

J. A. CHURCHILLS HEAD OF TEACHERS

Oregon Man Selected at Spokane Meeting to Succeed Dr. Henry Suzzallo.

PATRIOTIC ZEAL IS SHOWN

Resolutions of Inland Empire Association Pledge Unswerving Loyalty to President and Advocate Such Instruction.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 6.—(Special.)—J. A. Churchill, State Superintendent of Oregon Schools, was the choice of the nominating committee for president of the Inland Empire teachers at a meeting this morning at the Davenport Hotel. He is to succeed Dr. Henry Suzzallo, president of the University of Washington. The recommendations of this committee always are accepted. Dr. E. O. Holland, president of the Washington State College; Dr. Miles F. Reed, of the Idaho Technical Institute, and Miss May Tremper, State Superintendent of Montana schools, were chosen vice-presidents. The nominating body also chose four members to serve on the executive committee. S. D. Largent, of Great Falls, and Miss Youngbluth, of Spokane, one-year terms; and Miss May Tremper, of the Oregon Agricultural College, and F. W. Simons, of Lewiston, Idaho, two-year terms. It was further recommended that there be no evening sessions hereafter.

Linden McCullough, of La Grande, Or., chairman of the committee, presented the names at the business meeting this evening. The resolutions endorse plans for habits of thrift among children; favor vocational training and its extension, both industrial and agricultural; urge the home garden movement; endorse physical training, Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls; demand utmost reverence for the flag; insist upon pledges of allegiance being memorized by every child and that the National anthem and patriotic songs be sung frequently. Finally, the resolution says that, in view of America's entrance into the great world war, with all its unprecedented possibilities for national wealth and woe, we hereby pledge our unswerving fidelity to, and faith in our National ideals and our National leaders. We believe that these ideals are worth whatever sacrifices may be necessary to uphold them. We believe that the schools at a time like this should teach the children that the sense of true patriotism is self-sacrifice, and should imbue them with the willingness and desire to subordinate their personal welfare to the infinitely more important welfare of that great republic—our beloved republic. One and all we shall stand solidly behind President Wilson. He is our leader and we shall follow the appointed path to the end. There is now no thought of divided opinion, no word of censure, no hesitation or flinching. Onward is our only word henceforth.

WAR SURVEY IS PROPOSED
Fourteen College Presidents Confer for Nation's Welfare.
SPOKANE, Wash., April 6.—Fourteen presidents of colleges, universities and normal schools of the Northwest met today in this city and made tentative plans for the mobilizing of their forces for war. A resolution adopted recommended that a survey as to the qualifications of the students, alumni and members of the faculties of the institutions be made and submitted to the War Department, "in order that we may contribute those especially prepared for special service."

PRICE REGULATION AIM
TREASURER KAY WRITES OREGON CONGRESSMEN URGING ACTION.
Attention Called to Fact That Speculators Are Buying Up Wool Before Sheep Are Shorn.

SALEM, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—Treasurer Kay today directed letters to the Oregon delegation in Congress, asking that steps be taken to regulate food prices. He asserted in his communication that speculators have taken advantage of the war to run up prices, even on American-made goods, the manufacture of which is not affected in any manner by the war, and that as a result the wage-working classes throughout the United States would soon be reduced to the condition of the people in European countries if some remedial legislation is not enacted. He said that speculators have been contracting for wool, as an instance, before the wool is shorn from the sheep, which he declares to be an unusual circumstance and presage of heavy speculation. Mr. Kay declares that if the Government can take steps to protect itself and regulate prices on military contracts, it should also regulate prices for sale of commodities to the private individual.

"If the raw product is sold to manufacturers at an immense increase in price because speculators have run a corner on the market, it means that the consumer must pay the extra cost, while the manufacturer makes no larger profit, and in some instances, not so great a profit," said Mr. Kay.

STILL IS CAPTURED

Sanitary Whisky Plant Found in Woods Near Toledo.

PRISONER TO PLEAD GUILTY
Sheriff Studebaker, of Kalama, Makes 72-Mile Drive Five Times and Success Finally Rewards Efforts.

KALAMA, Wash., April 6.—(Special.)—Sheriff Clark Studebaker and Deputy J. Andy Carter seized a full-fledged moonshine whisky plant, near Toledo yesterday afternoon, together with all the paraphernalia used in making corn whisky, several gallons of which were poured out at the still. James Turner, the man in charge of the plant, was arrested by Sheriff Studebaker last Wednesday and held for selling whisky. Turner, it is said, had been selling his product in the district, and several persons had obtained good sized "jugs." The still was of large capacity, the main container being of about 70 gallons capacity and equipped with several large vats, containing the mixture in various stages of manufacture and soured, manipulated in a very workmanlike and sanitary manner. Everything about the place was kept clean, and showed skill, and knowledge of the manufacture of liquor.

Turner at one time offered to take Sheriff Studebaker and his deputy to the still, but after leading them around in the woods for several hours, said that he would not show the location, and was only trying to get an opportunity to escape. The Sheriff then returned with the prisoner to Kalama, placing him in jail here, and after reflection Turner agreed to give minute details and full directions of locating the plant. This he did, and Sheriff Studebaker again took the long drive of 72 miles for the fifth time, and located the still, returning with all the valuable parts in his automobile last night.

Turner was turned over to the Federal authorities, and will plead guilty. He has a young wife and one child about 2 years old.
