H. Liebes & Co. ESTABLISHED 52 YEARS FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

THE marriage of Miss Barbara Mackenzie and Frederick L. Macleary was solemnized yesterday at noon at the residence of the bride's father, Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Rev. A. A. Morrison officiating. It was a charming and beautiful ceremony, the utmost simplicity prevailing. The bridal party stood beneath a bower of blossoms, which were redolent with the perfume of Spring. Fruit blossoms in their dainty garb of pink and white, against a background of greenery, enhanced the lovely bride and her attendant, Miss Jean Mackenzie. Andrew Kerr acted as best man, and only the relatives of the families were bidden to the ceremony and the reception which immediately followed. Little Tom Kerr, Jr., was the page. The bride, a sweet and attractive girl, was attired in a creation of ivory satin and tulle gown, made on simple lines, with a suggestion of gold lace appearing in the bodice. Her court train was enveloped by the veil, which was of rare old lace, and it was fastened to her coiffure with a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white spray orchids.

number of prominent folk have been invited. Miss Burke also will speak today at a large luncheon to be given at the University Club for members and their friends and the big meeting will also place tomorrow night at the Multnomah Hotel, to which Portland folk interested in this plucky and energetic little woman's campaign are invited.

This is Red Cross day and a red letter day in society, for all social events are impregnated with "war duties" and benefits. One of the largest and most important is the dance to be given at the Multnomah Hotel by the Portland committee of the permanent blind relief war fund of the American-British-French-Belgian Society. Mrs. Charles T. Whitney has been appointed chairman for Portland and is being assisted by Mrs. Walter F. Burrell and a corps of prominent matrons and maids of the city.

At the hours from 4 until 7 o'clock, all the men of the city will have an opportunity of entering into the festivities and aiding the fund by paying the small admission fee. Among the matrons who will preside at the tea table during the afternoon are: Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer, Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mrs. Wheelwright, Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver and Mrs. Thomas Honeyman. Some of the girls who will assist are: Misses Loretta Hardy, Helen Honeman, Kathryn Hoyt, Verna Guthrie, Elizabeth Jacobs, Shirley Eastham, Elizabeth Jones, Mrs. Ella Macdon and her house guest, Miss Swombly, of British Columbia, and Miss Marguerite Bosche, of Los Angeles. Tables will be arranged in the garden and the honorees will be used for dancing. Excellent music has been secured, and the affair should be a big success, as tea dances are now somewhat of a novelty in Portland. All the refreshments have been donated, which bespeaks delicious homemade cakes, cookies, sandwiches and beverages.

On Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock Miss Sarah Agnes Stewart and Dr. Frederick George Bleag were married at St. Andrew's Church by the Rev. Father Kierman. Miss Esther Stewart and Dr. Charles Bleag were the attendants. Margaret and Saretta Jenkinson were flower girls. Breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. W. R. Jenkinson, brother and sister of the bride.

Complimentary to Dr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Matson and Dr. Frederick W. Leadbetter, all of whom recently returned to Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin were hosts for a charming dinner party Monday night, followed by the party at the Orpheum. Covers were placed at the exquisitely appointed table for Dr. and Mrs. Matson, Mr. Leadbetter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell and the hosts.

Yesterday Mrs. Holt C. Wilson entertained with delightful informal tea honoring the charming and fascinating Miss Kathleen Burke, who has come to this city to enlist Portland men and women in the splendid work she is doing for the Red Cross service abroad. Mrs. Wilson's guests were mainly the Red Cross workers or surgical assistants committee workers, who have been so faithful in their work for the past two years. Tonight Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell will be dinner hosts for Miss Burke, their guests to include prominent Britishers who are active in the campaign for Miss Burke, and this affair will be followed by the reception and talk to be given at Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett's residence, to which a

There will be a dancing party at the Rose City Park clubhouse on Friday evening, it being the regular weekly entertainment. Splendid music will be furnished and refreshments for everybody. The program will be under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dennison, assisted by a committee selected for that purpose. Only one more dance will be held by the club before the season closes, which will be on May 11.

Chi Omega fraternity will meet today at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. Skene Moody, 1951 East Davis street.

Arriving at the Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., this week to join the honeymoon colony are Mr. and Mrs. Carleton B. Swift, of Portland. They will remain a fortnight to enjoy the riding and other sports.

The members of the Richmond Tennis Club, of which Benjamin F. Rosalter is president, have issued invitations for an informal stepping party to be held at Waverly Hall, Twenty-sixth and Clinton, on Saturday. The committee on arrangements are Mrs. B. F. Rosalter, Mrs. F. C. Arnold, Mrs. Richard Mathes, Mrs. B. Taylor and Mrs. Willis Runyan.

Among the line parties at the Orpheum Monday was that given to honor Miss Mills Orth, who passed the weekend in Portland as the house guest of Miss Anna Segal. It was a matinee and was followed by a dinner party at the Hazelwood. The party included: Mills Orth, Anna Segal, Fanny Robinson, Merle Balbach, Mary E. Lane, M. Grace Shrader, Dixie L. Storey, Alma M. Harvey, Ceila Cunan, Nellie Lincoln, Mollie Segal, Leona Dorais, Jenette Reid, Margaret See and Bess E. Segal.

Miss Susie Kathryn Albaugh, of Chicago, today will become the bride of Rev. E. H. Longbrake, of Hood River, in this city. The ceremony will be solemnized at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Albaugh, cousins of the bride-elect, and Rev. H. O. Perry will officiate with Dr. Andrew Warner assisting. The couple will be unattended, and an elaborate musical program will be given by Mrs. Walter Reckford. Miss Albaugh has been making her home with her brother in Chicago, and recently arrived in Portland.

Mr. Longbrake will take his bride to Hood River to make their future home after a wedding trip of a few weeks. Mr. Longbrake was formerly a pastor in a Chicago church, and came to this city several months ago from Lewiston, Idaho. The members of the Professional Women's League will give a tea tomorrow at the University Club from 4 until 5:30 o'clock to meet Miss Kathleen Burke. Members may bring guests. Mrs. Fletcher Linn, assisted by Mrs. Charles Edwin Sears and Mrs. Frank ENTRYMEN MAY GO TO WAR Credit on Homestead Requirements Will Be Allowed.

Homesteaders who enlist in the Army or naval forces of the United States in time of war will receive credit for their service in time subtracted from the period of residence required upon their lands, if they go about it properly. Certain requirements to obtain this credit are necessary, points out N. Campbell, Register of the United States Land Office in Portland.

The law requires that entrymen who enlist shall give notice of that fact to the Land Office where the original homestead filing was made and also particulars as to which branch of the service and what unit the homesteader has been assigned. Some permanent address of a relative or trustee for the homesteader. It is pointed out, should also be left with the Land Office so that notices regarding the land may be sent to that person in the absence of the claimant on war duty.

Do Movies Hurt Your Eyes?

The minute you step into a darkened theater your eyes have to begin working doubly hard. When you get seated and turn your attention to the picture, they begin working still harder. All the time you are sitting there, they are straining themselves tremendously—whether you know it or not.

The work is hard enough for them if your sight is perfect. But a great many people have imperfect sight without realizing it.

Perfect eyes tire a little. Imperfect eyes ache.

If yours ache, you'd better let us have a look at them.

Eyeglasses can't overcome everything in all cases. But in many, many cases they can and do overcome the kind of defect that makes them ache at the movies.

There was no clerk until a disappointed customer remarked as she turned away that she had read a recipe for clam chowder in the Oregonian Thursday that had "looked good to her."
