FIRST SHOT LAID

Deputy Sheriff Says Invaders Aboard Vessel Fired When Officers Would Parley.

Wash., last November 5 between mem-bers of a free-speech expedition, sent bers of a free-speech expedition, sent there aboard the vessel by the Seattle headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World, and members of a Sheriff's posse on the dock.

This was the testimony of Harry W. Shaw, a member of the posse, at the trial in the Superior Court here today of Thomas H. Tracy, who is alleged to have been one of the leaders of the expedition and who is charged specifically with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Jefferson Beard, one of the posse.

Two of the Sheriff's posse and five of the party on the boat were killed. Tracy is the first of 74 members of the expedition accused of murder in connection with the shooting to be connection with the shooting to be

Shots Fired During Parley.

Shots Fired During Parley.

Shots Fired During Parley.

Shaw testified that as Sheriff McRae was trying to address the men on the Verona, which had tied at the dock, three shots, followed quickly by a volley, were fired by persons aboard the craft.

The witness said that he saw the Sheriff stagger and heard him say, "They've got me," and that the woulded officer drew his revolver and returned the fire of his assailants. Then, Shaw said, other members of the posse began firing and that the other side of the vessel and that this caused it to list badly. He saw several of those aboard fall as if they had been shot.

At this juncture Shaw tastified he shot.

At this juncture, Shaw testified, he went to the assistance of Deputy Sheriff Beard, who was lying wounded on the dock, and immediately took him and another wounded member of the posse to a hospital. The witness said he did not return to the wharf after going to the hospital.

J. F. Albright Removed for Sheriff Cantloned Men.

In recounting the incidents leading up to the battle, Shaw said that the previous day handbills had been circulated advertising a "free speech" meet ing on the streets, against which there was a city ordinance, and that it was reported a number of speakers and sympathizers carrying arms were com ing from Seattle.

He testified that early in the after necessary, and the order was carefully obeyed. Shaw testified.

As the boat neared the dock men in

As the boat neared the dock men in the bow were singing and shouting. When it drew alongside, Sherik McRae shouted: "Who is your leader, boys" Several men replied loudly: "We are all leaders, by Godi". The 'manner of the men was belligerent. The Sheriff held his "The hell we can't," came in a chorus from the boat. The Sheriff held his "The hell we can't," came in a chorus from the boat. The Sheriff held his raised in the air while he addressed the visitors. Then the shots came from the boat.

As the boat neared the dock men in the bow were singing and shouting. After spending the night in the City John he course of Billingsley's testimony he brought out that he was in the habit of carrying around piles of drunkenness, John F. Albright, Councilman from the First Ward, was expelled from his seat in the Council was belligerent. The Sheriff held his The hell we can't," came in a chorus from the boat. The Sheriff held his word, with the word against him was unanimous. E. B. Andrews, representing the Third ward, did not vote owing to the fact that his seat is questioned.

The resolution adopted made it clear that because Albright has attended meetings of the Council while intoxi
The resolution adopted made it clear that because Albright has attended meetings of the Council while intoxi
The resolution adopted made it clear that because Albright has attended meetings of the Council while intoxi-

Boys Tell of Father's Death.

Earlier in the day Lester and Chester
Beard, 22-year-old twin sons of Deputy law with considerable frequency the Sheriff Beard, described their father's death and identified his bullet-marked clothing, and Doctors William O. Copps, H. P. Howard and W. E. West, of Everett, testified as to the fatal nature of the bullet wound, which resulted in Mr. Beard's death.

The Albright affair, which came to a Beard's death.

the builet wound, which resulted in Mr. Beard's death.

Prosecuting Atorney Black, of Snohomish County, made the opening address this morning. Mr. Black said the state would show that Tracy was a leader in the shooting, a builet from his pistol being among the first fired. He expialed that the City Council of Everett had passed an ordinance prohibiting street meetings in the crowded business part of Hewitt avenue, but had permitted several meetings at other places, including the City Park, which were attended by large numbers of persons.

"It was not therefore for the purpose of obtaining free speech that the City Park is a state of talk in Oregon City for several the recent City for several the recent City and the recent City attorney row, which has now been settled, it was forced to retire upstage for a time while the other affair took the limelight. But this was due to the fact that Albright stayed sober for a time and did not clash with the police.

The Albright affair, which came to a head today, has been the chief subject of talk in Oregon City for several city and to evaluate the recent City.

