LANE AGAIN VOTES "NO"

Secretary McAdoo was on the floor during the last few hours of the de-

Works, the remaining three, retired to it is war.

private life at the end of the last ses- "I cannot vote against war," Sena-

82 Loyal Ones Listed.

The vote follows:

For the resolution (Democrats)— Ashurst, Beckham, Broussard, Cham-Culberson, Fletcher, Gerry, Hardwick, Hitchcock, Hughes, Husting, James, Johnson of South Dakota, Jones of New Mexico, Kendrick, King, Kirby, Lewis, McKeller, Martin, Myers, Overman, Owen, Phelan, Pittman, Pomerene, Ramsdell, Reed, Robinson, Saulsbury, Shafroth, Sheppard, Shields, Simmens, Smith of Arizons, Smith of Georgia, Smith of South Carolina, Swanson, Thompson, Trammell, Under-wood, Walsh, Williams. Total, 43.

Swanson, Thompson, France, Wood, Walsh, Williams. Total, 43.

Republicans—Borah, Brady, Brandegee, Caider, Colt, Cummins, Curtis, Dillingham, Fall, Fernald, France, Frelinghuysen, Gailinger, Hale, Hardins, Johnson of California, Jones of Washington, Kellogg, Kenyon, Knox, Lodge, McCumber, McLean, Nelson, New, Page, Penrose, Poindexter, Sherman, Smith of Michigan, Smoot, Sterling, Sutherof Michigan,

Absent or paired—Bankhead, Goff. Gore, Hollis, Newlands, Smith of Mary-to Senator Gore, Senator Reed an-nounced merely that he was absent because of iliness.

House Accepts Senate Bill.

In offering the Senate resolution as a substitute for its own, the House foreign affairs committee today submitted a long report reviewing the history of submarine warfare and America's cause of iliness.

History was absent be-buffed, strike with the gentle hand of a woman."

He recited the sinking of various most merciful war is that which comes harred-zone decrees as "tyranny and arrogance."

"We have almost forgotten the things worse for a nation than was the cause of the submarine was a substitute for its own, the House formatically we rear and then, rebuffed, strike with the gentle hand of a woman."

He recited the sinking of various was the recited was a woman. The must be no weak, hesitating war. The must be no weak, hesitating war. The must be no weak, hesitating war is that which comes a woman."

He recited the sinking of various was the recited the sinking of various was the recited that all we must fight for all we are worth. It must be no weak, hesitating war. The word was the recited the sinking of various was the recited that all we must fight for all we are worth. It must be no weak, hesitating war. The woman was the recited the sinking of various was the recited the sinking of various was the recited the sinking of various was the recited that the recited the sinking of various was the recited the sinking of various wa submarine warfare and America's wrongs of the past in the outrages of the protests against it, German in-

"The conduct of the imperial German government toward this Government, its citizens and its interests, has been so discourteous, unjust, cruel, barbarous and so lacking in honesty that it has constituted a violation of the course of conduct which should obtain between friendly nations.

"No one is more conscious than I that Senator Lodge, ranking Republican of the course of conduct which should obtain between friendly making war on call nations. We do not enter upon this war to settle and not receive the course of conduct which should obtain between friendly making war on call nations. We do not enter upon this war to settle and not receive the course of conduct which should obtain between friendly making war ground the course of the cour commerce and German colonies almost in her grasp; Russia wants Constantinople, and Germany, besides her place in the sun, wants to dominate Europe, "We, of all nations, will spend our treasure and our blood and sacrifice our lives without the thought or possibility of gain. We are going to war to yindicate our honor and independ-House Will Act Today—Capitol

Silent When Momentous Question Is Carried—Stirring

Debate Lasts All Day.

Solidicate our honor and independence as a great nation, and in defense of humanity. Such quarrel as we have with Germany is not of our choosing. It was forced upon us, and we did much to avoid it. For nearly three years the President, Congress and the American people have hoped to avoid (Continued From First Page.)

of German interests in this country, had been present.

