ENGINEERS CALLED FOR

Grant Smith Company Helps Recruiting for Army Service.

To facilitate the recruiting of men for the Eighth Regiment, Railway Construction Engineers, under Lieutenant-Colonel Cavanaugh, of Seattle, the Grant Smith Company has had placards printed and placed in employment agencies in cities in which the company has headquarters, reading as follows: "Wanted—Railroad men to enlist in Engineers' Railroad Construction Division, United States Army, for railroad construction work in France. Clothing, board and transportation by the United States. For further information, see Grant Smith Company." The Portland headquarters of the

BOOSTER DAY IMPROBABLE

Subscribers and Others Want Postponement Because of War.

OREGON CITY, Or., May 11.—(Special.)—Booster day, the annual festival event of this city, will probably be eliminated this year on account of the war. A vote taken on the question among the former subscribers to the fund and other leading citizens was against the event this year. This may result in a grand patriotic celebration of the Fourth of July. This vote is not final as the regular committee will consider the question in the near future.

TROUBLES ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED

Fathers and mothers worry over a child with a chronic cough.

Knudt Lee, Wannaska, Minn., writes: "For several years my daughter had a bad chronic cough. Every time she caught a little cold, it aggravated the trouble. We tried many medicines, but not until we tried Foley's Honey and Tar did anything produce any great relief. In a few days the trouble entirely disappeared and has never returned." Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough.
