The Package With the Rich, Red Label

GOOD THINGS IN THE MARKET

DESPITE the backwardness of the season welcome signs are in evidence that Spring is just behind the clouds. And as Oregon always keeps well up in the procession strawberry rhubarb, grown near Canby and out of doors is offered this week. The price asked for the newcomer is two pounds, 15 cents. From Louisiana come bright, attractive strawberries, 20 and 25 cents a box. A fresh supply of Avacado or alligator pears from Cuba has arrived. These make choice salads for those who do not need to count cost, as the price is 50 cents each. Cocoanuts from the Fiji Islands, 15 cents each. Bananas, now graded for length, 30 cents a dozen for those eight inches long. Others, 25 cents a dozen. Cranberries, 20 cents a quart. Rhubarb can be found at three bunches for ten cents by those who look around sufficiently. Yellow Newtown apples, considered the reliable household apple for this season of the year, extra fancy, $2.75; choice, $1.75 a box. Other stock, apparently sound to the last one, are offered in market baskets (basket and all) at 40 and 60 cents, and in boxes $1.25 and $1. Roman Beauty apples, real beauties, 10 to 30 cents; Spitzenberg and Newtown, 15 cents a dozen. Winter Russet pears, 25 cents a dozen. Florida grapefruit, 10 and 15 cents each; California, 5 cents, two for 15, and 10 cents each. Blood oranges, 25 cents; tangerines, 5 cents a dozen. Lemons, 10, 15 and 25 cents a dozen.

Oranges, very fine, 30 to 50 cents a dozen. The leader in vegetables this week is apparently radishes, 5 cents a bunch, but they were grown in Sellwood gardens. These are followed by Spring onions from Hood River, three bunches 10 cents. Asparagus, 20 cents a bunch for green, 10 cents for white. Other stock, two pounds for a quarter—green. Tomatoes, from Arizona, 35 cents; other stock, 15, 25 and 30 cents a pound. Green peas are coming down in price—now 10, 12 1/2 and 15 cents a pound. Stringless beans, 50 cents a pound. Fresh mushrooms, 35 cents a pound. The new red potatoes, from Florida, and the white from California, are each 15 cents a pound. Hundred-pound sacks are quoted $3.75 and $4; in small lots, three pounds, 10 cents; four pounds, 15 cents, and six pounds for a quarter. Early Rose seed potatoes, five pounds 15 cents. Cabbage plants, out-door grown, two dozen, 25 cents. Artichokes, large, two for 25 cents. Dried onions, 15 cents a pound. Chili pepper, 75 cents; green pepper, 50 cents a pound. Celery stalks, 15 cents each; spinach, 15 cents; cabbage, 10 cents a pound. Cauliflower, 15 and 20 cents each. Garlic, 15 cents a pound, two pounds 25 cents; cucumbers, 10 and 15 cents each. Lettuce heads, two for 5 cents, 5 and 10 cents each. Rutabaga, three pounds 10 cents. Chickory or endive, cabbage and turnip greens, oyster plant, leaf lettuce, leeks, carrots, turnips, parsnips, small cauliflower, red cabbage, dandelion, parsley and watercress are all very cheap, and none the less wholesome. Hothouse mint, 5 cents a bunch, for Spring lamb or julsips—if anyone has "anything" left. In the fish market stocks are noticeably more abundant. Chinook salmon, 25 and 27 cents a pound. The supply is mostly from the Sacramento River, California. Steel-head salmon, 20 cents. Salmon trout, from Washington, 25 and 30 cents a pound. Halibut from Puget Sound, 20 cents; halibut fillet, 17 1/2 cents a pound. California catfish, 25 cents a pound. From the Sacramento we also get shad, 12 1/2 and 15 cents a pound. Black cod and perch (both black and silver), 15 cents a pound. Flounders, red snapper and skate wings, 12 1/2 cents a pound. German carp, 5 cents a pound. Columbia River smelt is still plenty. The stream comes mostly from the Cowitz, though some have been in the Sandy. They retail at 5 cents a pound; three and four pounds, 10 cents; eight pounds for a quarter; $1 a box.

Shad roe, 50 and 60 cents; shrimp meat, 50 cents a pound. A few razor clams are in market at 20 cents a dozen, but they are very scarce. Eastern oysters, 50 cents; Olympia, 60 cents a pint. Eastern oysters, in shell, 30 cents a dozen. Crabs, of which there is a small supply, 20 to 40 cents each, some of large size. Soft-shell clams, 20 cents a dozen; hard-shell, 5 cents a pound. Prawns, 20 cents; mussels, 10 cents a pound. In the poultry market, hens, 25 and 30 cents a pound; roasters, 30 cents; Spring chickens, 50 cents; capons, 40 cents a pound. Squabs, 50 and 55 cents each; jumbo, 65 and 75 cents each. Turkeys, 35 cents a pound. Guinea fowl, $1.50 each. Best butter, 50 cents; good, 45 cents a pound; $1.95 and 90 cents a roll. Dairy butter, 40 cents a pound, 80 cents a roll. Eggs, 35 and 33 cents a dozen. Among attractive odds and ends offered, Norwegian fish balls at 25 cents a tin, and ripe olives of unusually large size at $1.15 a bottle. Loganberry cider, $2 a gallon; pineapple, $1.50; rhubarb and cranberry, $1 each. Apple cider, 40 and 50 cents a gallon; cider vinegar, 30 cents a gallon. A demonstration of compelling interest these days of high prices is one of dried fruits and vegetables, which shoppers will run across in the large stores. Packages of chopped-up vegetables, at 10 and 25 cents each seem to call for the revival of the old-fashioned stock pot, sacred to the boiling of bones. Other vegetables, potatoes, carrots, etc., when soaked in water, develop into pieces of unlooked for size. The fruits include apples, pears, cherries, raspberries and notably prunes. These last have been dried from first-class fruit, which when stewed are rich, luscious and meaty. The demonstration is commended to housekeepers especially.

Sheep Stealing Is Charged.
 ROSEBURG, Or., April 13.—(Special.)—Tom Davis, alias Tom Jordan, waived preliminary examination in the Justice Court here on a charge of stealing sheep from O. W. Ohlson, a Yoncalla rancher, and was held to appear before the grand jury. He pleaded guilty to having deer meat in his possession out of season and was fined $50.

Armour's STAR HAMS and Bacon

Armour's QUALITY PRODUCTS

Star Bacon The National Breakfast

A SELECTION of the best raw product from the enormous number that pass through Armour's hands, and then processing by the unequalled Armour mild Star cure—that is the secret of quality in these two Oval Label Products. In Star Ham the extra fine flavor imparted by the cure is conserved and intensified by the Stockinet Covering—an exclusive Armour feature, patent applied for. Star Bacon, the National Breakfast, is also unequalled as a side dish; it makes chicken, veal and beef steaks "go farther" and taste better, or, boiled with vegetables is a well balanced dish.