**Story Declared Logn.**

Ex-Sheriff Hodge ws: connected with the alleged conspiracy by testimony reverting to the tire Logan Billings-reverting to the tire Logan Billings-reverting to the tire Logan Billings-reverting to the tire Logan Billings-leventing to the tire Logan Billings-leventing to the tire Logan Billings-reverting to the tire Logan Billings-leventing to the tire Logan Billings-reverting to the tire Logan Billings-reverting to the tire Logan Billings-leventing to the tire Logan Billings-reverting to the tire Logan Billings-leventing to the tire Logan Billings-leventing to the tire to constitute the plevent that followed certain real manufactures.

Ex-Sheriff Hodge ws: Connected with t of obtaining free speech that I, W. W. went to Everett." he said.

MRS. YEON GETS $30,000

ENTIRE ESTATE OF MRS. FARRELL EXCEPT $250 LEFT TO NIECE.

Kindness Is Rewarded but Rumor Says Benefleinry Will Not Abide By Terms of Will.

Mrs. John B. Yeon is virtually sole their to the $30,000 estate of the late Mrs. Anna E. Farrell, widow of W. L. Farrell, pioneer Oregonian, by terms of the will filed for probate in the THR County Court yesterday. Mrs. Yeon is a niece. Two brothers, four sisters and another niece are given $1 each.
Carrying out the request of her husband, Mrs. Farrell bequeathed $250 to the Good Samaritan Hospital. All the residue of the estate goes, by terms of and sympathetic care of this niece, Mrs. Farrell determined to show her gratitude by leaving her estate to her, even though it meant practically no provision for brothers and sisters.

It was rumored yesterday that Mrs.
Yeon might seek other distribution of Mrs. Farrell's estate among relatives. as Mr. Yeon is a man of wealth.

The brothers and sisters who were bequeathed $1 each in the will drawn up in 1914 are Milton Sunderland, Albert Sunderland, Mrs. Lydia Lott, Mrs. Rose Lupton, Mrs. Harriet Paddock and Mrs.

Mrs. Farrell died March 1, at the age of 72 years. The property consists of about $12,000 in cash and the rest in Oil pressed from copra, the dried meat of coccanuts, is rapidly replacing ani-mal fats in the manufacture of artifi-gial butters in Europs.

BOLD LOCHINVAR OF SIX MONTHS AGO IS IN SUICIDE'S GRAVE NOW

Melodramatic Death of Antone Teresi Reveals Romance in Little Italy, Where 16-Year-Old Bride Is Left Widow.

BY BEN HUR LAMPMAN.
O FLOUT parental authority and steal away the pretty daughter of the household is a device often loyed by romanticists. Antone est tried it in real life. And that this, say his mourning friends, that drove his auto truck over a steep wednesday morning at the foot Wednesday morning at the foot Grand avenue, and died a suicide.

1907 Antone sailed from Italy to Teresi tried it in real life. And that is why, say his mourning friends, that he drove his auto truck over a steep

SPEECH ISSUE IS DENIED

SPEECH ISSUE IS DENIED

SPEECH ISSUE IS DENIED

Speech is auto truck over a steep aliff Wednesday morning at the foot of Grand avenue, and died a suicide. In 1907 Antone sailed from Italy to New York, and within a few days was reunited with his parents, already prospering as produce dealers in this city. They lived at 705 Woodworth a venue, Domenico Teresi, the father, his mother and an elder brother. Antone became a produce peddler. He was lame and slight of stature, but after a year or two he looked hopefully about for a helpmeet of his own people. Little Tanina Lobue, the winsome daughter of a neighbor, was but a romping 7-year-old patron of the movies when Antone Teresi came to Portland. She was destined to wed well, said Fillipo and his wife, for had not her father earned and saved much money as a street peddler of vegetables and fruit?

Parental Objections Met.

Parental Objections Met.

One day Tanina grew up, overnight t seemed. The amazed and delighted Antone paid court to the pretty daugh-ter of the Lobues. "She is not for you," the father told him, sketching in terms beyond mistake the financial Yet Tanina, engrossed with her first affair, and swept away by the impetuous arder of the suiter, still listened to him, and dared the displeasure of her parents. "Leave them," counseled the pleading Antone, "and come with me. When we return they must surely forgive us."

Six months ago, so the story is told, Fillipo Lobue flew into a towering rage on a certain memorable morning. His daughter, the lovely Tanina, for whom he had hoped so much and planned greatly was gone with an of Antone Teresi.

