Problem of Farmers Taken Up by Employment Experts.

MEETINGS ARE ARRANGED

Instruction to Be Given in Production of Crops and Parade Next Saturday Night.

Like ancient Gaul, the Oregon food preparedness campaign, with headquarters at 315 Oregon building, is divided into three parts, as respects the move-farms. The plan as now being worked out includes general instructions in agri-culture and farming operations, the labor enlistment and assignment and a business exchange, aiding employer and employe to get together. Yesterday considerable progress was made in the last two endeavors, for the City Employment Bureau, formerly at Fourteenth and Johnson streets, decided to open a branch office on North Third street and co-operate closely with the United States Labor Bureau offices to the end that the farms of the state may be supplied with men during cineration of the body took place at the Portland Crematorium and was private.
