DEATH WEAPON HERE

Confessed Murderer Pawned Revolver on Fifth Street.

TWO CRIMES RECALLED

Joseph Redenbaugh, Alias Hamilton, Stops Long Enough En Tour South to Get $5 on "Young Cannon," Stolen Auto Downfall.

The revolver with which Joseph Redenbaugh, alias Edward Hamilton, killed Mrs. Alice McQuillan Dunn and Patrolman George H. Connerly, at Minneapolis in April, according to confessions said to have been made to the San Francisco police, has been found in a Portland pawnshop by Detective Captain Batty and Detective Leonard. The revolver is a 44-40 caliber one and looks like a young cannon. It was recovered after word was received here from San Francisco that the revolver had been pawned in a local shop. The broker gave Hamilton $5 for the weapon. Patrolman Connerly arrested Redenbaugh and a companion, Frank Curtis, alias McCool, in Minneapolis, April 24, for speeding. The policeman climbed to the running board of the car to take the prisoners to police headquarters. His body was found the next morning in the brush about five miles out of Minneapolis. It was badly mutilated and showed a number of gunshot wounds. Police officers all over the country were notified of the killing and rewards aggregating $300 were offered by state and county officials. A few days ago Redenbaugh was arrested in San Francisco and confessed to the crime. He directed local officers, through the San Francisco detective, to a pawnshop "somewhere near Fifth street." The pawnshops were combed yesterday and the weapon was located. Redenbaugh was through Portland on May 5, and pawned the revolver at that time. The revolver will be held by Captain Batty until the arrival of Minneapolis authorities who will be through here on their way back from San Francisco with Redenbaugh. The machine in which Redenbaugh, Curtis and their accomplices were riding while going to Minneapolis was stolen from Omaha and it is thought that the fear of theft, being detected, led to the murder of the officer who arrested them for speeding.

PARTY STARTS EAST TOMORROW Minneapolis and St. Paul Officials to Take Slayer Back.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—District Attorney O'Brien, of St. Paul, and Detective Burns, of Minneapolis, arrived here late today to prepare to take Joseph Redenbaugh, confessed murderer of Mrs. Alice Dunn and Patrolman George Connerly, to St. Paul for trial. Redenbaugh, who was arrested here last Friday with his young wife, reaffirmed today his confession of the murders, the police said. The Minneapolis detective went to Sacramento today to obtain Governor William D. Stephens' signature to requisition papers for Redenbaugh and his wife. It is expected the party will leave next Saturday.

MAYOR RESPONDS TO CALL

Jefferson's Council Chief Enrolls in Officers' Training Camp.

JEFFERSON, Or., May 16.—(Special.)—While many cities have sent prominent residents to the officers' training camps, Jefferson claims a unique distinction in that its Mayor answered the call. George P. Griffith, Mayor of Jefferson, is now in the training camp at the Presidio, San Francisco. He has tendered his resignation as Mayor to the City Council, but it has not been accepted and will not be until it is certain that he will not return soon. Mr. Griffith was cashier of the Oregon State Bank here. Besides serving as Mayor, he was clerk of the local school district.

ALBANY PROFESSOR HONORED.

ALBANY, Or., May 16.—(Special.)—Professor F. C. Kent, instructor in mathematics in Albany College, has been chosen as instructor in mathematics at the summer school of the University of Oregon. He is the author of some text-books on mathematical subjects.

2000 VOICE LOYALTY

Jackson County Rally at Medford Is Patriotic.

GOVERNOR IS HONOR GUEST

Children, Farmers, Veterans, National Guard, Women Cavalry and Pastors March in Big Demonstration—Crops Emphasized.

MEDFORD, Or., May 16.—(Special.)—More than 2000 people of Medford and Jackson County joined today in the largest and most enthusiastic patriotic demonstration ever seen in Southern Oregon.

All ages and all classes were represented in the parade, from school children dressed in red, white and blue, to veterans of the G. A. R.; from sun-burned ranchers in their working clothes with hoses and pitchforks, in the "Army of the Hoe," to representatives of the Japanese colony in native costume, with the Stars and Stripes intertwined with the Japanese National emblem above them. Every social and civic organization in Medford was represented in the parade and 250 marchers came from Ashland. There were delegations from Central Point, Gold Hill, Willow Springs, Table Rock.

Three bands, two companies of National Guard, a body of mounted women cavalry, and 100 women dressed as Red Cross nurses participated. To show that pacifism is not the present creed of local churches, the Ministerial Association marched in a body.

The University Club members joined the demonstration under the banner, "Our Families, Vocations, All—We Place on the Altar of Our Country's Call."

To give an added touch to what Medford considered a particular contribution to the war, the procession was followed by a load of grain hay, on the top of which flew the American flag, tied to the handle of a pitchfork.

The spectacle was an impressive one as the thousands of marchers and bystanders gathered in the brilliant morning sunshine about the reviewing stand in the City Park and listened to words of greeting and congratulation from Governor Withycombe, the guest of honor.

The Governor praised the spirit demonstrated in the Rogue River Valley. In proportion to its size he said the Rogue River Valley holds the patriotic record for the country.

BOOTLEGGERS ARE FINED $200

Total of $1567 Collected in Astoria Liquor Cases Since January 1.

ASTORIA, Or., May 16.—(Special.)—In the Justice Court today Thomas Hyre, arrested a few days ago on a charge of bootlegging, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $200.

The fine makes a total of $1567 collected in the Justice Court since January 1, 1916, in bootlegging cases.

JEFFERSON HIGH STUDENTS TO TILL SOIL.

JEFFERSON, Or., May 16.—(Special.)—Jefferson has adopted what is regarded as a better plan than that followed by most cities in seeing that its vacant lots are put in cultivation and made to produce supplies to meet the expected food shortage. The agricultural class of the High School has taken up the matter and is interviewing all property owners to ascertain if their lots will be utilized. In cases where the owners are making no provision, the class will attempt to make arrangements to see that the lots are cultivated properly.

NORTHELIFE MILLS TO CLOSE.

ST. JOHNS, N. E., May 16.—Inability to obtain steamers to transport their product to England has resulted in a decision of Lord Northcliffe and his associates to shut down their large paper mills at Grand Falls.

GOVERNMENT DAILY OUT

OFFICIAL NEWS GIVEN IN NEW PUBLICATION.

Postoffices, Newspapers and Public Organizations Will Receive Paper Without Cost.

Uncle Sam's first venture as publisher of a daily newspaper began last Thursday, when the initial issue of "The Official Bulletin" left the press. Copies were received yesterday by Postmaster Myers.

The purpose of the Bulletin, which will be posted generally, is declared in the initial number to be: "To inform the public on the progress of the war and of official acts incident to its prosecution." The Bulletin will be published daily by the newly created committee on public information.

This committee was authorized on April 14 by order of President Wilson, who named the Secretary of War, Secretary of the Navy, Secretary of State, with a civilian chairman, George Creel, as its members.

The Official Bulletin is devoted to the dissemination of official news which the Government desires to release. The contents of its first issue are varied—direction to postmasters to report treasonable acts or speech; the death of a naval yard employe, retired; United States censorship rules for cable, telephone and telegraph communication beyond the borders; the renaming of interned and seized German ships; advice on procedure necessary to secure permit to leave the country; statistical tables on foodstuffs, finance and a score of other subjects.

It is printed at Washington, D. C. It is 12x9 1/2 inches in size and of eight pages. Directions are given for its posting in all postoffices, while newspapers and public and semi-public agencies will receive it without cost.