Secretary McAdoo was on the floor

American people have noped to avoid it. But one desperate act by the imperial German government has followed another. I do not mean to say Germany has desired war with us. I do not believe that. But the imperial German government has been desperate and has taken desperate chances."

American people have noped to avoid it. But one desperate act by the imperial forman interests in this country, had been present. American neutrality, the Senator said, had first been shocked by the invasion of Belgium, then the sink-ing of the Lusitania almost caused Applause Is Lacking.

As the last name was called and the clerk answered the vote, 82 to 6, there was hardly a murmur of applause.

The great crowd was awed by the solemnity of the occasion and sobered by the speeches they had heard.

Ing of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war. He said, however, he did hot consider that Germany had violated any pledges she gave after the sinking of the Lusitania almost caused war.

I have been bitterly opposed to war.

I have used my influence to that end.

Even when I knew the people were rule that under no circumstances and against the resolution were members of the group of 12 which defeated the armed neutrality bill at the last session. There was no attempt to filibuster this time, however, and most of the 13 hours of debate was consumed by champions of the resolution.

Of the other six opponents of armed neutrality, Senators Cummins, Kenyon and Kirby voted for the resolution tonight. Senators O'Gorman, Clapp and Works, the remaining three, retired to

It is war.

"I cannot vote against war," Senator Hitchcock concluded, "without doing a vain and foolish thing. It would only serve to weaken my country in the face of the enemy and the world when war is inevitable. I am ready now to take my place with those who will back up the President for the honor and protection of the Nation."

Senator Hitchcock spoke only about 20 minutes, and was followed by Senator Swanson, of Virginia, who said the German government "has repeatedly and grossly violated its treaty obligations to us and wantonly broken solemn assurances."

"The issue is not peace or war," declared Senator Swanson. "War has al-

"The issue is not peace or war," de-clared Senator Swanson. "War has al-ready been declared upon us. The is-sue is whether we shall accept war or abject and cowardly submission."

nish those supplies."

Most Germans Thought Loyal.

upon half-heartedly. If we fight at all

Senator Lodge, referring to the Pres-

Doctrine. Now is the time to teach this mischler-making German govern-ment that our territorial sovereignty cannot be made a subject of war bar-solemn voice of a resolute people?"

"No," he answered. "Congress will not by cowardly action declare that of submarine warfare and America's futile protests against it, German intrigues and bomb plots in this country, the effort to ally Japan and Mexico against the United States and the mistreatment of American officials and citizens in Germany.

"It is with the deepest sense of responsibility of the momentous results which will follow the passage of this resolution," said the report, "that your committee reports it to the House, with the recommendation that it be passed

"The conduct of the imperial German government toward this Government, its citizens and its interests, has been consulted."

Time Not One for Debate.

"National degeneracy is worse; national cowardice is worse. The division of our people into race groups, striving that unless American rights are upheld course of the United States in the interests of some other "What else can Germany do to wage and out the country when we should have but one alliance, one hope and one tradition—all these dangers have been gathering about us and darkening the horizon during the last three years. Whatever suffering and misery war may bring, it will at least sweep these foul things away. It will unify us into one National patriotism now strikes for each of us in our hour of work and responsibility."

Time Not One for Debate.

op—Senator John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi. Below—Senator La Fol-lette, of Wisconsin.

been in a propaganda to foster war "I am most emphatically and sincerely opposed to taking any step that will force this country into the useless and senseless war," said Senator Norand senseless war," said Senator Nor-ris. "But I shall not permit my feelings o interfere with bringing success and ictory to American arms." Norris cited loans to the allies as a uge American interest in the war's

"Through these instrumentalities and Through these instrumentalities and of others who expected to make millions more if our country can be drawn in, a large number of the great newspapers and news agencies of the country have been controlled and enlisted in the greatest propaganda that the world has ever known to manufacture world has ever known to manufacture sentiment into war. •

"The enormous profits of munitions manufacturers, stock brokers and bond dealers must still be further increased. Congress, urged by the President and backed by artificial sentiment, is about to engulf our country in the greatest holocaust the world has ever known.

