ALL I. W. W. NOW FREED

STREET MEETINGS IN EVERETT WILL NOT BE ATTEMPTED.

Last of 74 Are Released at Seattle on Recommendation of Snohomish Prosecutor.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 10.—Nine men, the last of 74 imprisoned in connection with the battle at the Everett City Dock November 5, 1916, were released from jail today on order from Superior Judge Ronald after Prosecutor Lloyd Black, of Snohomish County, had requested that the cases against them be dismissed. The nine were members of the party of Industrial Workers of the World which went to Everett on the steamer Verona November 5 to test, according to their claim, the right of free speech on the streets of Everett. In the clash with a Sheriff's posse at the dock two Deputy Sheriffs and five men aboard the Verona were killed. Of the 74 imprisoned, Thomas H. Tracy was tried for murder and acquitted, James Kelly was returned to Pennsylvania to serve an unexpired prison sentence, and the rest were released. The men who were freed today were Charles Adams, John Downs, Ed Roth, Earl Osborne, James Bates, J. E. Houlihan, J. P. Billings, Harry Hubler and F. O. Watson. It is understood that the Industrial Workers will not make an effort to hold street meetings in Everett, on the advice of Judge Ronald and labor union leaders who have supported the Industrial Workers during the contest just ended. General Ruskay Removed. PETROGRAD, via London, May 10.—General Ruskay has been removed from the chief command of the army of the Northern front. He remains, however, a member of the Council of War. ADAMS PREACHES ROADS

COMMISSIONER RUBS SHOULDERS WITH UNION COUNTY MEN.

Verbal Clash With Senator Pierce Canceled Because Injury Prevents Legislator's Presence.

LA GRANDE, Or., May 10.—(Special.)—Rubbing shoulders with Union County ranchers who are known to be opposed to the bonding bill, E. J. Adams, a member of the State Highway Commission, conducted his energetic drive today for good roads. His stay in Union County was literally a "drive." Late in arriving, Mr. Adams speeded up on reaching here at noon, being escorted by good roads boosters to Imbler, Elgin and other points by automobile. He returned this evening and at once began his address to a mass meeting in the Methodist Church, which attained big proportions. Concisely and clearly he drove home arguments for hard-surface roads and gave explicit and pertinent figures. What had promised to be an exceptional feature of the mass meeting had to be abandoned in that an injury kept Walter M. Pierce, Joint Senator from Union and Waiwata Counties, from attending the meeting and doing verbal battle with the noted good roads apostle. Mr. Pierce was anxious to lock horns with Mr. Adams, but an injured knee kept him away. A lively duel was anticipated by the pros and antis. In his drive through the valley today, Mr. Adams preached the gospel of good roads eloquently and convincingly. Tomorrow he continues his "drive on Union County," with a visit to Union and Cove. Logan-Clackamas Road Work On. CLACKAMAS, Or., May 10.—(Special.)—The work of grading and rocking the Logan-Clackamas county road, which has been in bad condition, began last week, with Road Supervisor Gerber in charge. A county rock crusher is stationed at Baker's Bridge, and is crushing rock, which is being hauled by auto trucks. HOME-BUYING IS ADVISED Visitor to California Tells of Lower Prices in Portland. Informality marked the weekly luncheon of the Greater Portland Association yesterday at the Emson Hotel. There was no set address. Captain William Gadsby, just home from California, spoke on the importance of spending one's money at home. In California, he said, he felt the need of buying a number of things that were required on the trip, but he found when he got home again that he could have purchased the same things here for less money. Plans were laid for observing Port week, and on May 17 the association will be addressed by G. B. Hegardt, engineer for the Port of Portland. Aberdeen Libel Suit Revived. ABERDEEN, Wash., May 10.—(Special.)—An amended complaint in the dismissed libel suit of N. D. McKillop against the Aberdeen World has been filed, presumably for the purpose of having it made the basis of an appeal. Judge Abel in dismissing the original suit ruled that the alleged libelous advertisement published was not libelous and further that it was privileged. Mr. McKillop alleged the advertisement, which was signed by 49 prominent businessmen, was the cause of his defeat for County School Superintendent. Balsa wood, found in Central America, is said to be the lightest known wood. It is lighter than cork and has an average specific gravity of only .104.
