Superintendent Alderman Informs Board Lack of Precaution Costs Time.

FRANKLIN HIGH IS CLOSED

Minneapolis Head, Who Is Visitor, Says That City Employs 8 Physicians and 28 Nurses; Portland Has 4 Doctors and 1 Nurse.

Health of Portland school children and the lack of what was considered proper inspection was a problem tackled by the School Board at its regular meeting yesterday.

The Franklin High School, it was declared, closed yesterday because of three cases of scarlet fever in that school, and it will remain closed until Monday to give an opportunity for fumigation.

The city has always been backward in appropriating money for health purposes, said Dr. Alton Welch Smith, Professor Frank E. Spaulding, superintendent of the city schools of Minneapolis, who has just been elected to a similar position in Cleveland, was present, and was asked how the problem was managed in Minneapolis.

First-aid work is to be introduced into the summer schools of the city, patterned after similar work outlined by the Red Cross.

LOG CABIN BAKING CO.

Prices of flour and other ingredients used in making bread have advanced enormously. The following list, showing average prices we paid before the war and prices that are in effect now, will tell the story:

Table with 4 columns: Average Wholesale Prices—, Before the war, Now, Flour, Sugar, Short 'g. Cond. Milk.

The 5c loaf had to be gradually cut in size until it can't be called a loaf any longer—and now cannot be made smaller without injuring the quality.

CHANGES IN PRICES

Taking Effect Monday, May 7

TIP-TOP BREAD (with about 8 oz. added weight), 10¢ a loaf. No more 5c size. HOLSUM BREAD (baked in a smaller pan), 10¢ a loaf—wrapped. HOLSUM BREAD (baked in the Standard Holsum Pan), wrapped, 15¢ a loaf.

We strongly recommend the 15c size of HOLSUM BREAD, which makes an ideal slice, especially for toast. Remember that you get fully 5c worth of more bread in the 15c size than in the 10c size.

As much as we regret to have to make these changes, we trust that the public will appreciate the facts and give us their support in solving the bread problem.
