Just Arrived—Some New
Burella Cloth Suits

$32.50

ONE ILLUSTRATED

"Burella" is one of the most popular fabrics of the season. It is suitable for all kinds of men's suits, between a homespun and an old-fashioned buckskin weave, it is a weight and texture particularly suited to spring and summer wear. By the simple method of weaving it the material is toughened. The natural color is a grayish blue, and the material is very soft. The lining of the coat adds a pretty feminine touch—it is in Pepper design in shades of tan and gold. The buttons are of black.

This is but one of the hundreds of new burella suits moderately priced at $32.50.