"We are going into war upon command of gold." Norris continued. "We Against the resolution (Democrats)—
Against the resolution (Democrats)— Lane, Stone, Vardaman. Total, 3.

Republicans—Gronna, La Follette, Norris. Total, 3.

Total against the resolution, 6.
Absent or paired—Bankhead, Goff, and, Follette, Basent or paired—Bankhead, Goff, Gore, Hollis, Newlands, Smith of Maryland, Thomas, Tiliman, 8.

Control to Uphold Fing.

Cannot be made a subject of war but of the modern of place upon this Nation the shame of a still greater submission. They would still greater authorisation and suffer still greater submission. They would still greater submission. They would endure a the not prepared for war in the modern of the mod are about to do the bidding of wealth's replied to Senator Norris by declaring things worse for a nation than war. National degeneracy is worse; national cowardice is worse. The division of omething or will make profits from them."

country—to say that neutral nations shorten the conflict, "but will vastly shall not be crushed under the from extend it by drawing in other nations." heel of that military despotism that threatens the life and civilization of on the German government and not port my Government in its every war need, and shall never vote to sheath the sword until peace, honorable and just shall be restored."

Senator Myers, of Montana, said:

"We can maintain peace no longer and maintain our honor and our rights.

and maintain our honor and our rights. There is one of two courses—submit or fight. The question is, shall we take orders from the German government? If we do not accept Germany's defiant challenge, then the men who fought at Bunker Hill will have died in vain to establish a Nation too degenerate or too cowardly to survive."

Letter From Woman Read. Senator LaFollette began his speech by reading a letter to Representative Helgesen, of North Dakota, from a North Dakota woman, protesting in behalf of her son against the slaughter of war. The Wisconsin Senator was given close attention. given close attention.

"I had supposed until recently," said the Senator, as he concluded the letter, "that it was the duty of Senators and representatives to vote and act their convictions on questions coming before them. Quite another doctrine has been proposed by the newspapers of the country. It is doctrine of standing behind the President without inquiry as to whether he is right or wrong.

quiry as to whether he is right or wrong.

"I have never subscr'bed to that doctrine and I never shall. I have stood behind him when I believed him right and I shall continue to oppose him when I believe him wrong.

"If it is important for us to speak on matters of domestic policy, though we may unfortunately be in disagreement, it is infinitely more important to speak and vote our conviction when the question is one of peace or war, involving and vote our conviction when the ques-tion is one of peace or war, involving certainly the lives and fortunes of our people, and it may be the destinies of all of them and even of the civilized world as well."

The Wisconsin Senator referred to the President's speech to Congress and when he severed relations with Germany the one asking for armed neutrality. He said conditions between this country and Germany have not changed greatly since the diplomatic Charge "Wilful" Resented. Declaring he became convinced that arming of merchantmen would be futile and a "lure to their destruction," Sen-ator LaFollette spoke of how he had been criticised by the Executive for op-posing the armed-ship bill. The Presi-dent's daughter, Mrs. McAdoo, listened from the gallery.

"Representatives of the President saw fit, by methods I do not care to characterize, to prevent my speaking," the Senator said. "The President is-sued a statement in which he saw fit to characterize "willful" the conduct of Senators who, in obedience to their con-victions and oaths of office, opposed the bill. I know of no graver charge." Senator La Follette read a sheaf of telegrams reporting "straw vote," post-card and other polls in various communities opposing war. He declared out of 15,000 or 20,000 letters and telegrams he had received regarding his vote on the armed ship bill, from 80 to 90 per cent had approved his stand. The Sen-ators who opposed the armed neutrality bill had been attacked and "scurrilously libeled" in the newspapers, he declared, contrary to the spirit of fairness which once pervaded the Nation.

Asserting that a minority frequently is able to shape the National policy, Senator La Follette digressed from his prepared speech to make a plea that the people make themselves heard.