Continued Drunkenness.

manded a jury trial.

His case will come up before City
Recorder Loder Monday at 2 o'clock.
Albright will be represented by J. E.

Hedges, who appeared before the Council and made a plea in Albright's

Albright was recently fined $50 by Mr. Loder when he was convicted of driving his big seven-passenger auto-mobile while intoxicated. Mr. Loder

THREAT LAID TO PASTOR

tion Mr. Tucker sought to bring out the number of times Billingsley had been arrested in Oklahoma. He inquired how many times by actual count he had been

"Is that correct, and if not, what is

When Logan, telling of an alleged street, near East Sixteenth.

Yet the produce business refused to prosper, and the husband's roseate pledges to his bride seemed ever so far away. So distant, in truth, that he sought his mother and told her of his despondency. "I am a failure," he said, "and shall never be able to care for

"and shall never be able to care for Tanina as she was cared for."

"All foolishness!" his mother cheered him. "Why should you grieve about it. If you do not make money this year, I think that we, and Tanina's father, will be able to ald you."

"I will not ask them," sullenly declared her son. "Sometimes I think that I shall kill myself."

"All foolishness!" repeated his mother, bustling about her kitchen.

a parents and weathered the dare entered the grade and rebuke. "What are ing to do about it?" asked the courthouse."

The funeral of the young man was be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the be laid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury.

Though friends advised that the belaid before the grand jury was his friend.

He said he thought so. I told him for a naval base.

It was voted overwhelminsly to submit to the people of Astoria the question of authorising a bond issue of up to $75,000. If necessary, to meet the situation of the property of the Hammond Lumber Company to the city of Astoria.

This would permit of condemnation of the property of the Astoria and the place of the view of the property of the proper

A letter from Mike Hally, then campaign manager for Hodge, suggesting that Logan Billingsley be requisitioned for much-needed campaign expense provoked a tendency toward mirth. In the course of Billingsley's testimony he brought out that he was in the habit of carrying around piles of $100 bills. OREGON CITY, March 9 .- (Special.)

"Yes, I think there are—several."
The crush of persons trying to get into the already crowded courtro reached the proportions of a riot after the noon recess. Deputy United States the noon recess. Deputy United States Marshals called in police to aid them in handling the crowd. Two women fainted. At the afternoon session Judge Neterer warned the spectators he would clear the courtroom if there were repetitions of outbursts of laugh-

Blanchard and Night Officer French, this morning pleaded guilty and took a sentence of $25 and 25 days in jall.

Albright pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial.

His case will come

He told of lending the then Sheriff Hodge $500 at the County Jail. "He told me he was short and he wanted it understood this wasn't graft attempted to withhold the machine from Albright's use, but was unable to do more than keep Albright out of it until he paid his fine.

GERMAN MOTHERS DESPERATE. LONDON HEARS.

Before he was arrested he drove the machine onto the sidewalk in front of the Grand Theater as the result of a Member of Prussian Diet Said to Have Declared Food Situation Is More Serious Than Admitted.

ragmentary reports of the remarkable debate in the Prussian Diet on the food crisis have been printed in the German newspapers," says a Reuter's dispatch from Amsterdam. "The Vofwaerts contains the following passage from the speech of Herr Hofer (a Socialist member of the Prussian Diet):
""Thus mortality among alderiv residue of the estate goes, by terms of the will, to Mrs. Yeon.

For 15 years, since the beginning of the critical illness of Mr. Farrell in 1902, Mrs. Yeon had been a close friend of Mrs. Farrell. She assisted the elderly woman in many ways and during the latter years of her life Mrs. Farrell was attement showing a number of arrests where, owing to the decreased powers in Oklahoma.

many times by actual count he had been arrested. The following passage from the speech of Herr Hofer (a Socialist member of the Prussian Diet):

"Think I've been arrested more times than your records will show," was his reply, and later the defense obtained from him identification of a typewritten statement showing a number of arrests where, owing to the decreased powers of resistance. The situation is much The situation is much more serious than admitted. The num-ber of suicides is increasing and par-

"Is that correct, and if not, what is the matter with it?" asked Mr. Tucker.
"It seems to be correct but it's a trifle short," answered the witness.
$4000 Put on Table, Says Witness.
This was a day of thrills in Federal Judge Neterer's court, completing the fourth day of the trial of Mayor
Cill and others. ents are killing their children owing to their inability to obtain food for them. "Yet the price of potatoes, which long ago became generally scarce, is to be increased."

