SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—(Special)

Arlett walked five men in the second today and as Bill Rodgers was a pumpy pop over the infield and Willie got a two-bagger, Portland scored six runs and was never headed. Oakland had plenty of chances to score and did score a lot of runs, but not enough to win the game.

Del Howard used 17 men trying to pull out a victory and even went in as a pinch hitter himself, in the ninth inning when he ended the game with a pop fly. Hack Miller drove in three runs with two hits and a sacrifice fly, and in the eighth with the bases full and two men out, he was walked on purpose, thereby forcing in a run, but preventing him from cleaning up. Murphy made the third out with a roller to Rodgers and Portland was saved. Score: Portland... 8; Oakland... 6.

Moran, Peeved by Blow to Head, Trics Heart Smash Before Right to Chin Pats Opponent Down for Count.

Ever since James J. Corbett found Tom Cowler in a cheap Portland lodging-house some two years ago, the big Englishman's protruding jaw has been getting badly battered by all the best fighters in the world.

NEW YORK LIGHTWEIGHT FINISHES

End Comes for Milwaukee Boxer in Seventh Round When Gothamite Seals Fight to Jaw.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 19.—Benny Leonard, of New York, lightweight, scored a knockout over Richie Mitchell, Milwaukee, in the seventh round of a scheduled ten-round no-decision boxing bout tonight.

The blow that ended the bout was a stiff right swing to the jaw. Leonard had Mitchell a little groggy as early as the second round when he whipped a right across to the chin, forcing the Milwaukee boy to one knee.

Mitchell held the New York even in the third and fourth rounds and in the fifth had a shade by carrying the fight to Leonard throughout.

The sixth was even. The seventh Dillon did the same thing in the second round at Brooklyn, February of last year. He bounced across the ring and placed an overhead right in the proper place, and Cowler didn't wake up until about 15 minutes later in the dressing-room.

Fulton pursued like tactics only two or three months ago, the only difference being that he turned the trick in the first round. Cowler's jaw will soon be aching in the ring.

Cliff Reed, the Los Angeles boy who meets Pete Mitchell at the Rose City Athletic Club Tuesday night, shapes up nicely in his own right. He is fully equipped with a heavy right hand, although he looks a bit heavy for a lightweight. He probably weighs about the same as Mitchell, 125 pounds, and should provide a great semi-windup.

Billy Williams, who makes his debut tonight with Tommy Clark. He is searching for a speedy boy to work with. Three switches have been made in the past night's billings.

Ed Lewis exploded Biddy Bishop's "phenom" in Dayton, O., last week when he knocked out Billy Weeks, the Canadian middleweight champion, in 12 rounds. Bishop took Weeks into Chicago with a blare of trumpets that would have done Jess Willard proud. He demanded that the best man be secured for "him Biddy" and he would do it. Weeks across, but the Canadian could not deliver.

Only eight games are at present scheduled with Northwest Conference colleges, four each with the University of Idaho and Montana.

Coach Bohler stated today that he had not received definite word from Manager Nick Williams, of the Spokane force, relative to games with the Tribe this week. He still has hopes of battling the Indians in Spokane Saturday afternoon for the first and final appearance of the professional before the opening of the league season.

A meeting was held last Saturday, at 4 p. m. were present: C. S. Botford, A. D. Brown, Cecil Bauer, Edward J. Blumenthal, J. G. Conville, I. C. Cunningham, Walter A. Goss, W. E. Grier, J. E. BOSTON, April 19.—A gray-haired bricklayer, William J. Kennedy, of New York, today won the annual American Athletic Club race of 25 miles, outrunning a field of 50 younger men. It was a day of victory for veteran runners, as Stanley H. Hatch, of Boston, outran the "man of a hundred marathons," finished second, and Clarence H. Demar, of this city, winner of the race in 1911, gained third prize.

The time was comparatively slow, Kennedy's winning figures of two hours 28 minutes 37.5 seconds being more than 7 minutes behind the record.

MAJESTARS KILLED

Athletics Will Develop New Heroes After War.

ALL BELLIGERENTS ARE HIT

Tennis, Golf, Soccer, Boxing, Tennis and Nearly Every Other Avenue of Competition Sustains Losses in Hostilities.

Athletics will have to develop new heroes after the war, for many of the old stars will never be seen again in competition. Germany, England, France, Australia, Ireland, Wales and Canada have suffered in every branch of sport.

Among the tennis players Dr. Otto Nirnheim, a dominant figure in tennis in Germany, will never be seen on a court again. Others who have served their last ace are: Anthony F. Wilding, the champion of the present semester, a Davis cup winner in 1914; Kenneth Kewell, captain of the Cambridge tennis team; S. H. Dow, Scottish player, and the French players Cheneil, Bouquet, De Curgis and De Jonaia.

Golf Also Suffers.

Golf has suffered no less than tennis. Among famous golf players who have lost their lives in the war are: Lord Annesley, Captain John Graham, W. A. Henderson, who has a victory over Jerome D. Travers to his credit; Julian Martin-Smith, and Miss Nell Fraser, who died of fever after serving as a nurse in the field; Lord Annesley was a champion of the present semester, will do the receiving. The game has been called for 2:30 o'clock, weather permitting.

Home Run Wins Game, 10-4.

French Boxers Are Lost.

A few other names that might be mentioned as athletes killed in the war are, among others, Fletcher and McCracken, both of Oxford; and among boxers, Charles Ledoux and Henry Pies, the former the holder of French bantamweight honors and the latter the champion welterweight of France.

Ledoux fought Ed Williams, a sensational match for the world's bantamweight championship at Vernon four years ago.

The ranks of the runners and track athletes have also been greatly depleted. A few who will never compete again on the circuit track are: Lieutenant W. W. Halswelle, England's Olympic champion in 1908 in the 400-meter race; Anderson, of Oxford; another Olympic competitor, and James Duffy, the Canadian distance runner, widely known in the United States as one time winner of the New York marathon and the Boston Athletic Association marathon.