"The poor, who are called to rot in the trenches," he declared dramatically, "have now no organized mouthuleas.

"have now no organized mouthplece. They have no press, but some time they will be heard, I hope, in an orderly and peaceful way and before long, when if we take this step prices of necessaries will multiply and they will come to be taxed double again and again. The peoly violated it? replied to Senator Norris by declaring that his charge that the war resolution was placing the dollar sign on the American flag was "almost treason."

His assertion that the nation was going to war on the demand of gold was "an indictment of the President of the United States, an indictment of Congress, of the American people and of the truth."

Senter Norris Read declared was which regards it necessary to declare Senator Norris, Reed declared, was a man so blinded by his obsessions "that all that is necessary to get him to take a false vision is to suggest that some wealth or interest, however remote or contingent, is concerned in for war profits does not attach to something or will make profits from something."

The President is not calling America States has not the confidence of the to arms for the sake of a few pairry dollars. Senator Reed continued, but for the life, honor and integrity of this trance of the United States would not be confidence that enderty the confidence of the confidence of the United States would not be confident.

threatens the life and civilization of free countries and, in fact, the world.

Hisses Bring Warnings.

Senator James, Williams and Pomerene joined in a sharp tilt with the Nebraska Senator at which spectators laughed and applauded. Some hissed statements by Senator Norris and were warned against demonstrations.

When Senator Reed said the Nebraska Senator owed it to the country to make clear his "dollar mark" statement, Senator on the German people. Britain and her purpose to wreak ven-geance on the German people. We did not know what was in the minds of comes us to speak of Germany. Sub-mit this question to the people. By a vote of 10 to 1 they would register their declaration against war."

The Germany. He proved he did not know the difference between a prize court and a torpedo. Great Britain has drowned none of our citizens.

Need of Alliance Cited.

Go to Gray's for the

Easter Suit, Hat Shirt and Scarf

Chesterfield Suits for Men and Young Men in style and quality to please the good dresser. Suits priced $20 and up to $40. Latest Spring style Hats. Stetson, Schoble and Borsalino Italian Hats $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00. Fine Easter Scarfs 50¢ to $3.50. Most beautiful Madras. Flannel and Silk Shirts priced $1.50 to $10.00. All up-to-the-minute ideas of fashion are found herebest in quality, rightly priced.

Store of Style and Quality

R. M. GRAY

Corner Washington and West Park

not ratify the declaration. Senator La this is a Wall street war. That's a lie conducting this campaign through the cress (for war) to make a jumble of ssues," continued Senator La Foilette, until now it is impossible to get an ntelligent answer regarding the real seues. They say Americans are being cilled by German submarines. We have not a leg to stand on in support of this war declaration." "That the United States did not pro-

"That the United States did not protest more vigorously against the British mine field blockade was the Administration's great mistake," the Senator said, "and the real and primary cause of an American war declaration."

"We have wallowed in the mire at the feet of Great Britain and submitted in silence to her dictation," he continued. "Because we acquiesce, we have a legal and moral responsibility to Germany. Thus we have been actively aiding her enemy in starving German women, children and old men. Germany waits three long months for this Government to protest. In printers of the stay until it became assured should stay until it became assured should stay until it became assured that the thouses of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg would no longer reign in Germany and Austria, and that the United States should stay until it became assured that the theat the houses of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg would no longer reign in Germany and Austria, and that the United States should stay until it became assured that the theat the houses of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg would no longer reign in Germany and Austria, and that the United States should stay until it became assured that the theat the houses of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg would no longer reign in Germany and Austria, and that the United States should stay until it became assured that the theat the houses of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg would no longer reign in Germany and Austria, and that the United States should stay until it became assured that the theat the houses of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg would no longer reign in Germany and Austria, and that the United Stave should stay until it became assured that the that the houses of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg would no longer reign in Germany and Austria, and that the Curk would be forced back into Asia.