When Logan, telling of an alleged conversation in the office of the Chief of Police on the afternoon of August 30 last, said: "I put $4000 on the table, and the Mayor took it and put it in his pocket," he furnished an unexpected thrill. As he said it he thrust forward his jaw and extended an index finger toward the jury and spoke in a concise, matter-of-fact tone. The Mayor laughed outright and shook his head.

But when Logan gave other purported information to the jury he brought about moments of tenseness not anticipated. For instance, in the afternoon he remarked:

"I went to see the Mayor—I don't re-

FIGHT FOR BASE

Mr. Harley Determined Greed of Property-Owners Shall Not Defeat Project.

PRICE IS HELD EXORBITANT

Desired Land to City, so as to clared her son. "Sometimes I think that I shall kill myself."

"All foolishness:" repeated his mother, bustling about her kitchen.
Sometime Monday, or possibly Tuesday, Antone Teresi took out the stub pencil with which he figured his dwindling accounts, and wrote with labored accuracy a finis to his affairs and a farewell to Tanina.

Doubt About Note Dispelled.
"Not being able to support my family." he wrote without preamble, "I kill myself. Tony Teresi."

And Wednesday morning, at an hour

And Wednesday morning, at an hour

And Wednesday morning, at an hour

The control of the property assessed.

The owners in question, however, have declined even to consider a proposal by Mr. Harley that their price And Wednesday morning, at an hour before dawn, he twisted the steering wheel of his auto-truck toward the verge of the cliff that fronts the Oregon Water Power right of way, near the Inman-Poulsen Lumber Company's yards and urged it to the plunge, One hundred and fifty feet below, the auto-truck crashed to wreckage. No less complete was the unwitnessed finish of Antone Terest.

"Question was raised of the authenticity of the suicide note," commented Attorney M. G. Montrezza yesterday, "His brother, Domenico Terest, told the Sheriff that Antone could neither read nor write. That is not true and he has since admitted his mistake. The writing is identical with the signature upon Antones declaration, at an hour bound declined even to consider a proposal by Mr. Harley that their price of $75,000 he cut to $37,500, which, he says, would be more than a good price for their holdings. The owners of the property under consideration by the Government, comprising about 244 acres of Toronton Torogue Point, are the Hammond Lumber Company, Columbia Land & Investment Company and V. and H. G. Van Dusen.

Several hundred Astoria citizens attended a mass meeting at the Astoria Theater Wednesday night, at which Mayor Harley told how the naval base was in danger because of the unreasonable price demanded of the Government.

Purchase by City Favored.

Second Floor

Purchase by City Favored.

witness that at the time of the famous Billingsley "clean-slate agreement with the Mayor," so-called, the Mayor, as a member of the law firm of Gill, Hoyt "I cannot understand the attitude of & Frye, also had settled a civil suit brought by the widow of Policeman Weedin, who was killed at a Billingsley "clean-slate acrea with the Mayor, as a member of the law firm of Gill, Hoyt "I cannot understand the attitude of any man who at such a critical period as this would deliberately take advantage of the need of a naval base to demand so exorbitant a price for the land required," said Mr. Harley.

Much of Tract Under Water. "This is a time when we are all asked to 'stand by the Government.' We should stand by the Government. On so vital a matter as the National defense it seems unbelievable that any

"Much of this land is of such character that a man would need a diving suit to go on it. Only 110 of the 244 gares is upland property, most of the remainder being submerged. If the point were pressed I am not sure that point were pressed I am not sure that to force an adjournment sine die will take point were pressed I am not sure that to force an adjournment at 11 o'clock to gowners anything for it, for there is plenty of legal contention to the effect that such land belongs to the Government.

Situting the old convention system, the delegates to which had passed the Senate and came before the House under suspension of the rules, as well as its author, Senator Evans, of Power County.

"I don't like the label on that bill," he declared, "and I hope the House were nearer together today. A compromise is possible over the down."

Johnston, of Bingham, took Moody to task for attacking personally the author of any bill in either the House or the Senate. It carries a total of $45,000 and some."

Johnston of any bill in either the House or the Senate. It carries a total of $45,000 and some."

