Drs. Mackenzie and Roberg Deplore Attacks on Proposed County Institution-Free Dispensary's Value Is Told.

The almost total lack of the pro-tection of the health of Oregon's chil-dren was pictured in half a dozen speeches yesterday afternoon at the labrary before the Social Workers' Club.

Club.

Among the most stinging arraignments of those who are responsible for the improper care of the state's school-children were delivered by Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie and Dr. David N. Roberg, secretary of the State Board of Health. Dr. Mackenzie deplored the attitude of certain individuals and organizations in attacking his scheme for the building of a big county hospital, and asserted that it would be but an extension of the present free dispensary now operated through the co-operation of public and private enterprise, where more than 3000 individuals had been given more than 6000 treatments during the past year. the past year.

the past year.

Dr. Mackenzie said that he considered the free dispensary now being operated at Fourth and Jefferson streets the most practical and the most effective charity.

Injudicious Enting Hit. Dr. Mackenzie asserted that although temperance and prohibition had elimi-nated much of the disease, it was just as important that judicious eating be practiced. It was his opinion that in-judicious eating caused as much disease as drinking.

Judicious esting caused as much disease as drinking.

Dr. Roberg was strong in his attack on "ignorant and arrogant" people who had attacked the county hospital scheme. He said the people were cutting their own throats in defeating the plan, for only through dispensaries of that sort and through intensive scientific investigation could the remedial Diseasures for the cure of diseases be discovered and the treatment of indigent cases be carried on.

"The last Legislature appropriated $45,000," said Dr. Robers, "for the advertisement of Oregon. Yet it deems valueless a scheme for the protection of human life. It would be injudicious, I presume, for those who are to advertise Oregon to say that this state spent but 2 cents a year per capita for the protection of the health of its citizens.

human lives valueless? "I have gone to many parts of the state and asked parents if the births of their children were registered. They say 'no,' and seem to think there is no value in keeping statistics of that sort. But when a farmer points to a cow it is with the greatest pride that he shows you the registry and pedigree."

Public School Record Good. Dr. Abele, of the City Health Bureau, teld of the work being done among the school children of the city, and made a comparison with the health of public and private schools. Owing to the medi-cal inspection, he said, the public schools showed better health records. Dr. Chance asserted that the city should have a central dental clinic where the city's children of indigent parents could be treated. He gave defails of an experiment carried on in the Buckman School, where a class of 40 schoolars is been given tests. scholars is beng given tests.

or deform is the underlying theme of the new William Fox photoplay. "Sister Against Sister," which is being screened at the Majestic Theater with Virginia Pearson in the headline role. It's a story of much melodramatic action, mystery and love.

Miss Pearson plays a dual role, that of sisters, Katherine and Anne. They are parted when their poor, but respectable parents separate after a petty family quarrel. Katherine goes with her father and is dragged rapidly to the bottom of the social pit; the father is killed in a salcon row and the girl thrown into the slums. Anne lives under the refining influence of her mother.