Senator Husting, Senator La Follette's Wisconsile colleague, said that the own and spoke on his own convictions in times of this kind, the conduct of intended in the houses of Hohenzollern and Hapsburg would no longer reign in the test more vigorously against the Brit-lsh mine field blockade was the Ad-ministration's great mistake," the Sen-ator said, "and the real and primary

"Germany has been patient with us, tanding strictly on her rights to be accorded the same treatment as Engand by us."

When Senator La Foliette concluded to had been speaking more than three ours. Senator Williams of Michigan and they would be disjoyal if Germany Called Patient. "Germany has been patient with us, standing strictly on her rights to be he had been speaking more than three hours. Senator Williams, of Mississip-pi, arose immediately to reply. "The speech of the Wisconsin Senator would better have become ator would better have become Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg than an American Senator," said Senator Williams. "In fact, he had gone further than Herr fon Bethmann-Hollweg would ever have gone. Bethmann-Hollweg said the use of the submarine could be justified only on the ground of necessity, the Senator from Wisconsin puts it on the same footing as Great Britain's interference with our commerce. "I fully expected the Senator from "I fully expected the Senator from Wisconsin, before he took his seat, to defend the invasion of Belgium, the most barbarous act ever committed. I heard from him a speech that was pro-German, pro-Goth, pro-Vandal, and which was anti-President, anti-Congress and anti-American.

"While pronouncing an eulogy of the German people he might have eulogized a very much greater, better and more intelligent people—the American. His speech was exactly what might have been delivered in the German Reichstag by Bethmann-Hollweg, if Bethmann-Hollweg had the audacity. But Bethmann-Hollweg had too much sense, to much knowledge to make that speech."

La Follette Leaves Chamber, At this point Senator La Pollette left the Chamber, but remained in the cloakroom awhile, within hearing dis-Continuing, Senator Williams said continuing, Senator Williams said he heard in imagination the groans of men, women and children sent to watery graves by German submarines. "But the Senator from Wisconsin hears none of them," said the Mississippi Senator. "I have loved the Wisconsin Senator in a way, until recent, but I have no actioned with any ly, but I have no patience with any man who stands up in the Senate at this time applauding the common ene-my who also is the enemy of the hunan race, and has not one word in oralse of the American President or he American people. "If the American people can't be are involved in this war now, but not Senator Pomerene, of Ohio, interrupted by saying about 300 Americans, including women and children, had been killed by submarine warfare.

"How many more does the Senator want to see killed before he is ready to defend our citizens and their rights?" demanded the Ohio Senator.

"If any government were seeking out Americans with intent to kill them because they were Americans with intent to kill them because they were Americans.

Referring to the President's assertion to the German people were thrown into the war without an opportunity to say anything about it, the Senator from Wisconsin labored to establish an identity of purpose and action in the violations of our neutral rights of Great Britain and Germany. He proved he did not know the difference between a prize court and a torpedo. by Congress; involved by the German Kalser. I join the President in ex-

Follette replied that British representatives signed it, and Senator Stone said England had not actually rejected it.

"It has pleased those who have been conducting this campaign through the lies."

Wall street did not sink the Lusitania, the Arabic, the Sussex, and those other ships. I'm tired of lies like that, and I think it is the duty of the American Congress and people to brand them as conducting this campaign through the Senator Williams said the resolution enter the war, but that it go into an American war to protect American rights, and for the sake of honor, jus-tice, safety, liberty and equality Once at war, he declared, the United States his Government to protest. In priniple, therefore, Germany had the right colindly to destroy ships by submarines and mines in her own blockade zone.

Germany is doing only what England in whatever course they does wisent and safest? I want to say that if the

(Concluded on Page P. Column L)

CAN'T FIND DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two ap cations of Danderine rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store and save your hair. After a few applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any falling hair, and the scalp will never itch. from ing hair, and the scalp will never itch.

CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! See if Tongue Is Coated, Breath Hot or Stomach Sour.

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach,

Fig. 20. Hope sentiative London, of New York, Socialist, is the only member who has finity stated his intention to his finite his state of his finite his finity stated his intention to his finite his