Owners' Policy Scored

"It is just such a dog-in-the-manger policy as these landholders are main-taining that is holding Oregon back and retarding its development. any wonder that people with money hesitate to invest here when at a time of National peril property-owners will demand $75,000 for land needed for a naval base as part of the National de-fense of Oregon, and of the Pacific Coast, that is assessed at only $9930?" Mayor Harley has received a letter from Rear-Admiral J. M. Helms U. S. N., senior member of the Commission on Navy-vards and Naval Stations, relative to the Astoria naval base

The commission twice visited Astoria The commission twice visited Astoria a few months ago, in the course of a trip of inspection of desirable Navyyard and naval base sites, to look over the proposed site at Tongue Point. While it has not yet reported, owing to the difficulties about obtaining the land its online is known to be favorland, its opinion is known to be favor-able provided the site can be obtained at a fair price.

Rear-Admiral Helms in his letter to Mayor Harley takes official cognizance of the discrepancy between the assessed valuation of the property and the $75,000 price demanded for it. Astoria Press Criticizes.

"In this connection," reads his comment, "the commission notes that the ratio of assessed to true values, used by the County Assessor in preparing tax lists, does not hold in the case of the Tongue Point property. It was to clear up such uncertainties and to determine the reasons therefor that intermine the reasons therefor that inquiries contained in reference (d) were addressed to you."

Mayor Harley has been severely criticised for taking the fight for the naval base to papers outside of As-"An Astoria paper has ripped me u

the back for giving out statements to other newspapers," said the Mayor, "I take the attitude that this naval base is not an Astoria matter alone, but a matter of the most vital import to the whole of Oregon, and more than that, whole of Oregon, and more than that, to the whole Pacific Coast and the whole United States.

"There is at present no naval base between Puget Sound and San Francisco. Without bases where vessels may put in for repairs and overhauling, our Navy would be terribly handicapped in time of war. We must prepare, and as part of any adequate prepare, and as part of any adequate preparation, there must be a base between Puget Sound and San Francisco. The Columbia River is the logical point for such a naval base.

"I shall continue this fight until we win. The people of Astoria realize the atuation and are with me."

J. W. Hobbs Declines Nomination EUGENE, Or., March 9.—(Special.)—
J. W. Hobbs, nominated at a mass meeting. Wednesday night, as a candidate for City Recorder, has announced that he will not accept the nomination. R. S. Bryson, incumbent, is the only candidate in the field.

For that boy of yours: New Norfolk Suits $6.50

—These are new suits, just received; the styles are correct, and the colorings are suited to the Spring season.

—The suits are made from fabrics woven especially for the purpose of keeping active, healthy boys appropriately clothed. Every suit has two pairs of knickers, thus lengthening by many weeks its period of good service. On display Saturday.

OTHER NORFOLK SUITS $5 TO $16.50

ADJOURNMENT IS SET FOR TOMOR

by One Vote in House After Hot Battle Over Compensation Act.

Automatic Safety Signals

Good reasons why

Protecting every foot of the way to Chicago.

1140 Miles of Double-Track Highest type of road-bed construction.

Top-Notch Trains Through Sleeping-Cars and Diner to Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, Denver.

Columbia River Route East

Parallels America's Greatest Highway through the famous gorge, between road and river.

UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM

JOINS WEST AND EAST WITH A BOULEVARD OF STEEL CITY TICKET OFFICE, Washington at Third Street.
Broadway 4500, A-6121.
Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent, Portland.

tion measures were disposed of by that body. The House featured its session by defeating by one vote the Sen-smaller state department appropria- like it or not," tartly replied Moody. The majority leader and Evans have had differences over the workmen's compensation act.

The primary bill eliminated the di-

BOISE, Idaho, March 9.—(Special.)—

The Legislature was unable to adjourn today owing to the unsettled ate bill proposing abolishment of the statewide primary.

The Legislature was unable to adjoint Leader Moody attacked the stituting the old convention system, primary abolishment bill which had the delegates to which were to be ROM THE sunny orange groves of the Southland, this message goes forth to you! Eat an orange on Saturday, March 10th-National Orange Day. Have plenty of oranges for everybody.

The Southern Pacific Diners will serve oranges in many ways on this day. As a public servant to the great Pacific Coast Fruit Industry, this road has aided in an economic distribution of oranges throughout the fand.

Take a trip down to Southern California. where every day is orange day.

City Ticket Office 131 Fourth Street John M. Scott General Passenger Agent

