, for from the headline Japanese acrobat act to the Japanese who opens the program every number is just a bit different from that to which vaudeville fans are accustomed. A woman with great strength and a keen sense of humor and two skilled acrobats compose Miss Leva's company. They are vigorous, brightly uniformed creatures who present an up-to-the-minute act. Quite as good is the artistic dance number by Jewett and Pendleton, "dancers from dreamland," whose songs are clever and whose Hawaiian dancing really rings true. Aesthetic dancing, Hula Hula numbers and modern dancing are combined in their lively stepping act. The girl is statuesque and lovely and quite clever. Loud applause and burst of sunshine heralds the Indiana boys, Ogden and Benson, whose own songs of the corn fields and Southland are the hit of the bill. Good voices and a talented pianist bring the act above par. Also likable is Jack Barton with the Schubert sisters and his "Get the

I. W. W. AND FOE FIGHT

Abe Lawrence and Pickett at Coffee-House Arrested. Abe Lawrence, rough-and-tumble fighter of much fame in the North End district, appeared again in Municipal Court yesterday morning after a lapse of some months. He was charged with drunkenness, his arrest having been occasioned by a clash with an I. W. W. picket at the Northwest Coffee-House at Second and Burnside streets. The defendant testified that his potatoes made memory difficult, but others related the scene with which he had greeted the picket. Lawrence's rough but caustic opinion of the I. W. W. was so freely given that the picket struck at him. Patrolmen Odale and Elliott edged into the haze of flailing arms and struggling legs, making both picket and critic captives of the law. A disorderly conduct charge against Fred Owens was continued.

W. DEL. GIFFARD ENGAGED

News has just reached Portland friends of Captain Walter de Longville Giffard telling of his engagement to Miss Ella Cammel, of London. Miss Cammel is a sister of Mrs. Frank Wilder, who was, until two years ago, a resident of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Wilder sold their properties here and sailed for London, the former to enter the service of His Majesty, and the latter, British Red Cross work. Mr. Wilder lost his life at the front, and his widow has continued in the Red Cross work. During Mr. and Mrs. Wilder's residence here, Miss Cammel visited them, and Mr. Giffard's devotion to the charming English girl at that time called forth chaffing among their intimates. Miss Cammel also has been devoting the past few years to hospital work in England, and the romance of the young folk flourished. Captain Giffard's regiment was transferred from Saloniki early in February, and he was given a furlough, which he passed at his home in London. It was then the announcement of the engagement was made. Plans for the wedding have

MRS. E. A. ANDERSON DIES

Mrs. Esther Annetta Anderson, wife of Axel L. Anderson, passed away at her home, 320 Woodward avenue, Thursday morning at 5 o'clock after a long illness.
